

"Some Atmosphere" Continued.

We are apt to think that perhaps Tomkins... of religious rites, however valuable or important, will at all excuse us if we neglect the plain practical every day duties which domestic and social relations involve; they did not excuse Eli for we are told I Saml. 3. 18 "I will judge his house forever for the iniquity which he knoweth; because his sons made themselves vile and he restrained them not "If ye love me keep my commandments. "Not every "one that saith Lord, "Lord shall enter into the kingdom of heaven," but he that doeth the will of my father. &c. Those and such like are the plain teachings of the Bible yet we find scores nay hundreds of people who profess to believe the Bible practically ignoring its precepts in the important matter of "training up their children" and yet those people have the audacity to pray to God to do what they themselves fail to do and that in violation of His plain commands—these are some of the reasons why untrifling men and women and profligate children go out from homes where the "atmosphere" was supposed to be "truthful pure and religious."

THE FALL CAMPAIGN.

The Fall season brings with it many necessities which cannot and will not be neglected. The people will buy what a change in the season makes necessary, this makes Fall Trade, and as fall trade is what we want, no stone has been left unturned and no opportunity neglected in securing such seasonable goods as will make our store the most desirable spot for close and particular buyers. We ask the readers of this column to remember that outside our store, we do our talking here, but inside our store we allow the goods and prices to speak for themselves. It is not our idea to exaggerate, but, as we are honest in the belief that we are this season, THE STORE among the Stores, we cannot very well refrain from speaking in glowing terms of our large, beautiful and tasty selections of everything throughout our immense establishment. In order that you may receive a benefit it is necessary that you should see our stock; In order that you come, it is necessary that you should be convinced that it will be worth your while. We must tell you of our attractions here, therefore do not think that we brag, but rather say that we are trying to put you upon the well beaten path that leads to the old established store, where everything is good, where everything is just as represented, and where everything is A 1 in value. We would especially invite your attention at present to our Large and STYLISH STOCK of Dress Goods in all the new shades and material, with trimmings and Buttons to match. New Silks, New Velvets, New Plushes, New and Stylish Millinery, New Shawls, Blankets and Flannels, New Jerseys in Black Tan and Navy handsomely braided; and don't fail to see that new line of Ladies' Sague Coats, Jersey Coats, and also our ready-made Ulsters of the very latest make, style and finish. We have the only full line of Mens' Youths' and Boys' ready-made Suits and Overcoats to be had in town. We guarantee to save you money on every purchase. 2000 pairs Boots just being marked off at close prices. Our TEAS are known far and wide as the sweetest, strongest and cheapest to be had in the Dominion. Come and see us. We fear no criticism or comparison, on the contrary, we invite it. Remember what we say here, and don't forget to call on W. J. McFarland, Direct Importer, MARKDALE
