"OUR LITTLE ONES" for July is to hand promptly, and fully sustains its reputation as an excellent and desirable magazine for children, $1.50 a year. Russell Publishing Co., Boston, Mass.

Two droll looking chickens drove into town about dark the evening of Dominion Day in a butcher cart with an old umbrella over them. Wonder who they were?

The Summer Entrance Examinations were conducted in Markdale School on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday by Mr. Merchant, M. A. Principal of the Owen Sound Collegiate Institute.

On our 4th page to-day will be found a striking and instructive illustration of the comparative worth of the various kinds of baking powders now in the market.

A Melancthon patron has been refreshing the appetite of the editor of the Dundalk Herald with green peas and new potatoes.

We have received a copy of the Provincial Exhibition prize list for 87 which will be held in Ottawa from the 19th to the 24th September.

The editor of the Dundalk Herald, Mr. Newell, reports an increase in both his subscription list and job work in his first year at the helm, now closed.

CORRECTION.—Last week we mentioned three female residents having come to reside in town, but later developments have proved that two of them are male, and fine boys at that, viz:—I Stinson's and Jas. Miller's.

It is not an uncommon occurrence for a minister to be presented with a purse on leaving a circuit for a new field of labor, but last week Rev. E. R. Young, of Meaford, had his coat pocket (which hung in the hall) rifled of a purse of $21.

THE Vandeleur senior base ball team and Markdale juniors played a friendly game at Bells Lake on Dominion Day in which the contest is said to have been close and the game well played resulting in a victory for the Markdale boys.

We had a friendly call last Monday from Mr. Moffat, Reeve of Glenelg, on his return from an official visit on Grange business, to Manitowaning. He didn't form a very high opinion of the Island as an agricultural district.

We had a pleasant call yesterday from Mr. Adam Irving of Manitowaning on his way home from Toronto.

W. L. Young is off to Penetang, where he will join a party to spend their holidays fishing, fowling and hunting in that district.

THOS. WILLISROFT, agent for the Massey implements, machinery and repairs at Holland Centre, is a reliable man, and if you require a genuine article you cannot do better than deal with him.

THE Garden Party held at Mr. Rae's under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church on the evening of Dominion Day was an entire success, notwithstanding a passing thunder shower which brought out-door amusements to a hasty conclusion. Proceeds $20.00.

REV. MR. BUGGIN preached two practical and impressive sermons last Sunday in the Methodist Church, making a most favorable impression; indeed several who are competent judges, declared that the morning sermon has not been surpassed, if equalled in the new church.

OSCAR WRIGHT spent a few days at home, and returned to Toronto on Monday. He is making his mark in the city, having been twice promoted in a year in the fine Dry-Goods establishment of John Catto & Co., King Street, and now has charge of the best counter in the store.

A VERY successful S. S. picnic was held by Walker's appointment School in Ewart's grove about five miles west of here on Dominion Day. A program consisting of readings, recitations, singing, &c., by the school was well rendered, also speaking by Rev. A. Thibadeau, who occupied the chair, Dr. Halsted, Mr. A. G. Jansen and W. A. Brown. A collection was taken up for the School, amounting to $14.

DEPARTED ELISS.—We understand that J. H. Bliss of the Traverston Mills, chose a "moonlight night for a ramble" having unexpectedly disappeared one beautiful night last week. Mr. B. has been driving a rattling business in the sawmill line, and if reports are true (and I've have good reason to believe they are) his mourners are legion, for unpaid accounts varying from small sums up into the hundreds.

Now doth the giddy youth arise, for gaudy clothes he measures, and forward looks with beaming eyes to one long round of pleasures. His day dream pictures twilight walks with one he'll ne'er forsake, he thinks of summer evening talks while boating on the lake. He holds his pen while mankind snores and writes a charming sonnet to that bright maid whom he adores, the girl with the Gypsy bonnet. He asks that maid to be his wife, while they are playing tennis, and for the first time in his life, he finds his name is Dennis.

DR. JUG'S Medicine should be used by every one at this season of the year as it is the best blood purifier in the market and will reinvigorate the frame and prepare it to bear the heats of summer. The pills are justly called the "Little Gems" as they operate without causing either griping or pain and are a sure cure for nervousness, biliousness and other affections of the Liver and Kidneys. Buy them and try them and you won't regret your investment. Sold by Turner & Co., Markdale.

THE Town Line appointment Methodist Sabbath School Anniversary picnic was held at Wm. Hawken's grove on Wednesday the 29th June when a good attendance was present and an enjoyable afternoon spent. A program was gone through consisting of music, recitations, addresses, &c. Mr. H. Hamilton occupied the chair, Messrs. Rev. A. Wilson, P. Lyons, and J. Hawken, sr., addressed the audience. The Superintendent, Mr. Webster, deserves credit for the training of the school showing good order and interest generally. Proceeds $24.

A very pleasant evening was spent at "Sutherland's" Presbyterian church, 10th Line, Holland, on Thursday evening last. The tables were luxurantly supplied with Strawberries, Ice-Cream, and Lemonade. Several speakers were in attendance and the whole affair passed off enjoyably.
