A Worthy Send-off. At the regular monthly meeting of the Orange Lodge, No 973, held in the Grand Hall Rocklyn, on Wednesday evening, 27th inst., the following preamble and resolutions were introduced by Bro. James Boyd, Deacon, and Bro. Thos. Reid, Treasurer, and were unanimously adopted. Whereas Bro. Samuel Breadner, who has been a member of this lodge continuously since its organization in November, A. D. 1858, he signified his intention of withdrawing, and of removing from this province to Ontario; And whereas during all these years Bro. Breadner has conducted himself as a true and worthy member of our Association and as an enterprising and desirable citizen and has proved himself a kind neighbor, always willing in the case of sickness or trouble to afford valuable assistance and consolation: therefore resolved that we send our sincere thanks to Bro. Breadner for the service he has rendered to this lodge, for his very many acts of kindness to us individually; that we deeply regret his removal after so many years of fraternal intercourse; that we cordially recommend him to our brethren in his new home worthy of their fullest confidence and esteem; and that if through the works of an All Wise Providence we may not have the pleasure of Bro. Breadner's company at our lodge meeting here, we will be so regulated in accordance with the principles of our Order that it may be permitted to meet with him at the Grand Lodge above. Mr. Breadner intends removing to Fort Harbor as soon as navigation opens. A people of Ephrasia generally trust in himself and his amiable wife and family will be blessed with health and prosperity in their new home.—[Mirror.]
