WM. BROWN, ESQ.
 Brown is one of our longest estaband most respected citizens. He has engaged in general merchandise in our over twenty years, and has during been a prominent, if not a lead-in every movement for the proof the place or improvement of the education of the people—indeed he himself the most self-sacrificing citizen in furthering any scheme for benefit of the place. He holds the follow-responsible positions, viz: Justice of Peace. Is-uror of Marriage Licenses, Lender, Conveyancer, Clerk of the Court, Councillor, &c., &c.
 J. W. SPROULE.

Markdale's popular and ably conduct-furniture and undertaking business, ed on by Mr. J. W. Sproule, should be omitted from this review. It is the STANDARD pleasure in review-the business interests of the town, being able to note the success which attended Mr. Sproule's efforts and advantages he possesses in supply-the public with anything in his line.
 Sproule established about a year having purchased the business of Ashlin and also that of Messrs.
 Haman & Hamilton and since his ac-of it the town has enjoyed the advantages of a good furniture store.
 The deserved popularity it has acquired has been secured by a careful study of the wants of the people, by handling a superior line of goods and the fair deal-for which he is well known. An inof Mr. Sproule's wares convince that he is able to supply the wants of the public according to the and means of all. The stock com-of all kinds of household furniture, prior and bedroom sets, centre and extension tables, sideboards, lounges, spring beds and mattresses, &c. The stock also includes a fine selection of such lines as window blinds and poles, pictures and picture framing, sewing machines, notably the celebrated new Williams and all kinds of musical instruments. Any one requiring house furnishings of any kind will consult their own interest by inspecting this stock.
 Special attention is given to the undertaking business, being equipped with a fine hearse, funeral supplies of all kinds, &c.

J. HAMILTON.
 Markdale's popular and well conduct-photographic business, carried on by Mr. J. Hamilton, should not be omitted from this review. Mr. Hamilton has been established about four years with the most satisfactory results. The STANDARD, in reviewing the town, is pleased to note the success which has attended Mr. Hamilton's efforts. The deserved popularity the business has acquired has been secured by a careful attention to business and by turning out a superior class of work. Mr. Hamilton enjoys the advantages of thorough practical experience and is a photographer of more than ordinary ability.
 All kinds of photographic work is done from an ordinary portrait to the most elegant cabinet. He also makes a speciality of enlarging under the different processes. The studio is handsomely filled up with all the latest appliances, fine scenery, &c.

WM. LUCAS & CO.
 The banking institution by Mr Wm Lucas, manager, is established about nine years and has proved a great convenience to the community. The business has been ably conducted on strict banking business principles, while the amiable and gentlemanly deportment of the Manager, and superior business tact and courtesy of his right-hand man and assistant, Mr. Young, has won the confidence and high respect of the community at large, and thus built up an extensive and constantly growing business. Mr. Lucas was chosen as a member of the first council of our incorporated village.

S. BREADNER.
 A recent acquisition to our business interests, is the jewelry store of Mr.
 S. Breadner who has just established.
 The STANDARD has pleasure in introducing to our numerous readers this new business and we predict for Mr Breadner a large share of success. He is a young and enterprising business man of large experience in his line and, judging from the start that has been made, will soon develop a satisfactory trade. He has put in an excellent stock of goods, consisting of everything usually carried in a jewelry store, as gold and silver watches, clocks of great variety, and jewelry of all descriptions, as ladies' gold and colored sets, rings, chains, charms, brooches, &c., spectacles, silverware, &c. Repairing and engraving is promptly attended to, and our readers will consult their own interest by giving him a call.

Our space will not permit giving as extended a notice of each business in town as they deserve, so we will have to be content with a passing mention. We have in the hotel business, J. E. Marsh, Markdale House; Thos. Jennings, Revere House; J. Kelly, City Hotel; then John McKenna, Joseph Lamb, John Noble and W. M. Bush, blacksmiths; R. McNally, carriage maker; M.
 Martindale, boot & shoe store; J. S. Halbert and Alex. Kay, boot & shoe makers; J. E.
 Sproule, grocery and provision; F. Sarjeant, butcher; J. Henry, agent for sewing machines and musical instruments; G. S. Bowes, conveyancer and general land agent; Miss Burch, general fancy goods store; F.
 Rooke, baker; J. G. Richards, builder and contractor; A. Fogarty, stone mason, plasterer and contractor; I. L. Stinson, bricklayer and contractor; W. G. Guthrie, plasterer and artistic finisher; B. B. Clements, tailor; W.

 Stoddart, tailor; Moffat & Sons, foundry and stove manufacturers; J. Arley, wind mill manufacturer; J. T. Quinn, pump maker.
 Armstrong Bros., saw and planing mills, cheese box and fruit crate manufacturers; Ritchie, wool factory; A. Boyd, weaver; A.
 Plowes, Victor roller mills; J. W. Ford, Markdale roller mills; W. J. Rowe, stone flour and saw mills; Thos. McNea, planing mill, sash, door and window blind factory; H. B. McCav, tanner; W. J. Boyd, cooper; J. J. McKinnon, harness shop; R. B. Currie, exg merchant; H. Hamilton, boarding house; Mr. Wilson, boarding house; Wm. Jackson, implement agent; J. Arley, implement agent; Mathews' livery stable; Irwin & Co's livery; P. McCullough, lawyer; J. J. Irwin, veterinary surgeon; T. S. Sproule, M.D., M. P.; C. A. McBride, M.D.; English, Presbyterian and Methodist churches; and last but not least is the STANDARD newspaper and job printing establishment. Every family within ten miles of Markdale should be a subscriber.

