Miss VIO LYONS of this village lost a watch four years ago, and advertised same in the STANDARD at the time; it did not then turn up, but strange to say, it came to her through the mail, from Toronto, a few days ago. The name of the sender is not known.

TENDERS.—Will be received till the 16th November to build Presbyterian brick church in Priceville. Plans and specifications to be seen with secretary, A. McCuaig, chairman; Rev. D. McLeod, Secretary of building committee.

The following teachers have been engaged in Markdale Public School for the coming year, viz: Mr. H. Clendenning and wife for 1st and 2nd departments respectively, and Miss Bowes for the 3rd department.

denning hails from Vroomanting, Ontario Co.

TO THE PUBLIC.—Having opened a butcher shop next door to Miller's grocery store, I would respectfully solicit a share of public patronage. All kinds

THE New Conservative Organ "The Empire" is likely to be launched before Christmas, when D. Creighton, M. P. P. will move to Toronto to manage the same. The Owen Sound Times will likely become the property of Mr. John Rutherford, who formerly was a partner with Mr. Creighton on the Times, but has run the job department for many years.

SOME farmers will not allow a steam thresher about the place for fear of fire while we venture the assertion that ten barns have been burned from pipe smoking for every one by steam threshers, yet they go on the straw stack and even right into the granary with a pipe in their mouth.

THE Owen Sound Advertiser last week clipped from the STANDARD of the same date an item in reference to the letting of the bridge contract at "Allen's Sink Hole." It's a rare thing for one paper to clip from an exchange and publish an article of same date.
Either the Advertiser or the STANDARD must have been mighty smart. Wonder which?

J. B. WATSON, the great Canadian Orator and Humorist will give his lecture entitled "An evening with the Irish Orators" in the town hall, Flesherton on the evening of the 27th inst. Any of Mr. Watson's lectures are cheap at half a dollar so that a person can well afford to take his sister along, or some one else, if they haven't one of their own.

ONE of the most enterprising members of Chatsworth Fall Show has been attending neighboring exhibitions and taking minute observations as to their success or failure, as the case may be, and intends using his influence in improving the usefulness of his Society by pointers thus gleaned. This is a laudable object, and others would do well to "go and do likewise."

THE election of officers and teachers of Markdale Methodist Sabbath School for the ensuing year took place in the lecture room last Thursday evening resulting as follows.— Superintendent, G. S. Bowes; assistant, R. W. Ennis; Secretary, F. Stevens; Librarian, W. J. Boyd; Bible class teacher, W. A.
Brown; the other eleven teachers were all re-elected.

FOR the benefit of a large number of our lady friends we publish a list of wedding anniversaries. They will no doubt cut this out and paste it in their family bibles for further reference: first, iron; second, paper; fifth, wooden; tenth, tin; fifteenth, crystal; twentieth, china; twenty-fifth, silver; thirtieth, cotton; thirty-fifth, linen; fortieth, woolen; forty-fifth, silk; fiftieth, golden; seventy-fifth, diamond.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Last Friday while Mr.
James Gibson of the 7th line Euphrasia was digging for himself a well, the bucket became detached from the rope and fell a distance of 30 feet striking him on the head breaking his skull and causing instant death. Mr. Gibson was about 40 years of age and leaves a wife and family to mourn his sudden demise.
They have the profound sympathy of the whole neighborhood in their severe affliction.

DR. SINGLAI.—We would remind our readers that the eminent Scottish Physician will be at the Markdale House on Saturday Nov. 5th. Consultations free.

CLOSE CALL.—One Fred Sheptic who was on his way home from Muskoka to Sullivan township, foot and alone, got off the road while crossing "Allen's sink hole" on Monday night of last week. The night was very dark and he had his "kit" on his back, and it was with great difficulty that he escaped drowning.
He however succeeded in crawling out and returned to Mr. McNally's house, about half a mile distant, where he was hospitably entertained and had his clothes dried—which were every stitch thoroughly soaked—and he continued his journey next morning.

[In justice to Mr. Norton, we reproduce the following letter to the Mirror, as we clipped also the article referred to below Ed. Standard, Editor Mirror.

DEAR SIR,—I noticed in your issue of Oc-14, the notes of the Euphrasia show, by your Special Reporter, an account of a dispute, if such you could call it, which took place at the door of the Agricultural hall the day of show. The reporter states that is a custom of the society to allow a limited time for ladies only to view the interior department of the show, and that some rude young man objected to this and their ring leader, one Norton, of Holland, wrenched constable Cook's stick from his hand. To begin with, does, "custom" mean "law"? If so, why has not the society stated this custom in their Rules and Regulations, or at least make it known to the public in some way, other than by shaking a stick over their heads; If not, "custom" cannot compel men to step out in storm or snow when there is room for all inside, they having paid for it. As to Norton being a "ring leader," it is a grave mistake, and one that must be corrected. When the door of the hall was opened, the door-keeper raised the cry that the ladies were first to be admitted. Norton being near the door at the time attempted to move back but finding it impossible remained where he was, but the crowd behind and Cook before him, brandishing a roughlooking walking stick over the heads of those nearest him, and threatening them with such words "keep back boys," or "I smash your skulls," and other similar expressions, which being uttered in a tone of voice indicating that the fire fiend—anger—was raging within and that what was said was MEANT, Norton, over whose head the stick was held at that moment, caught the said stick and moved it from Cook's hand, as he wished to have his head safe. But no endeavor whatever was made by Norton "to control the situation," as immediately after the taking of the stick the crowd burst into the hall, taking all before them. And now, Mr. Editor, I think you or any other man would have done the same thing as Norton did under the circumstances for Cook had neither badge, baton, or anything else whereby one could recognise him as one in auth-ity there, and he has since failed to prove that he is a County constable. Norton is as inoffensive a young man as could be found in the county, and it would not be much wonder if his feelings were wounded by your Reporter's story, and as Norton was brought before Justice Myles to explain his "gentlemanly conduct," which he did satisfactorily, I think to do justice to him, that "Special Reporter" should appear in public print with an apology for his very "gentlemanly" exaggeration. Thanking you for your space, Mr. Editor, I am yours,

AN EYE WITNESS.
