MARKDALE JUNE 24 1886

"IN THE MIDST OF LIFE WE ARE IN DEATH."

In a little over a week, death has claimed three victims in our village. On the 12th inst., James William, son of Rev. A. Wilson, passed away at the age of 8 years. Deceased was a strong vigorous and very promising boy. He recently recovered a severe attack of inflammation of the bowels, but had a relapse, which hastened him to a premature grave.

Then Lottie Mann, a girl of 15 summers, amiable and forbearing in her disposition, and a favorite of all who knew her, was called to her reward on the morning of the 17th. Lottie has been in poor health for some time but nothing serious was anticipated until a few days before her demise. She was the eldest of the family and upon her rested, in a great measure, the care of her mother, who has been an invalid for several months and whose recovery is very doubtful.

Then on Friday last we were surprised to learn of the sudden and serious illness of another citizen of more mature years, Mr. Michael Sullivan, who was stricken down with inflammation of the lungs, and died on Monday morning, aged 45 years. Deceased has been for some 33 years a respected and well-to-do farmer in Artemesia, but the last four years has resided in Markdale. He leaves a wife and three children with a large circle of friends to mourn his premature death. We extend to the bereaved, in each case, our condolence.

Correspondence.

NOTICE.—We wish it distinctly understood that we do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions expressed by our correspondents

To the Editor of the STANDARD.

DEAR SIR,—I have to ask for a space in your valuable paper to show your readers that there is a mistake about me putting a fence across 50 sideroad. I placed a fence across a disputed deviation, and I also deny of them taking proceedings at my expense; I am inclined to think that it is at the ratepayers expense like all others mistakes.

I notified the Holland Council that if they had a proper title, to come and stake out the deviation and I would build my fence in the proper place at once. I don't think they have either plan or specification, they cannot however be found recorded, and I hope this will end my writing in the matter, if not, I shall be very apt to jog their memory.

MARSHALL WARD,
Berkeley.

Feversham.

From a Correspondent.

Quite a number of our boys went to Eugenia on Saturday to witness a baseball match between Kimberley and Eugenia.

Mr. A. McGirr has gone to Owen Sound to attend County Council.

Mr. Joseph Henderson is away to Belle Island, Lake Simcoe, to attend S. A. camp meeting. The S. A. Captain and Mrs. Poole have gone also.

David Wood, our popular shoemaker, is adding improvements to our village by building a new house. Mr. J. Linley has the contract.

W. H. Campaigne is shipping daily, quantities of hardwood lumber to Toronto.

R. T. McGirr has been around purchasing potatoes this last week. Bob is paying good prices I believe.

Mr. Magee, of Perry Sound, paid our town a flying visit last week.

Mr. A. H. will have to be careful when driving through town with that wild horse, especially when in the some of the fair, but with him, in case of an accident, happens.

Fleasherton.

From our own correspondent.

The township fathers had quite a lively time Saturday last in the Town Hall adjusting the assessments of a large number of ratepayers in this township.

The news has just reached us while writing of the death of an old pioneer in this county, Mr. Richard Campbell, sr., who lived on his farm adjoining this village for a number of years, died at his daughter's residence, Colingwood, on Monday last. His remains are to be brought here and interred in the family burying plot, Fleasherton cemetery, on Wednesday, the 23rd.

Extensive preparations and constant practice still goes on here in preparation for the rendering of "Queen Esther Oratorio" on Dominion Day evening here. The drilled is now platformed for the performers, and the large company are practicing there every night this week. Magnificent costumes have been secured in Toronto for the occasion.

The Presbyterian congregation of this place purpose holding their church anniversary services (D.V.) on Sabbath next. The Rev. Mr. Colter, of Meaford, will preach in the morning at 10:30 and in the evening at 6:30. On the Monday evening following, the annual festival will be held, we understand. Several prominent ministers will be present to speak on that occasion.

The Rev. Mr. McIntyre, of Berkeley, preached a very practical and interesting sermon in the Presbyterian church here Sabbath afternoon last.

