Standard Correspondence.
The monthly fair on Monday last was poorly attended. Very few cattle on the market; a good number of those out changed hands.

Stephen Spirit, Esq., of this village, after an absence of eight years from his native land, left here on Tuesday last for old England. He expects to return to Canada about March next.

The Huber & Atwood Bright Lights closed their concerts here on Saturday evening last. They were not stimulated with very large audiences here. The manager reports he has yet to collect 20 cts. for reserve from the old gentleman who sat on the ladder outside taking in the concert and play through the window.

Rev. A. H. Drumm, a graduate of Knox College, occupied the pulpit in the Presbyterian church here Sabbath last and will (D. V.) preach again Sabbath afternoon next at the usual hour. Mr. Drumm is an earnest and impressive preacher of the gospel, a close reasoner. He is not an orator possessed with flowery eloquence of declamation, but yet there are unmistakable marks of power in what he says, although he says it in the most impassioned manner; evidently he is a good student of advanced thought and more than average ability.

The Rev. Mr. Grant, of London, who has electrified and delighted his audiences heretofore in this village on former visits, will (D. V.) preach in the Baptist chapel on Thanksgiving day, Nov. 15th, in the afternoon, and also lecture at night. A tea will also be served by the ladies of the congregation.

The Artemesia township fathers met in council chambers Monday last for general business. Hats off. Reeve in the chair. Members all present, looking wiser and more serious than ever as the year draws to a close, only one session more, sitting on Dec. 15th. The following minutes were entered.

Sharp—Boland—That the reeve and clerk be instructed to issue trustees cheques for school trustee rates, if required, before 15th Dec., next council sitting.

Report of committee to arrange financial matters between corporation of Markdale and Artemesia township was adopted and amount of $128 ordered to be paid Markdale corporation.

The following payments were ordered to be made:—H. Cairns, letting and inspecting, $8; Reeve, overseeing and inspecting Boyne Water bridge, $10; J. McArthur, inspecting culvert, Durham Road, $2; $4 per month granted to T. Manders, indigent, for six months; W. H. Thurston, $7.50, printing; Reeve, Clerk and Assessor, selecting jurors, $4 each; L. Belts, repairing bridge, $1; W. McLoughry, repairing culvert, $8.

McArthur—Sharp—That the reeve issue order for this day's session.
All leave their chairs. Hats on. Went home.

OWEN SOUND.

Standard Correspondence.
The Rev. E. Wallace Waits, B. A. late of Chatham, N. B. was inducted into Knox church here on Friday 2nd inst. Dr. Fraser of Leith, presiding, Mr. Fleming of Clarksburg, preached, Mr. McAlpin addressed the minister and Dr. Fraser (in the absence of Mr. McInnis, who was to address the congregation) addressed the congregation. In the evening a reception was given Mr. Waits in the town hall by the ladies of the congregation where after partaking of a bounteous repast addresses were delivered by the following: Revs. Holmes, Kerr, Mullen, Stuart and Schiverrea and Messrs. Masson, Rutherford, Merchant and Waldron.

On Wednesday evening of last week Schiverrea ended his revival services here by a meeting of the converts which amounted to one hundred and thirty. On Thursday evening he delivered a lecture called the first five steps of a drunkard.

Mr. Schiverrea left for London, Ont. on Saturday morning where he expects to conduct evangelistic services. Dr. Denhart has gone to New York, to attend the hospital there, he expects to be gone four months.

Mr. Graham of the Clifton House left for parts unknown on Saturday a number of merchants would like to see him very much but its not likely that feeling is reciprocal.

Mr. Adam Turner, for many years chemist and druggist of Markdale, called at the Review office Thursday last. He has sold out his business and is taking a look around a number of towns and cities in western Ontario with a view to locating again. Any town or city securing Adam Turner as a business man and citizen will be benefited thereby.—Stratfordville Review.

Standard Correspondence.
Monthly fair day to-day in Maxwell, Messrs. Irwin, Fawcett, O'Brien, Whitmore and other buyers were present, the attendance was small, and very few cattle changed hands.

Dr. Kerr has sold his practice to Dr. Scott and intends going to Washington Territory in about a month. Dr. and family will have the best wishes of many warm friends for their happiness and prosperity in their distant home.

Mr. Thos. Blakely was the proudest man in town last week; the cause was a young son.

Mr. J. Carr, of Collingwood has opened a general store in the shop erected by R. Brown this summer it seems to mean business by the stock he has purchased.

S. Connor and S. Linley, have purchased the ginger ale works from J. Carr, and are now turning out the above turning out the above article in good shape, so Maxwell is still alive and thriving.

Mr. John McNeal Graduate of Queen's College, Kingston, has been ordained and inducted to the pastoral charge of Maxwell, Faversham and McLutye congregations.

Plenty of mud, copious showers and a change of the moon will wind up the Maxwell news this week.

TRAVERTON.

Standard Correspondence.
Miss Trainer of Owen Sound, is visiting at Mr. James Morrison's.

Mr. and Mrs. Strathern of Minnesota, have been visiting at Mr. Richard Jack's.

Mrs. Thos. Jack left on Saturday to join her husband in Dakota.

A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Dulan gave them a friendly call at their new residence on Wednesday night. The visitors were most hospitably received and a most pleasant evening was spent. An impromptu programme consisting of songs and recitations was carried out. We unite with those present in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Dulan prosperity and happiness in their new home.

A debating club has been organized by the young men around here. It will be known as the "Traverston Literary and Debating Club." All persons desirous to cultivate a facility for public speaking and at the same time securing useful information, are requested to attend. The club meets every Friday night in Elder's Hall, Traverston. Mr. Isaac Elder has been chosen President and Mr. Thos. Dulan Secretary of the organization.

OUR EDUCATIONAL PROBLEM.

Editor Standard:
"A Student," in your last issue makes a futile attempt to criticize an editorial in the late issue of the Flesherton Advance, the attempt reminding me forcibly of a caricature of Don Quixote on crutches, in his tilt against the windmill. The criticism caused me to re-read the Educational article in the Advance, and it pleased me to read the profound thought conveyed by our friend of the Advance, and trust the press throughout the country at large will follow his example in denouncing a system which, apart from its financial extravagance, keeps in semi-bondage our highly-cultivated Teachers, and brings the public at large into a contemptible state of subserviency. The fund arising from the School Lands will, while it remains, be a rot-pit of official corruption, no matter what political party may be in power, and the sooner it is wiped out of existence as a general School Fund, the better for our educational interests; and as Brother Thurston truly says, "leave the people free to act and think for themselves." If you grant me the permission I will, at some future period, suggest a mode of extinguishing this Fund, and applying its resources in a manner that would meet the approval of every right-minded man in the community.

The miserable driveller, "student," is beneath notice, and I trust the Advance will treat his falsehoods with silent contempt. Bobby Burns must evidently have had a character similar to "A Student" in his mind when he uttered the expression relative to collegians that "The gang in sticks an' come out asses."

I have long observed, with regret the humiliating position occupied by our worthy School Teachers, and any change in the School Law which will elevate them to the rank amongst the Professions to which their education and talents justly entitle them, will meet with the hearty approval of Yours truly,
S. L. M. Linn.
