Heaford Road.

From our own correspondent.

Haying is about finished; a good crop has been saved in prime condition. Harvesting is now the order of the day. Messrs. T. Gilbert and E. Brodie have each a field of barley cut and in the barn last week.

A very successful garden party in connection with the day school here was held in the school grounds some time ago.

The Sabbath School pic-nic was held at the far-famed "Bell's Lake" on Dominion Day.

Another boat has been launched on the matrimonial sea, the contracting parties being Mr. J. 1. Graham and Miss Blair.

Mr. A. Hislop has purchased a new self-binder.

Miss Annie Buchanan has gone on a pleasure trip to Sault St. Marie.

A certain woman who hales from Flesherton has been around here, but was left on suspicion. She had better stay away from this burgh or else tar and feathers might be called into requisition.

Flesherton.

From our own correspondent.

A monster pic-nic party of the young people of our village enjoyed themselves at Bell's Lake, in Holland, on Friday last.

We have again progress and improvements to report in connection with our village. A very artistic verandah and balcony, now in course of erection on M. Richardson's dwelling, will add much to the appearance and comfort of his already commodious residence. Mrs Bulmer's grounds have been much beautified by the erection of a neat picket fence in front, and the painter's brush with some of the modern colors applied to her photo. studio and dwelling, makes the whole premises much more attractive.

Our genial good friend and citizen, J. R. Fawcett, Esq., editor of the Advance, has again invested in real estate here, having bought from W. J. Flesher, Esq., a very nicely situated lot on Toronto St., on the elevation opposite the palatial dwelling of J. W. Armstrong, Esq., upon which he purposes erecting a handsome dwelling at an early date. Others of our citizens contemplate a move in that direction in the near future.

Every thing augurs well for us having a new roller mill in full operation in this village, peradventure in a few months. If so, a much felt want will be supplied. We understand W. K. Flesher, Esq., is at present getting estimates and counting the costs, closely, and have a keen eye to business, we have no doubt will see his way clear to carry this project to a successful issue.

The president of the Flesherton cheese factory is about closing the second large sale of cheese from this factory this season, and at good figures.

M. Richardson & Co., of this place, made a very large sale of butter which was shipped for the Old Country on Friday last.

Post Office inspector Hopkirk, of Stratford, paid this place an official visit on Friday last. Under the careful management of Miss Brown he found the Flesherton P. O. in "apple pie" order.

The Flesherton Hotel is being renovated and repainted in new and pretty colors quite in keeping with the good taste and neetness of the proprietor.

George Keefer, Esq., returned home from Washington territory on Monday last.

Clydesdale Horses.

The Clydesdales have long been recognized as a leading and very valuable race of heavy draft horses, but they were never bred to such a high degree of excellence as at present. The old type of Clydesdale, while massive and strong-limbed, was somewhat "lightly-fleshed." But skillful and judicious breeding has produced an animal which may well be regarded as a model for a heavy draft-horse. They possess sloping shoulders, good arms, well "feathered" around the fetlocks, well-sprung ribs, deep barrel chest, and muscular quarters. The extensive importation of these horses into the United States, has added an important element to the horse stock of the West, where they are highly appreciated. Great care is used, both in the land of their origin and in this country, to preserve the purity of the breed, and encourage breeding to the highest type. The stud-books of Great Britain and of America are conducted with the greatest care, to guard against the registry of any but pure bred animals. The respective associations of Clydesdale breeders in both countries, offer liberal premiums for annual competitive exhibitions. In this and other respects both associations have always shown a broad and liberal spirit of enterprise.

—American Agriculturist for August.

The American Agriculturist for August, 1887.

Contains original articles by no less than forty well-known writers, from twenty-one States and Territories. The frontispiece, by Cary, represents two young bears surprising a party of children picking blackberries. Another full page engraving, by Mueller, depicts several bright midsummer scenes in the country. In addition to these there are many smaller illustrations of farm animals, plans of buildings, plants and flowers, new labor-saving devices, and implements, etc., A prominent feature of this number is the "Fair List," giving the dates of all the State, County, and District Fairs, to be held this fall, so far as announced. The Household, and Boys and Girls columns, are, as usual, full of interesting and entertaining matter; and in the Humbug department several frauds and cheats gets more notoriety than they may relish. Price $1.50 per year English or German; Single number 15 cts. Address American Agriculturist, 751 Broadway, New York.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

IN BRIEF, AND TO THE POINT.

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is miserable. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easy put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought no to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspepsia.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health: But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

SAY!

Did you ever in your life hear the potato bug sing? Have you seen them when they got up on their hind legs and whoop and holler with joy, holding their feelers to their stomach rolling over and over almost tickled to death? So much so that every muscle in their bodies is vibrating to the fullest extent. In fact they go into convulsions with laughter at the haggard and woe-begone look of the man who buys impure Paris Green.

BUT STRAIGHT BUSINESS

buy your Paris Green,
