Sap Trough Castle, 14th April A. D. 1886.

Dear Sir, I have just finished making about 50 pounds of the best Maple Syrup you ever set eyes on; and I have heard so much about Mark-dale that I just made up my mind that I would see that village and trade off my Syrup for Store Goods. So says I to my old man, I am going down to Markdale; and says he, you aint going to take any Syrup, as us and the children can eat Syrup just as well as those stuck up villagers; but you'd better take some money so that if you see some cheap goods down there you can buy them. Well Sir, I went down, and there was Markdale as large as life. The first store building I saw was one of the allfredest nicest houses I ever saw, and I stopped and asked who owned it, and was told Dr. Sproule.
Well, it beats all what the N. P. will do for some people. I strolled round town, visited several stores and finally got into your store. I saw Mr. Bowes, Ardy Mc., Charley Lawrence and Bert Gasson. I heard that they were not too accommodating and were slow; but, to my surprise, they were active and busy, and no sooner had I stepped in the door than one of them began to show me the New Goods which had just arrived from England. As soon as he told me the prices I began to think of the money the old man gave me.
The first I priced was Dress Goods, and when he showed me your All Wool Dress Goods for 25 cents per yard, I smiled, then he smiled, then we both smiled; I couldn't stand it longer, so I took 20 yards; then I bought a pair of Lace Curtains, tony, only $1.00, which beats everything I ever saw; then he showed me some Cheap Boots & Shoes, I bought a pair of all leather water tight for the sugar bush for $1.35; then I took a look at your Hand Sewed Boots for men, the best I ever saw, price $3.50. My Jack was with me, says he, mother, I must have a pair of these here Boots. Just when he was trying them on (a pair of 10's) up you stepped and said to me, your boy is built both for strength and activity, legs like a deer and feet like a bear. Jack didn't like it much, but the Boots were so cheap that he took a pair. We then went over to the Grocery counter and sampled your Tea. Now, if there is anything in this world I know when I see, it is good Tea, and I was so pleased with your thirty (30) cent Japan Tea that I took the largest box I could get (67 lbs). We then went upstairs and took a look through your Clothing, and it was so good and cheap and fitted so well that Jack was bound to have a suit: I just had $4.00 left, so Jack went down into his breaches pocket with his left hand and brought out a handful of tobacco and silver and picked out $3.50, so we put it together and bought him the suit.
As soon as I go home and get some more money I am coming back to get the old man one of your cheap suits. I priced nearly all the different kinds of goods you had, and no mistake they are the cheapest and best I have seen for years, and I will not hesitate to tell my neighbors. Your Millinery Goods are just the lovehest I ever clapped eyes on, and Mary Jane, she teaches school up on the 7th, will come in and get a Hat, Parasol, and other fixins She and Joe is going to get spliced this Fall and will want a lot of stuff.
Take it all in, you beat the hull country, and I am not giving you any taffy either. I will be down again soon. Wishing you continued prosperity and good health.
Yours faithfully,
MRS. MARY JANE PEPPER.
P. S.—Come up and bring the misses and have a Taffy Pull.
