A Farmer's Mysterious Disappearance.

COLLINGWOOD, Ont., May 17.—Peter Currie, a farmer living a few miles from Collingwood, went to that town on Thursday with his team of horses, putting up at a hotel. Currie, imbibed freely during the day, and finally was put to bed at the hotel intoxicated. The hotel people not hearing Currie moving around yesterday morning went to his room and found he had disappeared with nothing on but his pants and shirt. As his team is still at the hotel, the supposition is that Currie awoke during the night, climbed out of the window and found his way to the lake and was drowned. No trace of the body has been found.

Just received 2000 lbs., which will be sold at a small advance on cost. TEA! TEA! TEA! TEA! TEA!

We have come to the conclusion that the best advertisement that any merchant can place before the public, to draw trade to his store is tea. Everybody drinks tea and if you can get a run on tea it helps to sell other goods and good trade increases our trade. We are bound through time to do the tea trade of the County. We are selling tea from 5c. to 10c. per lb. less than other merchants, and we find that we sell four chests now for one we did a year ago, people are getting their eyes opened, when they buy from us once they come back. We will positively give you better value than any house in Markdale. Fine lines of Blacks, Young Hyson, Japan and Gunpowder, drop in and get a sample. Canned goods in endless variety, best brand of canned Salmon (Horseshoe) only 15 cents each, canned Peas, Beans, Plums, Peaches, Pears, Marmalade, prices away down to cope with the times. Buy your Confectionery and Biscuits from us, Oranges, Lemons, Bannas, Pine Apples, Cocoanuts, Almonds, Filberts, Brazil, &c., always in stock. Our goods are all fresh. We don't keep any stale goods, they don't lie long enough on the shelves to get stale. We buy for cash and take our discounts. We have to pay no rent, we have no clerks to hire, we do all our own work and if there is a store under the sun to day who can sell you cheap goods we can. Our Wine and Spirit department is filled with the choicest brands of Liquors Canadian and imported goods. Fine bottled Ail $1.25 per doz. Draught Ale, Draught Porter, fine Cider. Jobbers in Cigars.
