The tea and entertainment promises to be one of the best yet held in this church. Posters and further particulars forthwith.

A TAME BALL.—A short time ago a free ball was given by a certain Hotel keeper in a small village in Bruce county. Among the numerous invitations sent out was one to each of the resident ministers, Presbyterian and Methodist; The evening came and so did the clergy, who opened the ball with prayer, but as very few "lads" put in an appearance and fewer "lasses" the party broke up at a premature hour for such a gathering and no doubt all retired to their homes pleased and profited.

The Markdale Presbyterian S. School Anniversary was held on Wednesday evening last as announced. Owing to the inclemency of the preceding Sabbath, only a few were made aware of the date, and in consequence a smaller number were present than usual. The programme which was one of the best the school has ever offered was well rendered throughout and highly appreciated by the audience. This anniversary was marked by good order on the part of the children and by the high moral and God honoring character of the programme. Com.

A number of our readers, who are also subscribers of the Advance, have been enquiring of us what we have been doing to merit such a tirade of abuse as was contained in a certain letter by a HENRY in the Advance of last week, they having mislaid their Standard of that week, and were unable to call to mind anything of such a nature. For the benefit of such we insert the item in question. Our typo accidentally made the date read Friday instead of Tuesday, so we reproduce it exactly as it appeared, viz:—"FOR BETTER FOR WORSE.—On Friday last Mr. James B. Cunningham, son of Mr. Wm. Cunningham, of Armentau, took unto himself a partner for life in the person of Miss Susan Henry, daughter of the late Wm. Henry of the same township, and formerly of Albion. Mr. Cunningham has been employed in Toronto at the carpenter business for some time and had his house furnished and ready for the girl of his choice. They left for evening train on Tuesday for said home in Toronto. They have the best wishes of the Standard. We leave the public to judge whether there is anything impertinent in these compliments."
