MARKDALE, NOV. 13, 1890.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

Last Thursday was observed as a holiday by Markdale citizens generally and all shops were closed in honor of the occasion.

Public service was held in the English church and was fairly well attended.

Quite a number shouldered their guns and spent the day in the woods, some returning in the evening well laden with game while others brought home what is sometimes called a ravenous appetite.

Richards, the contractor, hoisted a flag on the new school building thereby showing his loyalty.

The Pie Social held in the basement of the Methodist church in the evening, under the auspices of the Young People's Society of the church, was in every respect an admirable affair. The room was tastefully decorated with evergreens, flowers, and other ornaments thus giving the beautiful large room a cosy and home like appearance. The refreshments were served in the latest possible style, numerous small tables being nicely arranged each at tended by a lady and gentleman waiter, who were most assiduous in their attentions. The bill of fare was the same different kind of pies, and coffee you pays your money and takes your choice. After this very pleasing and palatable repast was concluded the assembly was called to order and a program of unique variety was rendered as follows: Opening Chorus, S. S. choir and prayer by the pastor; Chairman's address, Rev. R. [illegible] Reading, Miss Breadner; [illegible] McNea and Benson; Address, Oscar Rutledge; Address, [illegible] M. P.; Solo, Miss B. [illegible] Recitation, Walter Hall. At the close of the program the chairman announced that he had placed in the possession a number of ballots, each with a subject written thereon, which he was called upon was to choose, and deliver a two or three minute impromptu speech on the subject he happened to draw. The first called was C. W. Rutledge, and the subject drawn was "music." Next came Jas. Lyons, subject "shams," then Thos. Bolard, text "old people" and fourth and last W. J. McFarland who first made his favorate, "the ladies." This part of the program was much enjoyed, each speaker cheerfully complying with the invitation and all doing justice to the untoward theme. This most enjoyable social gathering reflects much credit on the young people who had the management, and they are to be congratulated upon the eminent success which crowned their efforts. Net proceeds $20.

NOTE AND COMMENT.

November 27 will be Thanksgiving day in the United States.

—Dry Goods Inspector French, of Ottawa, died suddenly on Friday last.

—It is proposed to introduce a bill in the Quebec Legislature to provide for compulsory voting.

—The Canada Pacific Company's stock of rails for the western division at Fort William consisting of 87,000 tons caught fire last Friday, and is still burning.

—The Cabinet Council at Ottawa last Friday decided that the law must take its course in the case of Birchall. The execution will therefore take place to-morrow (Friday).

—Every place officer in Young county, Texas is in jail, having been indicted by the United States grand jury for complicity in the attempt to assassinate the jail and hang three murderers.

—A despatch from Salt Lake City says: Notwithstanding President Woodruff's proclamation polygamy still flourishes in Utah. Forty two arrests have been made for this crime within the last 60 days.

—The funeral of the late Mrs. Booth, wife of General Booth of the Salvation Army, was perhaps the most remarkable tribute of respect and affection ever paid to an Englishwoman. The procession following the remains to the cemetery was nearly five miles in length, and in point of numbers was probably the greatest known during the century. The memorial service at the "Olympia" was attended by over thirty five thousand people. As Rev. Hugh Price Hughes said, her death is a loss to the universal Church. The last number of the War Cry contains a full account of the services, together with a large number of press opinions as to the work and character of Mrs. Booth. "After all," writes one who was in attendance at the services, "the reason of this remarkable tribute is quite self evident. Has not Mrs. Booth laid the whole globe under tribute? Are not the impulses of her glorious life at this moment permeating and leavening human lives in every clime? And, like the ever-widening circles created by a single object upon the surface of a lake, shall the sweet and holy influences of this sainted dead widen and extend till they compass eternity's shore!"

PARISIAN BALM.

A delightful perfume prepared for Chapped Hands, Cracked Lips and Roughness of the Skin. Only 25c at all druggists.

