Mr. Currie drove them through the principal streets in his egg wagon.

THE Mt. Forest Representative is agitating for a market day in that town. It would be a great convenience in Markdale as well, so that citizens could secure a fresh supply of vegetables, butter, eggs, &c., on a stated day every week, and save farmers the trouble of peddling around their garden truck.

LET THERE BE LIGHT .- The dry goods store of W. A. Brown and the new harness establishment of Thos. Mathews were all treated alike last week, viz .to a plate glass front. This is a great improvement both outside and in. There appears to be fully twice the light inside that the old windows admitted.

HANDY TO HAVE .- The most useful medicine you can have in the household is Hagvard's Yellow Oil. It cures rheumatism, neuralgia, sore throat, aches, sprains, bruises, burns and all external or internal painful conditions. Keep it at hand for ready use.

A FIRE broke out in a frame threeresident tenement house near the station at Orangeville, Friday evening. It was occupied by Joseph Taylor, Thos. Marshall and J. Saunders. The building was entirely consumed, but its contents and the adjoining buildings were saved by the exertions of the firemen. The fire was evidently the work of an incendiary, as the place was saturated with coal oil and ignited two weeks since, but at that time was extinguished before any damage was done.