The genial editor of the Advance returned on Saturday last from his holiday tour as pleasant, happy and if anything better looking than ever.

The Dinwoody Bros., of Stayner, are spending a few holidays with their parents and friends in this locality.

John Bannan, Esq., formerly of this village, is at present rustivating in this locality having returned home from Toronto where he has been pursuing his studies in medicine.

Maxwell.

(From our correspondent.)

It is really too bad that our village is not any better represented in your valued paper, so I give you a few items.

Mr. Cyrus M. Field, who is now in Mr. R. J. Sproule's establishment, Fleasherton, was out here on a visit over last Sunday. His sister, Mrs. Wright, of Kleinburg, is now on a visit to her parents and friends.

Last Wednesday the barn of Thomas Gamey, Esq., was raised. There were over one hundred present, and things were lively for a while.

I understand that the Presbyterians of Maxwell, Feversham and McIntyre intend having a picnic on Dominion Day, but the place of meeting is not yet determined.

The Sons of Temperance, I believe, will also have a picnic at Heron's Mill on the same day. No doubt a pleasant time will be spent at each, and all friends will be welcome.

A number of Fleasherton's young men are spending a short time camping out at Heron's Mill. We suppose they use their fishline for trout, and their firearms to kill the mosquitoes. Don't know what else they can exterminate.

According to last draft of stations of the Toronto Methodist Conference, we see Rev. S. A. Arkels is to be removed from this field of labor. Mr. Arkels has been here for only a year, and is universally well liked. From what I can hear his removal was altogether uncalculated for, and the church authorities here will do their utmost to prevent it. Mr. Arkels is now on a visit to his father and mother in Belleville.

MENTOR.

Roller Mills.

PLEWES' FULL PROCESS ROLLER MILL CROWDED BEYOND ITS UTMOST CAPACITY—RUNNING NIGHT AND DAY, AND YET CAN'T CATCH UP, SO GREAT IS THE DEMAND FOR VICTOR ROLLER MILL FLOUR

For the first time in a milling experience of eighteen years we find ourselves so crowded with work that it looks almost impossible for us to catch up with it. We emphatically and unhesitatingly declare that we thank our friends the ladies for this, and we are proud and pleased to learn from them in so decided and practical a way that we are giving them satisfaction in the flour they get from us. We say we give the ladies the credit! Why? Because seldom a day passes but some new customer tells us the woman sent him, or some old one that he has mills near hand, but the woman won't hear of him going anywhere else now.

We were satisfied at the outset that if we could do anything that would improve the quality of the flour used in this country, and so relieve our women from part of the toil and worry baking, or even if we could not lighten the work, but could only give them a flour that would be sure, after their work with it, to always make good bread, that we would not only earn but receive the hearty thanks and earnest support of every woman in the county, and that very few men would get much rest or satisfaction until they had been at our mill or got some of our flour.

We are glad to know that the great expense of building and furnishing latest and most approved roller process machinery has been crowned with success, and that we make a flour that not only always makes good bread, but what pleases us fully as much is, that it also lightens the woman's house work, for it don't require half the kneading or attention of the old style flour. Any one who comes to our mill and see the crowd there every day and the amount of work we have to do can judge for himself that our confidence in the gratitude of the woman of this county was not misplaced, and we may say at once that they have responded far beyond our most sanguine expectations, and to such an extent that we fear we will yet have to enlarge our grinding capacity. In return we have to assure you, ladies, that we will continue to do our very best to please you and give you the best article of flour that can be made. We will spare no expense to keep our mill to the front rank, judge by the quantity of its work, and we want you to know the feeling that we appreciate your hearty and unanimous response to the effort we make to lighten your home work and relieve you from the worry and annoyance of ever having in your house that article most productive of growlings and grumbings in men—bad bread.

While we are so crowded with work that we can't give all the attention to customers we would like we trust no one will feel slighted, but bear with us under present circumstances, and if any mistake occurs kindly let us know at once, so that we may rectify it.
