

standard:
the end of this controversy published on our part, viz., that Lord Derby is a horse by unanimous words to say. I am thoroughly satisfied all that I have done and bear the many, indeed all that I have done and this was a community man that the real Lord Derby is a cheater, then I don't understand word in its fullest force and I say it was and is standard, low, mean and uncouth. since this J. I. Graham, M. ad and this was a community place, and Mr. Beattie knows the township, concerning Lord Derby has for years been the kind of slander and man have been spread and he speaks of falsehoods and his own words: "I have paper blood pure enough to register in the Standard Books it shows the meaning he intended.
Such prevarications should not be allowed to him who has any respect for him whom he speaks or writes.
Mr. Wade as being a "fellow," he shows that he is untrue what he says; he must indeed be in desperate straits when he intentions Wade, Esq., a man at the most important association, would be a party to keep him imposed upon the public comment upon the insinuations. He complains he can not see how he can propose he will even deprive public opinion correct after all and there are which are generally expressed country, viz., that Lord Derby has been established only making an exhibition owing to the public that he is a very mean man.

SELF-BINDEE TRIAL.—In connection with the Artemesia Agricultural Society there will be a trial of self-binders on the farm of Mr. Geo. Stewart, Flesherton, on Tuesday, September 4th, commencing at 1 o'clock p.m. sharp. Jas. Brodie, Sec.

We learn, by the Alpena Pioneer, Mich., the sad intelligence of the burning of the house of Mr. John McSurley, formerly of near Flesherton, by which his youngest son, a lad of thirteen years, was so badly burned that he died a few hours afterwards.

MR. VANTZANT, Flesherton, erected on Monday last a handsome and costly monument for the O'Brien family at the elevating to the mind and peculiarly attractive. $1.50 a year. Russell Publ. Co., Boston, Mass.

Gone Home.—Mr. Hugh Johnston, of the 6th concession, Euphrasia, purposed leaving about the middle of September on a trip home to Ireland where he will sojourn for six months. Mr. Johnston came out to this country 25 years ago, has, by industry and honesty, won out a comfortable home, and now takes a season of well-deserved rest and recreation.
He will have the best wishes of the Standard for a pleasant voyage, a successful visit and safe return.

EVERY business man should have printed billheads for making out his accounts. They are so neat and business like, and then they cost but little over the blank paper. A good stock of prime paper always on hand at the STANDARD office, printed neatly and cheaply.

"THOU shalt not steal" is one of the commandments, of course, but all the girls want it thoroughly understood by all the young men that the most critical commentators all agree that it doesn't apply to kisses, while most young men can easily induced to return the stolen property four-fold.

MR. S. M. SMYTHE, of Great Bend, Pen., made Markdale a flying visit this week. His many friends were pleased to meet him. His genial countenance lit up our sanctum for a short time yesterday. We are pleased to say that friend Smythe is doing a thriving business in the mercantile line in Pensyl-vania.

A GARDEN PARTY will be held at the premises of Mr. Abby, Berkeley, on Tuesday evening, the 4th September, in aid of the English church organ fund.
Markdale brass band will be in attendance and a good programme is being prepared so that a good time may be expected. Come one and all and enjoy an evening in this truly rural hamlet.
Admission 25 cents; children two for a quarter.

THE old cattle yard at the C. P. R. depot has been enlarged and a new high board fence built around it with two places for loading and unloading—one a few feet higher than the other so as to load without lifting; and the platforms in front of the station extended some yards and re-laid with new three-inch plank; also other improvements in and around the station building. It would be a very desirable act to have the road leading from the street to the station gravelled before the fall weather sets in.

MORE RELICS.—Mr. Nelson, of Euphrasia, having plowed up on his farm from time to time, various Indian war relics such as flint arrow points, spear points, flint and copper tomahawks; has become the possessor of a valuable collection, which he has just disposed of, Mr. A. S. Cochrane, who has been in this vicinity for some time on the Government and Natural History Survey having purchased the collection for the Government Museum at Ottawa. They are a choice and rare assortment and will be a creditable representation from Markdale.

IN referring to the accident which happened at "Allen's sink hole bridge" which we noted two weeks ago, Dr.
Oldham, reeve of Holland, says in last week's Chatsworth News "For my part I am satisfied that the bridge is in a perfectly safe condition for general traffic." We fail to understand how any man possessed of common sense can consider such a long and narrow bridge safe without a hand rail; or if quite safe, why was the effort made at the last session of the County Council to secure a grant for the erection of a railing on said bridge? and why did the Dr. support the resolution for such a purpose if such a protection is not required?

of the Methodist church, Markdale, will erton and Markdale talent as follows:— tette. A grand balloon ascension will grounds will be brilliantly illuminated.

Eight young ladies dressed in "Peek Sisters" costume will wait on the tables.
This promises to eclipse any former effort, and all are cordially invited to be present. Admission only 15 cents.

THE young ladies of a western town at a recent convention passed the following resolution: "That we will not marry anyone who is not a patron of home newspapers, for it is not only a strong evidence of the want of intelligence, but that he will prove too stingy to provide for his family, educate his children, or encourage institutions of learning in his community." The young ladies of our village will never, we think, find it necessary to pass such a resolution, as the boys all take the STANDARD, but if they do, we think it would be an improvement if they added after the word newspaper the words "and pay his subscription in advance."

THE Toronto exhibition, which is becoming more and more one of the events of the year for agriculturists and country dwellers, will be held from September 10th to 22nd next. The new Governor-General—Lord Stanley—will open the exhibition on the 11th. Entries are more numerous than ever before, and the management are providing a great array and variety of features, regardless of expense. Each day and evening there will be presented several new and entertaining novelties, with a view of combining in the great fare the amusing and entertaining feature as well as the instructive. Detailed programmes of each day's performances can be procured by addressing H. J. Hill, the secretary, Toronto.
