Our Daily Bread.

Heavy and sour bread or bis has a vast influence through digestive organs upon the measure health we erjoy. How important our present happiness and future u fulness the blessing of good heal and a sound constitution are, we c only realize when we have lost the and when it is to late to repair damage. Notwithstanding these fact thousands of persons daily jeopardi not only their health, but their liv and the health and lives of other by using articles in the preparation their food the purity and healthfulne of which they know nothing. Perhap a few cents have been saved, or ites have been more convenient to obtain the articles used, and the housekeep takes the responsibility and possibly heen wrought. Paterfamilias us or Clock rej have spells of headache, the children may have lost their appetites, or lo pale; if so, the true cause is rare suspected. The weather, the lack of out-door air, or some other cause, given and the nuwholesome, poisonou system of adulterated food goes of Williams-Dunsmore-That the Next to the flour, which should be ground too fine, the yeast or baking powder, which furnishes the rism properties of the wheat, no ferments are filled with carbonic acid gas, which
