NOTWITHSTANDING the hard times J. R. Trimble is showing out the goods in great quantities. What is the reason? Why, because his prices are right and every person is dealt with on the square.

It is not the correct thing in society now for a young man to say to his affianced. "Darling, lay your head upon my breast." He should say, "Poll, take your wig off of my wish-bone."

BACK AGAIN.—Mr. Jas. Allen, of Allenford, has been again placed in the chair in the Amabel council for the year of 1886. If experience is any use to a man we think Mr. Allen has it, and there is one thing certain that the ratepayers of Amabel are not tired of their long tried Reeve.

THE Canadian Pacific Railway has put in a claim to the rebellion claims commission for $700,000 for transporting the troops to and from the scene of the disturbances in the Northwest. A story is told of a shrewd Scotch-woman who tried to wean her husband from the dram-shop by employing her brother to act the part of a ghost, and frighten John on his way home. "Who are you?" said the guidman, as the apparition rose before him from behind a bush, "I am Auld Nick," was the reply. "Come awa', man," said John, nothing daunted. "Gie's a shake o' your hand. I am married to a sister o' yours."

KIMBERLY ORANGE SOIREE.—The Orange Soiree came off on Friday last the 15th as advertised, and there was a good attendance. The tea was excellent, the program good and the musical part of the entertainment by Misses Wilson was grand. Very appropriate addresses were delivered by Rev. A. Wilson and Dr. Sproule, M. P., of Markdale. We feel indebted and thankful to those from Markdale who so cheerfully and ably assisted. [One who was there.]

FIRE AT EDGE HILL.—On Thursday morning last, about two o'clock Mr. Robt. Moffat's house at Edge Hill, Glenelg was noticed to be on fire. The flames had made to much progress when discovered to give any hope of saving the house which was totally destroyed along with most of the contents, as Mr. Moffat, and family had only time to get out with a few articles. This will be a serious loss as the house was a good frame one, and recently built.—[Grey Review.]

KNAPP is opening the eyes of business men as well as the citizens with cheap groceries, wines, liquors, &c. See his adv. in another column and then give him a fair trial.

THE other evening two loving couple might have been seen wending their way towards the parsonage; for what purpose we leave our readers to guess. When they reached the gate one of the ladies made an effort to escape. At this one of the young men broke out in a lamentable voice, "I want to marry her, and she wants to marry me, but I can't get her to go in." And she didn't go in either. We hope the matter will end more successful next time, or else that they will talk in more subdued tones. We pity the young man, are glad for the young lady, and sorry for the minister, who for the time being at any rate lost his fee.—[Dundalk Herald.]

MR. ROBT. SNELL, lot 5, con. 8, N. T. & S. R., Holland, died suddenly last Sunday. The deceased though a stout hearty man, upwards of 60 years of age, has been sorely afflicted with business troubles of late, and was also troubled with heart disease, to which his sudden death is attributed. About 10 a. m. on Sunday he went out to the stable to attend to the horse, and being longer out than usual his daughter went out after him about 11 o'clock and found him lying just behind the horse, where he had fallen while in the act of cleaning out the stable. As there were no suspicious circumstances attending his death an inquest was not considered necessary.—[Chatsworth News.]

CLERICAL CHANGES.—Rev. Father Cassin removes this week to Mt. Forest to take the place of Father O'Donnell who goes to Galt, while Father Feeney of Arthur takes the Pricaville and Glenelg parish. The removal of Father Cassin from this district will be much regretted, not only by his own people but by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance, as he is possessed with rare social qualities and executive abilities, while his moral influence is felt for good wherever he goes. He is however making a good change for himself, and carries with him the best wishes of a large circle of acquaintances.

Rev. J. G. Fallis, Dutton, certifies: "For some years my wife has been troubled with Dyspepsia, and has tried one thing after another recommended but with little or no effect till advised to give cGregor's Speedy Cure a trial.
