Dangerous Counterfeits.

Counterfeits are always dangerous, more so that they always closely imitate THE ORIGINAL IN APPEARANCE AND NAME. The remarkable success achieved by Nasal Balm as a positive cure for Catarrh and cold in the Head has induced unprincipled parties to imitate it. The public are cautioned not to be deceived by nostrums, imitating Nasal Balm in name and appearance, bearing such names as Nasal Cream, Nasal Balm etc. Ask for Nasal Balm and do not take imitation dealers may urge upon you. Presentation and Address.

Holland, March, 18th, '88.

A number of young people of the neighborhood gathered at the residence of Mr. Thos. Sanderson and presented them with a beautiful China set of dishes on the eve of their departure for Michigan. Many of the young people who took part in purchasing the present were prevented from assembling there on account of the severe storm. In addition to the presentation was the following address. TO MR. AND MRS. SANDERSON,

Dear Friends our intrusion into your happy home to-night suggests explanation if not apology. We have known for some time past your intended removal from our midst and deeply regret the losing of you and your beloved wife and dear children as our neighbors, and friends as at all times you have had our best respects, deepest sympathy and loving friendship, and to night we feel it our duty as well as a favor to be allowed admittance into your home.

Your honorable dealings, pleasant countenance and cheerful words has begot in us an interest in your welfare and this evening we would rejoice with you that our lives have been spared to spend a few happy hours together, it may be for the last time. In all probability those who to-night are gathered here will never all meet again.

In connection with the foregoing we ask you to accept on this sorrowful occasion these pieces of chinaware as mementoes of our loving regret and respect as a small token of our esteem for you both, and as they may daily be set before you at the same time may your hearts have a loving remembrance of those who desire to be remembered by you, and as you are surrounded by different friends may you never forget those here who have a special interest in your welfare, and if we never meet again on earth may we meet in Heaven where parting shall be no more. Mr. Sanderson replied appropriately.

Young, returning officer. Should a poll be demanded it will be held in the same place on the Monday following the nomination and the first meeting of council in same place on third Monday, but, if there is no poll then the first meeting of Council will be held on the second Monday, or one week after nomination day. The council shall be composed of a reeve and four councillors. The qualification of the first council is the same as that required in townships, viz: Freehold $400 and Leasehold $800 above all liens and incumbrance. The village shall, for the purpose of representation in the Legislature in Ontario belong to and from a part of the electoral district of Centre Grey.

An Expression of Confidence.

Geo. P. Rowell & Co., the publishers of the American Newspaper Directory, undertakes to rate newspaper circulations; very much as the mercantile agencies give the capital and credit ratings of the business community. About one publisher in ten is willing to have his exact issue known, and tells it with truthful precision: but some of the other nine decline to tell the facts concerning their own issues because they assert that those who do tell, do not tell truly. Messrs Rowell & Co., after an experience of twenty years, have come to the conclusion that the facts will not sustain this view: and in the twentieth annual issue of their book, now in the binder's hands, they plainly designate every page which is rated in exact accordance with a detailed statement from the publisher; and offer to pay a reward of one hundred dollars for each and every instance of a misstatement for which a publisher is responsible. The STANDARD is one of the papers which is willing to have it known how many it prints and whose good faith the Directory publishers express a willingness to operate in the interest of the honest advertiser.

A Great Invention.

Christie, Brown & Co., the well known biscuit manufacturers, have purchased a five ton automatic coal scale from C. Wilson & Son, 48 Esplanade St. Toronto. The scale dispenses with the use of loose weights, and subtracts the weight of the wagon from the load without the use of any figures. They are also making improved grain and farm scales on the same principle. A free catalogue is sent to any person requiring first-class scales at a moderate price.

THE 3-year-old was in a fit of temper and mamma planted him in a chair a thud that astonished his infantile of inertia.

"Now you sit there and don't touch your eyes of that clock until the hand gets to there. I'll find some to punish you."

He sat as motionless as the man who doesn't advertise until minute hand had covered a quarter. Then mamma with a self-satisfied air went to release the penitent.

"Sa, ma," he said, "can't I sit and watch it some more?"

BABY BUNTING AGAIN.—One of the greatest literary hits of the season is the story of "Baby Bunting," or "Alphabet of Love," by Laura Jean Libbey, which is at present being published in the columns of THE NEW YORK LITTLE STORY PAPER. The papers containing the opening chapters of this wonderfully popular romance appeared the news stands this morning, a tremendous rush for that number, the young ladies of that town so clearly that the publishers have seen a bonanza. "O woman, woman!" shrieked the actor in a speech the other night, "start the light, the life, the salvation of the world! I shudder when I think what this world would be without gentle, refining, ennobling influence bow at thy shrine, acknowledging purity and truth. There is nothing nothing, so beautiful, so true, so pure as a woman! I reverence and bow before her!" And when he went to be said to the woman who was so fortunate as to be his wife—"What did let the fire get down so low for? I knew I'd come home half-frozen. I just like the rest of the women. I haven't a thought beyond your Stir around and get me a cup of tea can't you? See if you can't do much for a fellow. I'd just like to know what you women think you're for anyhow?"
