Artemesia Agricultural Society.

The annual meeting of this Society was held in Flesherton on Thursday the 13th inst. Although the day was cold and stormy there was a fair turnout of the members.
The auditors report showed the total receipts during the past year to be $415.76 disbursements $322.68 leaving a balance on hand of $92.93. Of the total receipts $75.75 was collected for a new plowing match of which $65.94 was expended for that purpose, leaving $9.81 as a start for another year.
The following were elected officers for 1897: President, R. Oliver. Vice-President, D.
McMillen. DIRECTORS.—A. Stewart, M.
Reilly, J. Stewart, J. Brodie, G. Stewart, T.
Conkey, D. Harrow, G. Swanton, J. Gowland.

ed J. Brodie was re-elected Secretary Treasurer.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice having placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a similar vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure for Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections also a positive and radical cure for nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge to any one who desires it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Send by mail by addressing with stamp naming this paper *W. A.

BE ON YOUR GUARD.—Against sudden colds, irritating coughs, and soreness of the throat. Keep Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam at hand for these prevalent troubles of Fall and Winter.

An exchange asks, "How can we prevent mice from gnawing bark off fruit trees?" Kill the mice of course. A dead mouse never gnaws bark.

THE DEAF MADE TO HEAR.—"After eight years suffering from deafness so bad that I was unable to attend to my business, I was cured by the use of Hagyard's Yellow Oil.
With gratitude I make this known for the benefit of others afflicted." Harry Ricardo, Toronto.

"What overall material will last the longest?" asked a woman of a tailor.
"Sod," said the tailor, grimly.

THREATENED DANGER.—In the fall of '94, Randall Miller, of Maitland, N. S., was prostrated to his bed with an attack of incipient consumption. Cough remedies had failed. He rapidly grew debilitated, and friends despaired of his recovery. He tried Burdock Blood Bitters, with immediate relief, followed with a speedy cure.

Which is the most enduring trade?
A cobbler's, because it is ever-lasting, and the soul is at the bottom of it all.

A LUCKY ESCAPE. Mrs. Cyrus Kilborne, of Beamsville, Ont., had what was thought to be a cancer on her nose, and was about to submit to a cancer doctor's operation, when she tried Burdock Blood Bitters which effected a radical cure. This medicine cures all blood diseases.

of her own lips.

HEWORTH, 6th May, 1896.
I can say with confidence that I derived very great relief from Dr.
Jug's Medicine. I had been ill for over five months with congestion of the lungs and was reduced to a very low ebb, when a friend induced me to try this medicine. I received very great benefit from it and attribute my rapid recovery to a great measure to its effects.

DEATHS.

BOWERS.—At his son William's residence, Grenfell, Simcoe Co. on the 15th inst., Mr. John Bowers aged 71 years. Deceased was born in Eborston, Yorkshire, England, and was one of the first residents of Markdale, long before it had a name.

To the Editor of the STANDARD.

Shrewd observers have frequently remarked "that the transition from the sublime to the ridiculous is by no means violent and that "extremes invariably meet;" from which we deduce the following axioms, 1 Between the wisdom of the "unco" wit and the folly of the hare-brained simpleton it is difficult to draw the line.

2 From "the dizzy heights" of grotesque presumption to the "lower depths" of drivelling imbecility the descent is imperceptible.
Taking these proverbs and axioms as my text I proceed sir with your permission to call the attention of your readers to the following piece of choice literature which was presented to the last annual meeting of our Public School.

Moved by G. S. Bowers seconded by Wilson
"Benson—Resolved that the Bible in whole (without mutilation) be and is hereby authorized to be read in each department of our schools, as we consider that the Bible is the "birthright of every child attending the "Public Schools in Ontario and it is our "bounden duty to have the Bible—the ground"work of our faith, placed in the hands of "our children in the public schools"—Carried.

Now Mr. Editor don't forget, and let the public bear in mind, that Geo. Spier Bowers, and Wilson Benson and the other half dozen empty-heads who said amen, have "resolved" that the Bible "be and is hereby authorized." Just think of that, and fear and quake all you who dissent henceforth the Bible is "authorized" by the supreme Junta above named and wo to them who dare in the face of the authority aforesaid disobey.

The Bible is now "authorized" and we may be thankful that the authority aforesaid hath generously condescended to give reasons for this important step "we consider the Bible is "the birthright of every child attending the "public school of Ontario" and therefore we decreed that the Bible "be and is hereby "authorized" to be used in all our schools "and it is our bounden duty to have the Bible "placed in the hands of our children in the public schools."

Here! Here! But Sir why do these high-falutin philanthropists stop with the "children of Ontario" and why do they confine themselves to that fraction thereof attending the public schools?
Why should the Bible be considered the birthright of these more than the children of any other country? Henceforth let us hope they will include in their cosmopolitan grasp the children of the entire human family of every creed, color and nationality; for hath not "God made of one blood all nations etc."

Next time therefore that the Junta set about "authorizing" I would respectfully suggest that they do not confine their labours to Ontario but that they boldly invade the "religions beyond" and thereby "without mutilation" Biblify the whole earth at one fiat.

WM. BROWN.
Markdale Jan. 20th 1897.

CURE FOR RHEUMATISM.—If the system is properly cleansed by some medicine that acts upon the bowels, kidneys and skin, such as Burdock Blood Bitters, and the sufferer will use Hagyard's Yellow Oil according to directions, there are few cases of rheumatism however bad, but will yield promptly to the treatment.

West's Cough Syrup, is a sure cure for coughs, colds croup and consumption.
