SEES SNAKES.—While L. A. Bodie, of Sydenham, was walking over one of his fields on the 10th of February he came across a snake of considerable proportions, and thinking it quite a curiosity at this time of the year he carried it a considerable distance to show it to some others. They speak of it being quite lively and able to run at a good pace. It was found a long distance from any buildings and was crawling through the snow. [O. S. Advertiser.]

A MAIL CARRIER'S MISTAKE.—A very amusing incident took place at Glimmis last week. A drouthy gentleman from that neighborhood sent with the stage driver for a jug of whiskey from the vendor at Pinkerton. The stage driver having imbibed rather freely before returning when he reached Glimmis, instead of taking the mail bag into the post office he carried the one containing the jug of whiskey and took the other with him. The good people of Glimmis no doubt appreciated their mail that evening, but it is said that the vendor will have to pay for the joke.—Pasley Advocate.

On Saturday last Mr. Jenkins of the Durham Chronicle was driving a spirited team to a dog cart from Durham to Flesherton when the horses shied at some wood about a mile west of Flesherton Station, throwing out all the occupants Mrs. Jenkins, sr., an old lady of about 70 years, was severely bruised, but Mrs.
Jenkins, jr., and her little daughter escaped without serious injuries. Mr.
Spint who had accepted an invitation for a drive got his face badly scratched and bruised, but Mr. Jenkins, who hung on to the lines, was dragged over the hard snow and struck a pile of hardwood with his head, sustaining two serious gashes in the scalp. The vehicle was righted and driven rapidly to the station where Dr. Christoe of Flesherton was $500 in attendance. [World.]