NOTE AND COMMENT.
 —Nov. 15 will be Thanksgiving Day for the Dominion.
 —Mr. R. S. White was elected in Cardwell last Wednesday, 8d inst., by a majority of 112.
 —The U. S. Tariff Bill provides for a reduction in the revenue of about $75,000,000.

 toba Government and the Northern Pacific was proclaimed, the new company organised and the Red River Valley road taken over last Wednesday, 8d inst.

Flesherton.
Standard Correspondence.
 Monday last, monthly fair day here, was a busy day on the fair ground.
 There were a large number of horned cattle on the market; over 60 head changed hands, representing over one thousand dollars. Stock appeared in very good condition. Prices ran low.
 Messrs. Climo & Co., late of Stratford, came to this village a few months ago and opened out in general business, having grown tired of the same, decided to close out here and go east, to this end sold by auction on fair day their household furniture and stock what they could dispose of.
 This season's harvesting being much later than last year, grain has been later in being marketed, but now beginning to move freely and at fairly good prices. We notice Messrs. M.
 Richardson & Co. again to the front on this market and ready to buy all kinds of produce.

The second anniversary services of the Baptist church will (D.V.) be held in the Baptist chapel here next Sabbath. Preaching morning and evening by the Rev. Mr. McGregor, D.D., of McMaster Hall, Toronto.
 The Rev. J. W. Orr, of Mono Mills, occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church here very acceptably Sabbath last. The Rev. J. Mills, of Sunderland, will occupy the same pulpit Sabbath afternoon next.

Berkeley.
Standard Correspondence.
SOCIALS.—Two socials were held in the Presbyterian church last week, both of which were well attended. An interesting programme was presented each evening. The Berkeley choir, assisted by the Holland, Centre choir, rendered several pieces very acceptably.
 The usual pelting of provisions around the room by small (?) boys prevailed. Proceeds $25.
 The Harvest Home service was held in the Berkeley English church last Sunday. The church was neatly and tastefully decorated with evergreens, fruits, grains and flowers. The Mark-dale choir assisted at the service.
 Mrs. J. J. Stephens has been visiting her son, Mr. P. J. Stephens.
 Mr. and Mrs. Wilson are visiting their daughter, Mrs. J. Lund.
 Miss E. Hadwen is visiting at Mrs.
 Wm. Sargent's.

Now that the fall rains and winter snows have commenced the people of Berkeley are beginning to growl at the cow-shed the C. P. R. are pleased to call a station. Certainly it is a very "coal" affair.

Do you want a comfortable Mantle or Jacket? McFarland can please you with lovely new goods, low prices.

Do you want a nice fashionable Dress? McFarland can please you.
 Some lovely goods just opened out in all the new shades from 10 cents up to $15.00; the Dress pattern.

Do you want a Nobby Suit? Mc-Farland's is the place to leave your order; new Scotch, English and Canadian Suitings.

Do you want a warm, strong, well-made Overcoat at a moderate price?
 Go to McFarland's Clothing Room and find hundreds to select from; prices right.

Do you want a fine or coarse pair of Boots, Rubbers or Overshoes? Mc-Farland has the largest stock in town to select from.

Do you want Gloves, Hosiery, Wool Shawls, Trimmings Under Clothings?
 McFarland has them at bottom figures.

Coal Oil was first used for lighting purposes in 1826. McFarland has received 60 barrels, No. 1, No. 1, No. 1, No. 1.
 Cheap! Cheap! Cheap!

Do you want Grey Flannel, Blue Flannel, Fancy Flannel, Blankets, White or Scarlet Flannel? McFarland has them at manufacturers prices.

Need I advise you to get your Tea at McFarland's; all sensible people do, or at least all those who enjoy a good, well-flavored, strong Tea do.
 McFarland sells more Tea than any two stores in the County, and why?
 Because he sells nothing but a pure, unadulterated article at a very low price.

When in Markdale call on the oldest, largest and cheapest store in town and that is McFarland's.

STOVES.
 The following unsolicited letter from a gentleman who has made and handled thousands of stoves, and who, at present, has a stock of the best Hamilton and Toronto makes, will show that we mean what we say, viz., that our Stoves and ranges are equal in material, design and finish to the best Canadian makes, and are also heavier, & in every way suitable for all markets: Chatsworth, Sept. 15th, '88.
 Messrs. Moffat & Sons, Markdale.
 Dear Sirs,—I received the Stove you sent me and must say it is first-class; I have no better in my shop. You need not be afraid to send your travellers into the city of Toronto, you can compete with any of them. Not only is the stove well proportioned and heavy where the stove requires to be heavy, but it is good Plate and well fitted. I give you credit for getting up a good article. I have been forty years among stoves; have moulded and mounted thousands of them and consider myself a judge.
 Yours respectfully,
 Andrew McGill