Editor Standard:

Your correspondent of last week, who signed himself "Agitator," has opened a subject of discussion which it will be well for the citizens of Markdale and the surrounding country to give their best consideration. His arguments for a cross country railway are unanswerable and whoever he may be, he deserves the thanks of the community for the able manner in which he has handled the subject. The railway he advocates would give us all the advantages of railway competition which we require and would no doubt have a tendancy to cause the Messrs. Moffat, who are our principal employers of labor at present, to re-consider their determination to seek a place at which they would be able to get better rates of transportation for their raw material and manufactured goods and in addition would bring more manufacturers to our town and thereby benefit it materially. We are all aware that Markdale is geographically situated in such a position in regard to the neighboring towns that it will always have the commodities of a large tract of country to handle and it rests with ourselves to make it the principal inland town of Northern Grey. One of its drawbacks at present is that we have not a sufficient population to use the small wares of the farmers—such as apples, potatoes, etc.—on whom we are dependent for support and consequently they have to seek other markets for the same thereby taking trade to those places which legitimately belongs to ourselves. To increase our population we therefore must be the object of all true citizens of Markdale and any object which will tend in that direction should receive our united support financially and otherwise. The introduction of manufacturing industries is generally recognized as the greatest boom a town can have to that end, and cheap transportation is always looked on by manufacturers as the principal inducement for starting business in a place. The cross country railway mentioned by "Agitator" in my opinion answers the purposes of competition and as a result gives cheap transportation by tapping both the leading railways at many points and having the C. P. R. on our own town with which to compete. Our new school house shows a determination to advance in the line of Education and by the results of the late examinations I am sure that our population will not suffer on that ground if the same careful, painstaking and scholarly teachers as we have at present are engaged at all times. We next want more manufacturers and in order to get them we must be stirring and to that end let every citizen who has any proposal to offer give it to us through your columns which I am happy to say are always open for the advancement of the material interests of the village.

Yours truly,

ADVANCEMENT.

WALTER'S FALLS.

"Epistolarum Commercium."

The Social season is commencing in spite of the bad roads. A Social in connection with Ebenezer Methodist Church will be held in the house of Mr. Wm. Rennie, 11th line Euphrasia, on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Howey of Thornbury visited at Mr. R. Olmstead's this week.

Our wagon maker, Mr. J. Findlay, is home again and will doubtless be glad to see some of his old patrons call around.

Mr. Harkness, of the Sydenham Fire Insurance Co., was here last week valuing the damage done recently to the house of Mr. C. Fox.

Mr. Byron Smith has moved back to his farm in the vicinity of the village. He has been away about a year, part of which time he spent in Markdale and part on a farm near Meaford.

Mr. Wm. Mann has been erecting a new fence between his own lot and that owned by Mrs. T. Walter. The fence is both neat and substantial.

The first annual meeting of the Walter's Falls Branch of the Upper Canada Bible Society will be held in the Methodist Church here on Thursday evening the 20th inst. Rev. R. M. Croll, agent of the society, will deliver a lecture, and all the ministers of the adjoining congregations are expected to be present. The Society here has had an encouraging degree of prosperity during the past year and it is to be hoped that the weather may prove favorable on the 20th and that a large number of people may show their interest in this work by being present at the meeting.

The state of the roads in this part of the country is now deplorable. To say that they are muddy is to convey but a faint idea of their true condition. In many places travellers drive in the ditch or on the side of the road, choosing rather to run the risk of upsetting than to venture into the slough where the road ought to be. Surely this county has now reached a stage when it is only reasonable to to expect passable roads at every season of the year and in every kind of weather. One reason why our roads are not much more improved than they are is because our present system of statute labor is in many cases a mere farce, the time is "put in" but the work is done in a very unsatisfactory way. Who will be the first to agitate a reform in this line? We undertake to say that if some aspirant for municipal honors will take for his "platform"—direct taxation for road improvements instead of the present system—his election will amount to a certainty. Free discussion on the question will do good in the meantime. Let us bear in mind that money spent on bettering the condition of our highways is really money saved. Bad roads cause loss of time, extra wear and tear of harness and vehicles, to say nothing of the severe strain put upon the exasperated traveller's nervous system.

A Free Home.

A cottage worth $750 will be erected, or its equivalent in cash will be given to the person detecting the greatest number of typographical errors in the December issue of our monthly journal entitled "OUR HOMES." Three hundred and fifty additional cash prizes, amounting to $2,500, will also be awarded in the order mentioned in rules governing competition. Prizes payable at par in any part of Canada or the United States. Send 15c in stamps, for complete rules and sample copy of "Our Homes," which will be issued about Nov. 20th.

TRAVERSTON.

Standard Correspondence.

George Smith, of Guelph, is spending a few days with his bachelor brother Tom. If he had waited till Xmas he would have received a more home-like greeting.

Miss Jennie Cook returned to the city last week, carrying with her the tender good-byes of more than one.

Sam. Jack took Dakota fever the other day, and wishing us all a merry winter, he sped.

