EXCHANGE CLIPPINGS.
PASSED.—Mr. W. H. Hearst, of the office of Masson & Masson, passed his Barrister's examination last week very creditably, taking the good stand of number four on the list, and almost entitled to a place among the honors.
 —O. S. Times.
SUDDEN DEATH.—The people of Durham were somewhat shocked on Saturday last, to hear of the sudden decease of Miss Maggie McCormick, a domestic at the Middaugh hotel, and daughter of the late "piper" McCormick, well known in Glenelg. It appears the girl who was about sixteen years of age, was seized with inflammation of the bowels and succumbed to the disease in about twenty hours.
 —[Grey Review].
ENTERPRISING.—Four little girls, two from the Presbyterian church and two from the church of England, Lillie Blue, Mary Roberts, Lena Ele-worth and Sarah Nettleton, held a bazaar on the 23rd and 24th Dec., in the interest of missions. The articles were made chiefly by the little girls themselves. The net proceeds were $18. The former sent their $9 to Dr.
 Jardine who is building a Seminary for Indian girls at Prince Albert N.
 W. T., and the latter sent theirs to educate an Indian boy at the "Home" at Penetang. Go thou and do likewise.—Collingwood Bulletin.
 A regular old-fashioned wedding took place in Brant on Tuesday of this week, the contracting parties being Chas. Peggo and Miss Leifso. The ceremony was consummated in the German Lutheran church. After the ceremony was over the happy couple and their friends drove to Elmwood. every young man had a span of horses and a girl, both of which were gaily decorated with ribbons of many colors, arrived at Elmwood, the hall was arranged for, a fiddler employed and full preparations made for a big dance.
 However, when one reel had been gone through with, a row arose, with the floor manager, the dance broke up, the party drove off and the poor fiddler robbed of his pay.—Chesley Enterprise.
AN EXEMPLARY HOTELKEEPER.—
 Mr. J. Rowland of the Collingwood Globe Hotel has been for eighteen years a member of the Public School Board (nine years its chairman), four years in the Town Council, and is one of the most generally respected hotelkeepers in Canada. But besides this he gives every attention to the guests of his house, and has so endeared himself to travellers that they always speak of him as Father Rowland.
Berkeley English Church.
 The new English church at Berkeley was formally opened on Sunday last The Rev. Jas. Ward of Millbank, formerly of Markdale, conducted the services which were specially appropriated to the circumstances of the occasion and much appreciated by the large crowds assembled at each service. There were three services, morning, afternoon and evening. The Rev. gentlemen good lady Mrs. Ward presided at the organ, which is a very handsome new one purchased from Mr. Jas. W. Sproule.
 We had the pleasure of being present in the afternoon, and were much pleased with what we saw and favorably impressed with what we heard. The building is a very neat church edifice with seating capacity of about 160, brick veneered, stained windows. It is beautifully situated on high ground about 100 yards this side the centre of the village. The site was the generous gift of Mr. Abby, sen.
 The chief workmen were as follows:
 The Rev. Jas. Ward, architect; I. Skin-son, brickwork; W. Gushrie, Plasterer; E. S. Mabee, painter; Mr. Jas Leackie and Thos' Sorbie, Sr., are the churchwardens. We did not learn exact cost of building but understand it is in neighborhood of $1200, the greater portion of which has been subscribed and paid.
 The offerings on Sunday were very good amounting to thirty-five dollars.
 We congratulate the people of Berkeley on having such a magnificent new church
