Standard Correspondence.
 DWELLING DESTROYED BY FIRE—Early on Monday morning last Mr. D. McLeod's house was discovered to be on fire. Mrs. McLeod, who was alone in the house, was awakened from her sleep by cracking of fire and smell of smoke. Immediately upon being aroused she discovered the roof was in flames, she at once gave the alarm to her neighbors, but before help could reach, the flames had made such headway as to prevent entering the house and very little of the furniture was saved. It is a mystery how the fire originate as there had been no fire in the stove from early the evening previous. As it broke out in the roof there must have been some smouldering spark lying for several hours. There was no insurance.
 The Flesherton cheese factory commenced operations on Monday last with quite an increased patronage.
 Building operations are brisk here now. Joseph Smith's new shop and dwelling is almost ready for occupancy. The brick work on Mr. C. Leitch's block will be completed this week.

Church Notes.
 The quarterly business-meeting of Markdale circuit, Methodist church, was held on the 8th inst., and well attended. A resolution was passed by a unanimous (standing) vote expressing satisfaction and appreciation with the labors and ministrations of the pastor, Rev. Mr. Buggin, during the year about closing, and extending an invitation to remain the coming year. Mr. John Lyons was elected representative to the District meeting.

Rev. Mr. McKay, student Knox College, preached morning and evening in the Presbyterian church a week ago last Sunday.

Mr. Sproule, Student of Knox College, is expected to occupy Rev. Wilson's pulpit, Presbyterian church, on Sunday next.
