To THE PUBLIC.—Having opened a butcher shop next door to Miller's grocery store, I would respectfully solicit a share of public patronage. All kinds of vegetables also kept on hand and delivered to customers in any part of the town. W. J. Sheil.

This is the season of the year for accounts to be rendered, and if you should be so fortunate as to receive one from the printer, don't think that we have sent it for our own amusement. We need money to pay our honest debts just like other people.

TENDERS.—Will be received till the 16th November to build Presbyterian brick church in Priceville. Plans and specifications to be seen with secretary. A. McCuaig, chairman; Rev. D. McLeod, Secretary of building committee.

J. B. WATSON will deliver his lecture "Particular Allurements and Proper Amusements for the young of both Sexes" in Haskett's Hall on the evening of the 28th inst. Those who have heard Mr. Watson do not need any recommendation at our hands, and to those who have not heard him we would say, you will be more than satisfied if you embrace this opportunity.

THE Sabbath School Anniversary in connection with the Methodist Church Markdale, will be held on Wednesday evening, Oct. 26th. The choir and school will render the beautiful Cantata "Under the Palms." The entertainment will be free. A silver collection will be taken up at the close for the benefit of the school. Appropriate sermons will be preached on the Sunday previous morning and evening when the singing will be conducted on the platform by the children.

Will all our subscribers look up their address label on this paper and see how you stand with the printer. We would like to continue good friends, and you know, short accounts make long friends. The year slips away rapidly and many are frequently surprised how they have allowed themselves to get in arrears, 1887 will soon be gone, and if your subscription is not paid up, kindly have it made right. By paying for next year in advance with arrears, now before this year is out, you can secure cash in advance rates; if not $1.50 a year will be charged.

A Scene at the World's Fair at Brooklyn—A Politner for Young Men.

A ripple of excitement was created at the World's Fair at Rocklyn on Tuesday last by the attempted shooting by a young lady of her alleged seducer. The affair happened two or three years ago and it is said the young woman has been watching her opportunity and has even notified the gentleman in writing, of intentions. On Tuesday between one and two o'clock, the lady in question, was standing talking to a companion on the verandah of Dodson's store when she saw the gentleman she was in search of, in company with his cousin, walking in a westerly direction. She stepped out to the street, took a revolver from her hand satchel and deliberately fired. The young man and his comrade ran off in the direction of the township hall and the young lady returned and continued her conversation on the verandah. To a by-stander she said she was determined to shoot him regardless of the consequences. It is said she afterwards stood at the entrance of the main building waiting for him and that he made another hurried exit from that locality. The parties live in the Eastern part of the township and are well known, the parents of each of them having occupied responsible municipal positions.—[Mirror.]

As little folks are sometimes not polite or orderly at their meals, the following simple and practical rules are given for their special benefit, and which we would advise them to commit to memory:—
In silence I must take my seat,
And give God thanks before I eat;
Must for my food in patience wait
Till I am asked to hand my plate;
I must not scold, nor whine, nor pout,
Nor move my chair or plate about;
With knife, or fork, or napkin ring,
I must not play—nor must I sing;
I must not speak a useless word—
For children must be seen—not heard;
I must not talk about my food,
Nor fret if I don't think it good;
My mouth with food I must not crowd,
Nor while I'm eating speak aloud;
Must turn my head to cough or sneeze,
And when I ask, say, "If you please,"
The table cloth I must not soil;
Must keep my seat when I have done,
Not round the table sport or run;
When told to rise, then I must put
My chair away with noiseless foot.
And lift my heart to God above
In praise for all His wonderful love.

CLIPPINGS.

Mr. Bates Fawcett of this place shot a gray eagle near Flesherton on Saturday last. It measured 8 feet from tip to tip.—[Dundalk Herald.]

The Farmersville Reporter, in a fit of enthusiasm, has remarked as follows:—For pure, unadulterated gush heroism, the young dude of Plum Hollow who drove the bay mare 105 miles to take his duck of a school-marm to the Lyndhurst Exhibition is entitled to the bun. If any of our contemporaries can record any such feats as the above, let them stand forth and proclaim them; if not we shall conclude that this part of the world is the place for young marriagable lassies who delight in long drives by the light of the moon.

New Church.—The Methodist Congregation at Zion, Glenelg, have the erection of new $1,200 church under contemplation. Already half the sum has been promised and a few hundred more will insure the completion of the project.—[Grey Review.]

The Durham brass band has received the appointment of the band of the 31st Battalion. The band is now in a prosperous state, but further efforts will be made to increase its efficiency and strength and it is expected that in a short time it will take the lead in the county of Grey.—[Chronicle.]

Mr. Allan McDougal, arrived from the east Friday. He was accompanied by Mrs. McDougal and family, and his father, from Markdale.—[Fort William Journal.]

Mr. E. S. Rutledge arrived from the east Friday, where he had been on a purchasing tour. He was accompanied by his sister-in-law, Miss Thibaudau, of Markdale.—[Fort William Journal.]

Mrs. Mary Thompson, of Toronto, was afflicted with Tape Worm, 8 feet of which was removed by one bottle of Dr. Low's Worm Syrup.
