From our own correspondent.
 The entertainment in the Methodist Church here on Tuesday evening the audience was not large but the evidence that something was an ordinary programme than an ordinary programme to be rendered that even so many were present should turn out in the event of rain falling; the evening was most unfavorable.
 Miss Fraire's readings were very rendered, altho. if permitted to be compared, we think the "Eloquutionists" who read some months ago pleased her best, Miss Fraire was well sustained by our local talent, which believe never appeared to better advantage. The selections were well rendered.
 Miss Fraire will again read tomorrow (Tuesday) in the Town Hall we presume her readings will be somewhat different character from those given in the Church. She addressed the Methodist Sabbath School Sabbath last in a very interesting manner, and assisted in the evening service by a brief address and exposition on a few verses from the word of God; her earnest words touched the hearts of many present.
 During the morning service in the Methodist Church here on Sabbath last Rev. Mr. Watson was suddenly overcome by a fainting spell and weakness—some stimulant was applied and he soon recovered consciousness but was not able to take an afternoon appointment. He has since recovered to his wanted health.
 Rev. T. A. Colter and wife, of Bradford, paid our village a brief visit on Monday and Tuesday last. We were pleased to see Mr.
 Colter so much improved in health since his last visit to this place.
 Mr. Chadwick, formerly of this place who has for some time held a position as teacher in the Stratford High School, is at present in the Life Insurance business and with his colleague are making a raid on this village in that line this week.
 Mr. James McNally who has been prostrated with Erysipelas is now in low condition, poor hopes of his recovery are entertained.
 Mrs. A. Ward is also in a low condition.
 Our township fathers met in the Town Hall Monday last for transaction of township business, the docket must have been light as the members appeared to be on furlough most of the day.

Maxwell.

Weather still keeps cold.
 Ploughing is going on.
 Roads are excellent.
 Sugar making over, Good results reported by those who engaged in it this year.
 Miss Ella Kerr has returned to her studies at the Institute, Collingwood.
 Our former townsmen, Mr. Cyrus, Field, gave us a call last week. Cyrus is prospering.
 The chimney of Dr. Kerr's house burned out one night last week, No damages reported.
 The Council of Royal Templers, formed here promises to be a most decided success.
 The members are taking an active interest in the work. We hope that the order, which from our point of judgement is an excellent organization, may prosper in its noble work.
 Mrs. W. J. Wright is still lying very ill with rheumatism. We trust that she will soon be restored to health.
 We regret to record the death of Mr. John Gamsy, which occurred very suddenly last Tuesday. He was buried last Thursday.
 Rev. Mr. Ferrer preached the funeral sermon Sunday. Great sympathy is felt for the family in their sore bereavement.
 [The above came too late for last weeks paper.]
 A serious shooting accident occurred here on Monday afternoon, throwing our usually quiet village into a state of intense excitement. It appears that a party had gone shooting on the beaver and in descending a rough hill. Mr. T. A. Blakely, who had his gun thrown over his shoulder, stumbled. The gun fell, part of the charge carried away a piece of flesh from his elbow, while another part lodged in the arm and breast of Willie Ferrer. Mr. Blakely immediately gave the alarm and Willie was conveyed home where Dr. Kerr dressed the wound. He is now lying in a precautions condition.
