 ACCOUNT TO A HORSE.—Rev. Mr. Watson, of Flesherton, met with an unfortunate accident last week by the disabling of his horse. He had placed the animal in a stable at Friesville which at one time had been a dwelling house, and contained a collar underneath. The floor was thin, and the beast dropped through, catching upon beams and hanging until rescued. It was a peculiar accident, and results in injuries so great that Mr. Watson fears they may be permanent. The horse is still unable to work.—Advance
 Fire at Chatsworth
 About twenty minutes to four o'clock on Monday last fire was discovered in Chatsworth school house. The alarm was promptly given, but despite the efforts of citizens the fine building was totally destroyed. The building was a handsome brick, two stories high, built a year ago at a cost of $6,000. It was perhaps the finest school building in the County. About 100 children were in the school at the time. All of whom escaped unhurt. There is $5,000 insurance.
