foot of a steep sandbank. Had we possessed a sledge we might have done some tobogan BY A RESIDENT. ing. As it was, we looked about for Alpen-Whilst the fashionables of our cities crov one gaiety on another through the winter season, dwellers in remote and quiet countries have to make amusement for themselves of equally pleasant if less exciting kind; and the winter is also our "season" in the Bahamas. On pleasure bent, we-Island, one of the nearest and prettiest of dued green light, making it look like the to the care of the steward and an old hunthe "out islands" such being the lofty way New Providence talks of its neighbors, although, as a rule, larger and more fertile than itself. But then Nassau our Canadian sisters of getting upon a C. P. Spit Sands, with its white, sandy, cliff-like the tower, where he had a wide view of art. I always stand squarely on my legs. I a new light upon the question. The action their distinction by firing a gun. On Tuesday they disperse again for their various bournes, carrying with them the English mail, and usually stores of all can help on many a leisure hour; and of ex sort for island use. Our letters secured, cursions there are plenty by sea, for which we boarded the Dart of Harbour Island, a the kindly inhabitants are always ready to clean, trim, little vessel of thirty-five tons; lend a boat butter were served The sail is the quickest part of the expedi- her name and how he might aid her she Great Bear in these latitudes every effort of the road-maker. But the are kind and will help me. theless, at nine o'clock we withdrew. Over surges up the miseries of night we draw a veil; yet, in tice to the Door, be it said her berths are large, clean, and as comfortable as can be ex-The sea is a good school for early rising through the window from the chasms below. the outer sea, and the light blue of the inner basin, you forget that the sea is treachtried ham, coffee, and bread and butter, was to Bay and the old-time boat-races, of Cana dian crowds and eager shouts and eager faces. Canadian March, nor was ever Canadian PRETTY LITTLE SETTLEMENT, footpath at its roughest guilty of such wear and tear to shoe-leather as left one of our wante water (that is, shallow | party almost soleless on ther return home. re we were bailed by a New Yorkwhich are said to rival those of Matanzas merived the idea of spending the with stalactites and stalagmites for ornewhet like one of the | ward-bound schooner City of Nassan bouttones, probling his own canoe, and With no wind and a chopping tide, scener and blue waters soon lost their charm. dawn dropped anchor once more in Nassau on islets scattered about the that in sailing to Harbour Island one cared be easient of land. As we a troop Specials Wells, the large island of the there was shootly on our right. We as possible. You know the defendant ?"

we came to a rough piece of deep east is wand being too strong to allow us to constator and shelter ourselves by the land it is to mel a corner, making our Last tack, and had can elves in the spacious know nothing to the credit of either of 'em her bought one which the island takes its name, and wan be well at held a theet easily. Harbour Elenther of low and row, emicircular strip tions of land, and hat worker "cars to the west. as some gathermes of the inhabitants was of comese on the in the pres for the great event of the actival of the food. A resecockatoo an and enflowed per cover, which had alas an old friend and we were not some to find ourselve on the new and mour hired ful of water.

with sand, toil

TT A SHORT ASCENT.

least thought a man who had the luck to land is simple sand; nothing but cocoa-nuts year old steer, ask " Ask Josh Bagg about that uncle of hi to my steps that ched in the penitentiary out West, Ask the porchouse. Ask latsey about putting big brick into a lot of butter she sold las manufaction of the land toust "Madam, I tell you "See if Josh Bagg knows anything about the what | feeding ten head of cattle all the salt they We arturned home I would eat and then letting them swill down all the water they could hold just fore he's got to say to that chines have not yet ustable shed a footing in and I don't think

"What questions?"

"That has nothing to do with the case" "Then there was off, Azrael Bagg, ow upcle to Josh, got rid out of his native town di a rail tween two days, and Betsey Bagg's own brother got ketchedin a neighbor's henhouse at midnight. Ask Josh the Bahamas, An enterprising P. Secretary " Madam, what do you know about thi once planted two on the beach of Fort Montager. Nassau : but they stuck high and dry "I don't know the first livin thing bout on the sand, and finally fell to pieces from t, but I'll bet Josh Bagg is guilty, whatever heer neglect. Our bathing costumes were threatened with the same fate; and our daily ablutions had to be performed in a thimble grudge for the last fifteen year and I got my self called up as a witness on purpose to get It is a pretty sight in the early morning even with em, and I feel I ve done it. Goodto see all the little boats hoist sail and skim | bye. '- [Detroit Free Press. over the harbour to the neighboring mainland of Elenthera. The soil of Harbour Is

Chinese Newspapers.

