THE editor of the Thornbury News says:—"The Markdale STANDARD is introducing a new system of orthography. He spells 'calosmine' in this way; 'caloimine.'" If friend Starrett will take the trouble to consult Webster's Unabridged Dictionary (which is the best authority extant) he will find that we are correct.

I have a few chests of that notorious uncolored japan tea left which I have sold at 30c. per lb and it has been pronounced by those who have used it to be better value than any Tea sold in town for the money—probably you ask why we can sell cheaper than those in trade? the answer is simply because we are satisfied with half the profit. Why is store goods dearer in the evening than when purchased in day time? enquired one lady of her neighbor: I hear that the clerks say if they can't get out of the shops at seven they will have remembrance for their time and I suppose they keep the extra charges. Indeed that's a very cute idea; I'll go early after this.

As the season is now opened for the sale of Bacon, Benson of the Belfast house is to the fore with a few cases; remember he will not be undersold by any one in the trade and if there is a cut to be given they are the boys that will give it to you, they are decent little chaps.

Chinese gloss starch is made of two table-spoonfuls of raw starch, one table-spoonful of borax, dissolved in one and a half cups of cold water, Dip the thoroughly dry unstarched cuffs, collars and bosoms of shirts in this, and then roll them up tight and let them remain a few hours in a dry cloth, then rub off and iron.

Three weeks ago an Indian man taught his dog, a very fine bred, well behaved setter, to chew tobacco. Now the dog comes into the house by the back door never scrapes his feet on the mat, never goes to church, is careless at his meals, gets burs in his tail, goes with a lower grade of dogs and it is feared that he is beginning to take an interest in politics.

SAID TO BE GOOD FOR COLD.—Hot lemonade, taken just before retiring, is a well known remedy for a cold on its first stages. Everybody, however, is not familiar with the lemon cure for an acute attack of hoarseness, for this purpose, first roast a lemon in the oven, turning it now and then, that all sides may be equally cooked. It should not crack or burst, but be soft all through, while the lemon is still very hot cut a piece from the top, fill it with as much sugar as it will hold and eat on going to bed.

EGGSACTLY.—Mr. Currie our egg merchant has been in that business 14 years, first in Waterloo County, then in Wellington, later in Dufferin, and the last three years in Grey, and the largest number received from one man in one week during that period: was 1857 dozen which was his last weeks, receipts from W. J. McFarland of this village all of which were taken in this (McFarland's) store in six days.
