

Feverish.
From a Correspondent.
The order of the day here is the order of the day here. The boys of all sizes wending to and from the patch near this place. Hamilton, a former miller in the place here, was visiting friends in the place here. R. Park, has been a stage driver. Mr. George has been driving stage this past week. A. McKinnon, a former teacher in the public school, was visiting at the place here. Collingwood, said Mrs. T. Perigo, a short visit, was looking up here. Mat. Wood has his hair cut. The boys waken up and don't let their heads sleep on Sunday night and take the train out for a drive. Mr. Carr has parted with the celebrated "Butcher Girl." Will. McKinnon has her new Price private, which she owns her now. Price private, I believe. The strange to me what takes place every Sunday. I think it is a little load-stone out there. Mr. Meador, the renowned horse driver, spent a couple of days at Mr. Meador last week.

OFF WORK
One of work for two years suffering from disease, and could get no relief until a friend to try B. B. I. sent me two bottles, and considered it a cure. The above is the substance of a communication from Wm. Tier, of this place.

Holland Centre.
From our own correspondent.
The farmer about two miles here, had his house burned about the 28th ult. Most of the contents were saved. We understand he was $300 of insurance. The wheat is good where it was winter-killed. The sample is excellent. Spring crops are looking vigorous thus far. The late Galbraith conducted Jas. to jail on Monday, he choosing to serve three months rather than pay a fine. Mrs. Halstead, wife of Dr. Halstead, of this place, died of apoplexy on the 15th ult. On Monday evening last a number of Melnyre's friends met at his residence on the eve of his departure and presented him with an address of condolence.

Church Notes.
Mrs. Kelly, the vocalist, late of this place, has been engaged to sing at the Brampton Presbyterian church for $300 per year. Mr. J. A. McAmion, Presbyterian minister, formerly of this place, is, we understand, now stationed at Chatsworth. The quarterly services last Sunday in this church were largely attended and the service throughout interesting and impressive. The subject for next evening will be "question for young men" and a sermon for the youth school workers and children the morning.

In Bad Humour
A year ago my head was covered with sores and the eruption covered my whole face also, and spread even to the back of my hands and feet. I became weak and ill. Finding I was not getting any better, I tried Burdock Blood-Bitters. Two bottles perfectly cured me." Statement of Miss Minnie Stephenson, Coalgate, N. B.
