Fell into a Fit.
 Very few people covet the experience. Many would rather fall into a pit. But the customers of Will Stoddart covet the experience of a fit every time, they would rather not fall into the hands of a Knight of the Scissors and Needle whose turnout would fit them like rolling into a pit.
 Fits they want, fits they get, and he wants 1000 men and boys who want fits.

EUFRASIA FALL SHOW.
 Old Probs was badly out of sorts on Tuesday last and baffled the efforts and good intentions of the management of Rocklyn fair seriously. There was, however, a very good exhibit and quite a large attendance. Had the weather proved favorable the show would have been a splendid one. The limited accommodation becomes a serious matter when the weather turns out unfavorable on such an occasion. It is astonishing, however, what a success the fall show was under such circumstances. We hope to give the prize list next week.

CHANGES.
 Sweet were the flowers of May, Sweeter by far the day,
 Love filled my heart.
 Bright was the sun above, Soft were the songs of love,
 Sung to my heart.
 Ah, but the autumn's chill, For he who should be still,
 Found in my heart.
 Went with the birds that fly, Went far, and here am I,
 With my lone heart.
 Cold the October day, Drear are the skies and gray,
 More drear my heart.
 Stripped are the forest trees, Gone are the busy bees,
 No hope my heart.
 Wild blows the wind and wails While all in nature falls,
 To move my heart.
 For he who still should be More than all else to me,
 Left drear my heart.

DISTRICT DOTS.
 Mrs. Bray and the Misses Bray are leaving to-day to reside in Markdale, where her son Rev. E. Bray is stationed. Their many friends in Presqu' Isle and Sarawak are sorry to see them go, but we hope to see them often. We wish them every happiness and prosperity in their new home.—Presqu' Isle cor. in O. S. Advertiser.
 While the firemen's race was taking place at Clinton during the Fair on Thursday last work one of the firemen, named John Miller, fell and was run over by the hose reel, receiving such injuries that he died a few minutes afterwards. He was but a young man and leaves a wife and small family to mourn his untimely end.
BOTH RECOVERED.—The bodies of both victims in the sad drowning accident in Wiarton Bay have been recovered. Mr. McDougall's body being found near Proder's dock on Saturday week, and that of young Greenlee between the mill and the mill race on Saturday. The money which McDougall is believed to have had in his pockets some $600, part of the proceeds of a recent land transfer, was not on his person when found. The relatives of both are congratulated by the community on having the sad satisfaction of laying away their dead in "God's Acre."—O. S. Advertiser.
BARRELS BY WHOLESALE.—A rattling industry is the one established in H. B. Harrison's old stand on Polett St. by Mr. J. H. Hall formerly of Markdale. Mr. Hall has purchased the property right through to the continuation of River St., and his business will be one of our permanent industries. Mr. Hall employs eight men and turns out 800 barrels per day. He claims to have the largest barrel-maker in Canada in the person of Chas. Edwards, who puts together 90 lbs. per day, 45 being considered a good day's work. The hoops and staves are obtained from the factories of Wallaceburg and Chatham and from Messrs. Vance & Fennant of Hawspworth. Mr. Hall still continues his business in Markdale.—O. S. Advertiser.
