MISS MAGGIE BENSON returned to Toronto after visiting friends in Markdale for some time.

P. A. BLACK did quite a stroke of business in Markdale for the Provincial Provident Institute.

F. SARJEANT is weekly slaughtering choice beeves with which he continues to supply his customers faithfully and with dispatch.

THE Young People of the Methodist church are preparing for their promised concert in the roller rink on the evening of Thanksgiving Day.

REV. MR. ANDERSON, late of Glasgow, Scotland, preached morning and evening in the Presbyterian church last Sunday. He is a very promising young man.

EVERY man in the community should belong to the Ancient Order of United Workmen. It is a capital investment of $2,000 and only costs about a dollar and a quarter a month.

It is scarcely four months since Dr. McBride moved from Toronto to Markdale and yet he finds his practice increasing so rapidly that for the past six weeks he has been kept on the jump night and day.

"WHAT a rough fellow that Sniggins is!" petulantly exclaimed the Hopedale girl, after a struggle with the aforesaid Sniggins at "Copenhagen." "He nearly smothered me!" "And did you kiss him for his smother?" asked the other miss, naively.

S. S. ANNIVERSARY.—The Methodist S. S. anniversary was held on Wednesday evening last and was very well attended. The program, which consisted chiefly of recitations, dialogues and singing by the juveniles, was well maintained and showed that the pupils had received careful drilling, which must have cost those in charge many an hour of patient toil. The Secretary's report showed the school to be in a very prosperous condition. Sabbath School workers have a just claim on the sympathies and practical support of all parents in their laudable and self-denying efforts to train the young and disseminate scriptural truths.

ARMSTRONG BROS., of this village, have done an extensive business in cheese box manufacturing this season. Their wagon has been kept steady on the road delivering, the past few weeks. On Monday last they delivered the largest load of the season, viz., 380 boxes, to Ventry cheese factory, Proteau. It was drawn by four horses.

"Will you hold my baby while I look after my baggage?" asked a woman of a railway man employed in a Chicago depot, the other day. "No," said the man, "but I will hold your baggage while you look for your baby." He held a baby for a woman once, and she never came back for it, and that was what made him so careful.

A woman who carried around milk in Paris said a naive thing the other day. One of the cooks to whom she brought milk looked into the can and remarked with surprise: "Why, there is actually nothing there but water!" The woman having satisfied herself of the truth of the statement, said: "Well, if I didn't forget to put in the milk?"

MR. COLLINS' artistic lettering and paper hanging, is highly appreciated in our town, resulting in the return of Mr. C. last week for another week's work. Manley's drug store ceiling has been materially improved by papering, also the jewelry store of W. A. Brown. The latter is very handsome, giving this neat and well stocked store a very attractive aspect.

THEY WERE HUNGRY.—On Saturday night last the cellar of Mr. Robt. Clark, near Holland Centre, was entered and the following goods and chattels purloined, viz: one jar preserves, two pies, gelly cake, one johnnie cake, about three lbs butter a plate of biscuit, some bread also two live geese from the barn yard. Are these two burglar accomplices still in the vicinity, or was it some poor fellow who has no wife to cook for him?

SEND IN NOW!—Every one should take his own local paper, and when he can afford it a good metropolitan newspaper also and every farmer should take an agricultural paper. Now, we offer the whole list for very little. By a special arrangement with the publishers we can give our subscribers the WEEKLY MAIL to the end of 1889, the FARM AND FIRESIDE to the end of 1889, and our own paper for one year, all for Two dollars.

We regret to learn that Cham Whitby, son of Mr. John Whitby of this place, happened with a severe accident at Fordwich, near Harrison, where he was overseeing a gang of men painting for the C. P. R. He received a severe scalp wound and his spine also seriously injured. His life is in a precarious condition. His parents were telegraphed for, and left together with Dr. McBride, and will bring him home if at all practicable.

PEOPLE talk glibly about a million bushels of wheat, but very few of them realize what a vast amount that is. A wheat broker says "that if a million bushels were loaded on freight cars, 500 bushels to a car, it would fill a train over fifteen miles long. If transported by wagons, forty-four bushels on a wagon it would make a line of teams 142 miles long. If made into bread, reckoning a bushel to every sixty pounds of flour, it would give each man, woman and child in the United States a two-pound loaf of bread.

A GREAT BARGAIN.—We have made arrangements with the great agricultural weekly FARM and FIRESIDE, by which we are able to supply our subscribers with that paper to the end of 1889, and the WEEKLY MAIL to the end of 1889, and our own paper for one year for Two dollars. FARM and FIRESIDE is a large 7 column, 4 page weekly, two pages being devoted to agricultural matters and two pages to stories by the best authors. It is well illustrated throughout and has a large circulation at 75 cents a year. The low price at which we give it and the WEEKLY MAIL is a special arrangement.

NO CHANGE.—The change of business which we published last week re McNally's carriage business, did not take place. After the notice was left in, by one of the parties concerned, there was a hitch in the bargain and the change does not take place but Mr. McNally continues as before. After half the edition was printed when we were informed that the bargain was "busted" we dropped out the notice in the balance.

INASMUCH as the reputed officials in the first horse race between Carson and Sproule all asserted their innocence and so emphatically denied having had anything to do in the affair we are inclined to not mention the last race between the flyers owned by the same gentlemen further than to say James got there this time. If there is anything in this item that is libellous or that is distasteful to the judges and minor officials we humbly beg to be pardoned.

SOCIALLY.—The social given at Mr. H. Hamilton's Temperance House on Friday night last, by the Good Templars, was not so largely attended as it would have been had the weather been finer; but, as it was, a social and enjoyable time was spent by the goodly number who were present. Mr. H. and his better half deserve a word of praise for the kind and hospitable manner in which they received their guests and were the recipients of a resolution of thanks for their hospitality.

THE age in which we live is a fast won; in every department of life there is found a disposition to hasten. The mode of travel, the means of transporting freight and dispatch of news and other communications have been vastly improved during the last decade. All kinds of crime and plunder is resorted to in order to gain wealth, position or notoriety. Everything appears to point in the direction of a short road to a desired attainment—even the English language is being murdered. What more?

We are pleased to say that it is the intention of the Markdale Mechanics' Institute to open a class next month for the benefit of those who wish to improve their education. The instruction given will be practical and by a first-class teacher. We hope our citizens will give it their countenance and support, as there are many, even our mechanics and business men, who can profit by such instructions in book keeping and other branches. Pupils attending the public school are not admitted. Quite a number have already signified their intention of joining.
