A wise girl would wm a lover by practicing those virtues which secure admiration when personal charms have faded.

A simple girl endeavors to recommend herself by the exhibition of frivolous accomplishments, and by a mawkish sentiment which has as little to do with a true heart as has the gaudy dress she wears.

A good girl will always respect herself, and is thus sure to be respected by others.

The Globe's Christmas Mumber.

A feature of the holiday season this year will be the issue by The GLOBE of a grand Christmas number. Some particulars of this great literary and artistic production are given in the advertisement published in another column. We have the best reasons for knowing that the statements there made are by no means exaggerated. Undoubtedly this number will be worthy of THE GLOBE's enterprise in other respects and the finest Christmas -Mr. Joseph Chamberlain arrived every line of it, and will include stories and sketches from the ablest pens in Canada, the subjects treated being wholly Canadian. The illustrations will be furnished by the best known Canadian artists. This alone will make the Christmas number most acceptable to the people of the Dominion, not only for home reading, but for mailing from friends abroad. Those receiving from friends the fine illustrated numbers of British, French or American periodicals can fittingly respond by sending this handsome special number of THE GLOBE. The presentation plates will be the best that money can produce, the principal one being a faithful copy of a magnificent picture by the greatest of

BREADNER'S New JEWELERY Store.

Did you see pa's new watch and chain? "asked the bad boy as he came into the grocery store and held a fruit biscuit under the molasses tap.

Yes said the groceryman, as he charged the boy's father with a quart of molasses; your folks are getting michty tony. Your father looks like a ditch inspector at a council meeting. Where did he get that watch and chain-was there a fire?

"No there wasnt any fire nuth-en betcher life pa dont hav tu go ter fires looking for watches and chains. He got em at Breadners and it dont require a big fortune to get a watch and chain there you bett. My ma gave him $10. and sent him down to Breadners, and look at the consequences He's too respectable for nothing. When ma saw him come in she felt as if there was company in the house and she made me go and wash my neck and sent the girl out for more mutton chops, you'da hardly believe it was pa. That new watch, and oh! that chain he got at Breadners, look so different. When bed time came you'da died to see ma leading him to the spare bedroom, and hoping he would sleep well, and put that beautiful watch and chain under the pillow an, tellin him not to blow out the lamp. An pa said he was feared he was puttin ma to too much trouble, an ma said : oh, no, not in the least; we are only too glad to have you there. An when I snickered ma slapped me an told me to be a good boy while the gentleman was in the house. betcher life we've had a regular picnic up to our house since pa got hiswatch and chain. And the bad boy went out and hung up a sign in front of the store-