Tom Noon built M. J. Davis a fancy root house lately, for which M. J. is highly grateful.

Mrs. W. McNally is visiting her two daughters at Detroit. Mc. is going to have a surprise for his wife when she comes back, by building a large horse stable while she is away.

Mrs. E. Hunt is enjoying her holidays among friends at Brant.

Will. Fallace and his blushing bride have returned home from a trip down the country.

Miss Polly Edge has gone to visit her sister, Mrs. F. Tufts, of Detroit.

We are sorry to hear of the sad accident which befell T. McAssey lately. Two of his fingers being taken off by his thresher.

James McNally is going to have a big raffle on Friday night. We anticipate such personal results that we invite your Walter's Falls scribe down to a Xmas dinner.

In passing by the old play-ground of our youth the other day we yielded to our inclination and went into the grounds of School No. 5. We were glad to see so many improvements made of late years; it shows the interest parents are taking in their children; but still, as we lingered, we noticed that the wall needed banking up, and that a few loads of gravel would make a clean walk from the gate to the school; also, how convenient a wood shed would be, and the costs would be very little compared with the benefit our children would derive, both morally and mentally.

A young couple have got into a very bad habit of taking up in bed till a very late hour. The old gent complains bitterly; but, to keep the current smoothe, our young gallant muffles the clock as soon as the old man has gone to bed, and since then all is peace.

Standard Correspondence.

Any amount of mud, some snow, a little frost and a quantity of rain form enough information to show the condition of the road at present.

On Thanksgiving day a few of our villagers attended service also the tea-meeting at Flesherton. They report having a good time. A party was held at Mr. Williams' on that evening also.

Mr. Williams shipped a quantity of butter to Port Arthur last Saturday.

On account of the unfavorable condition of the roads and also of the weather there was no service in the Presbyterian Church last Sunday.

Mr. Brownridge had his house repaired lately.

We thought we were not going to hear from the steam thresher again this year, but made a mistake as Ingster threshed for Field and Preston lately.

Mr. George Gray, one of our tailors, intends moving to McIntyre shortly.

The Rev. Brown's sister-in-law is a guest at the parsonage.

Dr. Kerr and wife have been visiting friends in and around Maxwell. They seem to enjoy a trip to their "Native Village."

When correspondents are no more,
And Editors are scarce;
Then might be said with them of yore,
The quill is but a farce.

Then let us now improve the time,
And weep and work together;
For everything will not be fine,
So do not stop for weather.

Our teacher is engaged here for another year and no one is sorry.

The baying of the hound, the noise of the discharge of the rifle and the whistle of the hunter form the chief part of the music just at present When the boys come home the questions come thick and fast. The first question being. "Johny did you shoot yourself to-day."

DUNDALK.

Standard Correspondence.

A very successful Fowl Supper and entertainment was held in Victoria Hall on the evening of Thanksgiving Day, under the auspices of the ladies of the Methodist church. Speeches were given by Revs. Hudson and Bielby, and a most excellent program of music by the choir, which elicited considerable applause and numerous encores; proceeds $44.75.

Monday evening was pleasantly spent at the residence of Jas. Calhoun, Esq., at a Social.

Incendiary fires have been frequent between here and Corbetton recently. On Wednesday night of last week Broughton's barn was burned. On Thursday Irwin's was fired, but the flames were put out before much damage was done, but on Saturday night the same barn was fired and burned down. Suspicion rests on a certain individual, and more may be heard thereof.

A trial took place before our J. P. on Saturday. The charge was against Mrs. Loyd, of Osprey, for assault. The case grew out of a trouble that occurred some time ago, when Adairs, the plaintiffs, were taking some horses to the pound. Mrs. L. interfered, and the result was the horses were taken from the would-be-pounders This part of the case is now pending in the Division Court. For the assault, the lady was fined $1, and costs about $17.75.

Rev. A. Corbett exchanged pulpits with Rev. Bray, of Markdale, last Sabbath.

MEAFORD ROAD.

Standard Correspondence.

As noticed in your columns last week: the most startling event that has occurred here for some time was the sudden and unexpected demise of Mr. Stambuskie.

Our School Trustees have advertised for a new teacher, in consequence of the resignation of Miss Ford.

After the short winter we have had those who had their root crops still to harvest are bestirring themselves with alacrity being afraid of a sudden return of the beautiful snow.

Mr. W. Heath's flock of sheep were visited by dogs last week, and one of the number killed.

This is the season of the year to
