WE were short of papers ha and three of our Vandeleur got no paper, viz: R. Graham, R. Summers and Dan Walker.

THE "mum" social given by the I People of the Methodist church week was a very enjoyable affair. refreshments were good, and program spicy, with W. A. Brown in the char. The "mum" part of it was quite ann ing. In the first place the gentlement were allotted ten minutes in which they spoke, a fine was imposed, ladies having liberty to make their bet endeavors to cause the gents to speak Then came the ladies' turn to kee "mum" and it is stated that the lide had the most forfeits to pay.

AN ANTI-SLANG SOCIETY.-A line number of Chicago girls met one even ing recently for the purpose of forming a "Ladies' Anti-Slang Society." The meeting was called to order, and lie Sadie De Pork elected President. Be fore taking her seat she said in a clear calm, well-modulated voice: "Really girls. I'm too badly rattled by the honour conferred upon me to give 700 much of my guff. It's the first time ! tumbled to anything of this sort, and 1 hardly know just how to catch on However, I'll try to be sufficiently up snuff not to let any flies light on me while doing the President-of-this-society act. I'm with you in this move, an don't you forget it. Alf over our land slang words and phrases are multiplying like flies in sorghum time, and it is our duty to knock this crying evil as sile as possible. Let our motto be "Short the Slangist."

A good fence cannot be made of rails that are of different lengths. Man two feet on your ax-handle, and ms asure each rail cut.

I Cannot Afford it.

The above remark is often made by OBBERS IN C our smaller farmers, when they asked to buy a platform scale. No person should be allowed to buy or sell upless they have a Wilson scale or or equally as good. They come to ton the county, Gena Bla with grain, and cannot tell within seven! soice. bushels of what they have on the lose until they are told; and then are mi sure of it The buyer may be honest or not for all the farmer knows, or his scales may be out of order. The difficulty could be overcome by writing to (Wilson & Son, Esplanade Street Ess. Toronto for a good reliable scale, the he will feel happy as long as he lives.

Sorting fruit and vegetables at TheinaL complishes two things; it protects the sound, and it rids the cellar of the sources of unwholesome exhalations.

Sent Up.

On Monday morning last when W McFarland's warehouse man, Richards, entered the warehouse missed a dressed hogg, and having strong suspicion as to the thief, his boss had a search warrant issued and the house of Richard Askin searched and half a hogg found, A warrant was then issued for Askin who arrested and a trial held under Justice Brown when the pork was identified by Richards and the prisoner commit ted. Afterwards Alex. Mathews w arrested as a suspected accomplication the trial continued and both sent w to stand their trial at Owen Sound Assizes,

It appears the prisoners have had employment at the elevators shipping grain occasionaly and that some time age one of the keys disappeared myt teriously from among others from the ring which the warehouse man carried and it is supposed this lost key made to do service in gaining an antiance to the building.

Scatter a little corp-fodder or similar staff over a hill side will hold the snow in the wheat, and the stalks will not interfere with harvesting.
