THE EVIDENCE OF A JUSTICE.—Esquire Pelton of Grass Lake, Michigan, a Justice of the peace, was given up to die with malarial fever. He testifies to a cure from Burdock Blood Bitters, after physicians' and other medicines failed.

SUBSCRIBERS at a distance who wish their paper continued, will kindly be prompt in renewing when their subscription expires. There are a large number of such which expires with the end of the year.

A FOURFOLD WORK.—Burdock Blood Bitters act at the same time upon the liver, the bowels, the kidneys and the skin, relieving or curing in every case. Warranted satisfaction or money refunded.

GRIP'S COMIC ALMANAC.—We have received from the Grip Printing and Publishing Co., of Toronto, a copy of their celebrated Canadian Comic Almanac for 1887. It more than keeps up the reputation of this Annual, which has now reached its eighth year.—the greatest variety of the illustrations, and the first class character of the human matter, making it a decidedly attractive book. Everybody will want it; and its price will not be an obstacle. Though eight pages of matter have been added, it still sells at 10 cents, and may be had from the publishers or at the bookstores.

WORMS often destroy children, but Freeman's Worm Powders destroy Worms and expel them from the system.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES.—The Anniversary services of the Markdale Methodist Church will be held as follows—Sermons on Sunday morning and evening the 19th December at 10:30 and 7 o'clock by Rev. Dr. Stone, associate editor of the Christian Guardian, Toronto; and on Sunday the 26th by Rev. Dr. Aylsworth of Mt. Forest at the same hours. A collection will be taken at each service in behalf of the building fund. The annual tea-meeting will be held on the evening of Christmas Day, when tea will be served from 5 to 7 o'clock. Admission 25 cents, Dr. Aylsworth will give an address together with several local men. All are invited to attend the different services.

UNSAFE.—"I never felt safe to be without Hagar's Yellow Oil; for sore throat, colds swollen glands, &c., it has not failed to give relief, and for my children it is so easy to administer." Mrs. Henry Dodds, Berridale P. O., Ont.

A Change at Goring.

Mrs. Bailey has resigned the post mistress-ship of Goring, and intends removing to Blantyre shortly. It is expected that Mr. James Sparling will be appointed postmaster, and that until another occupant is secured for the building vacated by Mrs. Bailey the post office will be kept in the store of Mr. Wm. Curry, Mrs. Bailey will continue the mercantile business at Blantyre and will have charge of the p. o. there. —[Meaford Mirror.]

NOTHING LIKE IT.—"I was nearly used up with a heavy cold, from which I got no relief until I tried Hagar's Pectoral Balsam. I found it a sure cure. There is nothing like it," says Edward Cousins, Ranson, Ont.
