MARKDALE, JUNE 26, 1890.

METHODIST CHURCH.

The Methodist Church is divided into twelve geographical divisions called Annual Conferences each of which meet in the month of June, and are composed of all the ministers of their respective territories and one lay representative for every minister. The names of the conferences are, British Columbia; Manitoba; Toronto; Guelph; London; Niagara; Bay of Quinte; Montreal; New Brunswick; Nova Scotia, P. E. I.; Newfoundland and Japan. The General Conference meets once in four years and comprises one minister for every ten and the same number of lay representatives, who are elected at the annual Conferences next preceding the meeting of the General Conference. The Educational interest of the Church was prominent among the questions considered at the various Conferences assembled recently. The scheme of college federation adopted at the last General Conference four years ago, having been obstructed and delayed by a section of the minority, it was decided to let the matter stand until the next General Conference, which meets in Montreal next September. The election of delegates to the General Conference was consequently chiefly on the line of Federation or Anti-Fed. The result is now pretty definitely known and is claimed to be about seventy-five of a majority in favor of federation, or three times as large as it was four years ago. This will doubtless settle this great educational question permanently.

NOTE AND COMMENT.

The population of Chicago is placed at 1,250,000 by the new census, and that of New York at 1,800,000.

Montreal Anglican Synod, on the motion of Dean Carmichael, of Montreal passed a motion in favor of consolidating all the branches of that church in Canada. The union is almost certain to take place.

The Methodist Publishing House in Toronto is the most complete and extensive establishment of the kind in Canada. The new premises on Richmond Street were recently erected at a cost of $100,000; capital invested $356,000; net profits for the past Conference year $25,000.

Walter's Falls.

"Epistolarum Commercium."
Road work is being done in this vicinity this week, and the majority of the workers seem to be making good use of their time.

A new settler has come into this neighborhood in the person of Mr. McLennan. He has bought a farm (nearly all bush) a few lots south of the village.

Mr. R. Walter raised a large addition to his barn on Thursday last. The usual miracle—nobody hurt.

The Griersville "Quicksteps" did not come out on Saturday to play a football match with the "Dauntless" as was announced last week.

Master Thos. Freeman is visiting in the Falls. He has been learning book-binding in Toronto, and looks well.

We are glad to state that Jas. Hammill, whose injuries were mentioned last week, is progressing very favorably.

The bills of the Walter's Falls Dominion Day celebration are out. The prizes offered are good, and, as the Agricultural grounds are in good shape, a good time may be expected.

Quite an excitement was caused here last week over the fact that a certain young man of the village eloped with a damsel of the neighboring village of Strathavon. The escape was quite a romantic affair, but we decline giving particulars.

WILSON'S FLY PADS.

Slaughter House Flies in millions. They are safe, cleanly and effective.

Dundalk.

Standard Correspondence.
Several residents of your village spent Sabbath last in our village, among them, W. T. Jackman, Harry Cornett, the Misses Leslie, and Miss Lucas.

Rev. W. H. Moss preaches his farewell sermons next Sabbath. His successor is expected for the first Sabbath in July.

Some excitement was caused last week by the Village Constable summoning four of our citizens before the magistrate for breach of the dog tax By-law. The fun of it was, that two of them were village councillors. Fifteen others made a bee line for the Treasurer's office and purchased tags.

The 1st of July celebration is expected to be a good one.

Dundalk baseball club played Corbetton the other day for five innings. Corbetton got three runs the first innings, but never got any more. When Dundalk had scored 27 runs, by common consent the game ended.

The question of building a new parsonage is now agitating the minds of the Methodists in this place. It will probably be built this summer.

Entrance examinations are to be held here. Mr. McKay, principal of our school, has a large class in preparation.

Two socials and two picnics inside of seven days prove the people of the surrounding country to be exceedingly social.

Rumor has it that an estimable young lady of Dundalk is to be married to-morrow (Wednesday).

We congratulate your villagers, Mr. Editor, on the final settlement of the school site question, and the commencement of the work of building, by letting the contract.

East Mountain.

Standard Correspondence.
Miss Garrett the teacher of U. S. S. No. 1, is visiting her parents in Hanover this week. Her teaching duties were preformed by Miss Ella Stuart.

Mr. John O'Brien lost a handsome year old colt last week.

The Bailey Bros. were home on Sunday. They are engaged at present building the stone foundation for Mr. Jas. Madden's barn, in Osprey.

Mr. Wm. Cooper occupied the pulpit of the Quaker Church on the "Fourteenth," on Sunday.

Several of our young people were seen playing ball on the Sabbath Day. We think this very derogatory to the morals of this place.

The Cor. to the Thornbury Standard furnishes the news of this vicinity to that paper, in a spicy manner, and we are pleased to hear from Veritas often.

The crops here are looking fairly well except in low land where the water has lain. But in such places the grain is yellow, and does not give much promise. A large yield of hay is expected.

MIRZA.

Rocklyn.

Standard Correspondence.
Everything in and around the Capital looks prosperous.

Mr. Geo. Dowding's frame house was struck by lightning during the late storm, and burned to the ground. Fully insured.

Miss Flora and Leticia Irwin arrived from Lockport, N. Y., last week, and are now enjoying themselves at their home, "Poplar Farm," adjoining Rocklyn.

Mrs. Wm. Irwin presented his lordship with twins—a bouncing boy and girl. Success William.

Picnics are all the rage this week. There will be one at New England church on Wednesday, and on Thursday the Temple Hill church picnic comes off in Mr. D. Patton's bush.

Mr. John Eaton will raise his frame barn next week, Mr. Wm. Cooper having the contract. This is the fifth barn Mr. Cooper has contracted for in this neighborhood this spring. Success "Billy."

Some dozen or more young ladies of Meaford paid Rocklyn a flying visit on Sunday last and duly registered their names.

DISTRICT DOTS.

ANOTHER PHYSICIAN.—A new practitioner has been added to our local list in the person of Dr. J. H. Jimby, who passed his M. D. examination in connection with McGill faculty a few weeks ago. Dr. Jimby is well known in town, being not only a native, but a former teacher in our public school, and the fact will no doubt be of advantage to him in his profession. —Owen Sound Advertiser.

Meaford Road.

Standard Correspondence.
Lots of rain lately and crops are growing vigorously.

Last week Mr. Joseph Buchanan of this place and Miss Read of Opps pronounced the "until death do us part" the indissoluble "I will."

Mr. William Buchanan is getting the stone work under his barn well under way.

Mr. Arthur Johnston lost a valuable bull some time ago. Cause, too much grass and heat.

Commissioner Boland let several road jobs here last week.

The Rev. Mr. Shilton delivered his farewell sermon in the Wesley church last sabbath. The church was filled to the doors.

"Pro Bono Publico."

Editor Standard:
Last Monday evening the citizens of Markdale had the novel spectacle presented to them of a hotel-keeper running to the law for protection from the murderous onslaught of a young man infuriated to madness by drink. Had said hotel-keeper sold this young man the liquor the majority of people would have very little sympathy for him; but no, the liquor was sold by a dyed devil who keeps an unlicensed dive before the eyes of decent hotel-keepers next door to the law, and the citizens of Markdale are too decent and too respectable to notice it. Why do we not cast off our mock respectability and let law abiding hotel-keepers and citizens rise in righteous indignation and stamp such a man out from among us? The young man, I understand, has been sent to Owen Sound gaol for two months. If justice were done the man who sold him the liquor ought to be along with him.
