

MY DEBUT AS A V... BY JOHN L. We had all gathered around... We had all gathered around...

From Forest to Buzz Saw.

Plains of Life Among the Pines and Streams, Where the Lumberman Swings His Axe and Wields His Pike.

Logging and Rafting in Canada.

The value of the exports of timber from Canada annually is about $20,000,000. But the production is beginning to fall off...

GETTING TO THE WOODS.

When the Canadian lakes begin to coat over with ice and cold snow flakes come...

IN THE SHANTIES OF THE FRENCH LUMBERMEN.

The camp life just described refers chiefly to the English speaking Canadians. The lumber men who come from Quebec...

The related sportsman passing through the woods at night, where this French shanty is, will hear sounds that are most pleasing...

WILD ANIMALS IN THE WOODS.

There is nothing that will bring a Sunday camp to its feet so quickly as the prospect of digging out a bear from his den...

WAITING FOR THE DRIVE.

As soon as the snow begins to melt in the woods and you can hear the merry dripping...

IN THE STREAM.

The first duty is to get the logs into the stream, which is done by feeding them at the brow...

COMPOSITION OF "GANGS."

A gang consists of forty to fifty men as a rule, and about four men are allowed to each team of horses.

THE COOK'S DUTIES.

As I have said, the cook is about the most important man in the camp. But he has to rise each morning a couple of hours before...

the St. John, the Restigouche or the Miramichi. As the logs are cut they are hauled on bobsleds to the side of the river...

SUPERSTITIONS OF THE WOODS.

There is no place more fruitful of superstitions and fears of the supernatural than the silent woods...
