An Awful Charge.
THORNBURY, June 10.—This usually quiet town is to-day seething with excitement over the sensational story of hardship and brutality told by Emma Gardner, the 17-year-old adopted daughter of Samuel and Mrs. Friend, Friend, who for years has occupied the position of town constable is reputed to be wealthy. He owns a blacksmith and carriage shop, and holds mortgages on several farms. Though married for some sixteen years, he had no children, and four years ago adopted Emma Gardner, the daughter of a widow who resides at Clarksburg, a village a mile distant. A young man named James Goldsmith, who works in Friend's blacksmith shop, has boarded in the house for two years past.
Mrs. Gardner states that when she allowed her daughter to go with the Friends it was with the understanding that she should be treated as one of the family, and that she should be sent to school during the day. For months Dame Rumor had been busy with the names of Friend, his wife and young Goldsmith, and Emma Gardner has been in consequence shunned by all the young girls of the village. Nothing of a definite nature, however, was known until yesterday, when Emma was seen flying from the house, and, upon being questioned, told such a horrible story of repeated assaults and outrages that at first her charges staggered belief. The girl's mother, upon hearing of the affair, took her daughter before the mayor and swore out warrants for the arrest of Friend and Goldsmith, charging them with rape. Both are under arrest now.

COMING EVENTS.
Coming consumption is foreshadowed by a hacking cough, night sweats, pain in the chest, etc. Arrest its progress at once by taking Hagar's Pectoral Balm, which never fails to cure coughs, colds, bronchitis, hoarseness, etc. and even in confirmed consumption affords grateful relief.

A CURE FOR RHEUMATISM.
I CAN recommend Hagar's Yellow Oil as a sure cure for rheumatism. I had it for some time, and was cured by using part of one bottle. I can also recommend it for chilblains, burns, frost bites, sprains, bruises, etc. Mrs. H. PROCTOR, Queen's Head, Queen's Head, Queen's Head.

LIVING IN A FOOL'S PARADISE.
Many neglect slight symptoms of disease, hoping that nature will restore health. True nature will aid, but the mind also be aided by using Burdock Blood Bitters, from 1 to 2 bottles of which is sufficient to cure any ordinary case of impure blood, constipation, dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney complaint, debility, etc.

LAST winter left a legacy of impure blood to many people, causing tired feelings, lack of energy, indigestion, constipation, biliousness, etc. From 1 to 4 bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters never fails to cure any of the foregoing diseases by unblocking the secretions and removing all impurities from the system.