A funny, turned-aro; and and twisted kind can grow in it. All cultivation of vegetables ! of people are the Chinamen, somany of whom again and fruit is carried on at Eleuthera, where, by old legislation, a grant of land live on the western shores of our great counwas made to the inhabitants of Har- try. They seem to be our opposites in albour Island. Three thousand acres of this most everything, and whenever they do copy in a language which Fridolin could per- with Mrs. Elliot, who survived her husband land they are now desirous of selling to some one of our customs, they do it in such an up feetly understand, said : English capitalist for growing manila. I side-down way that it is as queer as ever. said only cocoa unts throve on Harbour Island: I withdraw those words. We never paper would be like? It seems odd, doesn't boat, and I was lost on your shore, you living, and on being informed that she was, saw timer or more healthy looking sisal than it, that people who are two or three hun beeded my cry for help, and cared for me begged to be allowed to see her. He was here, where the sandy soil exactly suits it ; dred years behind us in everything else until the black stork found the veil, and I given an interview and turned out to be one and where, after being abused, Ill-treated, should care anything about so modern a was able to return to my home and friends. of the former slaves, who had taken advancut and burnt, young plants are now sold thing as a newspaper? But they have them I have now come to take you to my father's tage of the emancipation act and gone out in at stypence, ninepence, and a shilling a and funny affairs they are. There are two beautiful castle on the Floating Island, the world to seek his fortune, but the mem-Harbour Island looks a large place from of them is called the Wa-Kee, the other will be forgotten. the sea; its gray wooden houses are cluster. the Ton-Fon-Son-Bo. But if you think they The silver veil was again spread over the that he might end his days there. His prayer ed along the southern shore, raised on posts are printed with type and big roller presses, bow of the boat, and the vessel glided away, was granted, and the old man remained two feet from the ground, the vacant space you are decidedly mistaken. Such a process carrying the orphan to a land of flowers with Mrs. Elliot till he died. a shelter for fowls and goats. The church would be made too quick and American for and music. shows well on a rising ground with its John Chinamen. Tee Jen, the editor of pretty bell tower pointing upwards. Wa-Kee, works from daylight till long after The tasteful carving, painting, and ar- dark painting the funny Chinese characters on rangement of the sanctuary are entirely the sheets of thin paper about the size of handiwork of the rector of St. John's Church. foolscap. These are given to a lithographer. Above the church three casuarina trees shel- who transfers them to stone by means for the rectory; a long narrow wooden build- acids, etc., and when four of them have been ing alongside is the Sunday School; and two thus prepared, they are put into a- quee smaller ones at a little distance are day wooden press that works with a screw schools for boys and girls. We have now something like a letter-press, and runs enreached the middle of the island-just a tirely by man power, something like th and hear the booming of first printing presses invented, and used the ocean on the northern beach. We dip Europe four hundred years ago. The nan down a manila-lined path, filling our shoes; of the paper appears on the last page, the readers start from that and read towar the front. Neither of the papers are either agricultural, political, or religious, but each and are on some hummocks covered with has a Letter and Answer department, and before us, a vast stretch of firm the rest of the space is given up to news. dry sands, the racecourse of the island, with John Chinaman is so economical that he had the loveliest of seas and the most refreshing a great deal rather borrow his neighbor's St. Helens. When she came to look at the for this reason the circulation of the Chinese beach is generally covered with masses of newspapers isn't very large. One of them gulf-weed, unpleasant for walking; but prints 750 copies, which it takes the printe

But though only half a mile wide, Har think their way is the best. bour Island extends from east to west three Its chief feature is the abundance Measurements taken in the crypt of West- later the parcel was again looked at, and a of coca-unt groves, cool shady retreats, the sup ght glinting on the rich coloured, glossy, minster Abbey show that there still remain | coloured union shirt, like those worn by dre ping leaves; tempting one to lounge unoccupied resting places for at least 90 sailors, became the next object of observabook in hand many a sultry hour. We took distinguished persons. Probably the next tion, and no little additional disgust. This, a pleasant walk to one westward along the to go beneath the honored slabs will be however, soon gave way to surprise, for in hummocks, the hollows of which were car. Alfred Tennyson. The poet laureate is sure the centre she found three small leather bags, peted with the wild white ribbon lily. Two of that distinction, unless by his own wish, two of which contained 20 sovereigns each ends of a rainlow we visible over the sea : he chooses to be buried elsewhere. Wheth- and the other contained 10 sovereigns. With by degrees the per' c arch disclosed itself, er room for William E. Gladstone would be commendable promptitude the young lady and behind it an a vancing shower. The reserved by the governing body, it is con- informed Chief-Constable Wood, and that rainbow had the ap carance of quickly walk- jecture to say in the light of the present gentleman at once placed himself in comir over the water, and as it touched the state of feeling toward the great commoner, munication with the Lime Street Station shore, down came the rain. Fortunately, whose espousal of the cause of home rule has officials. Inquiries were made, and on Tueswe were not far from shelter; a little shed, alienated the favor of the aristocratic ele- day afternoon the £50 and the mysterious to which distance had lent the appearance ments for his countrymen. Should be wrapper reached Lime Street Station, and of a chalet, was our goal. To this we survive a few years, however, he will prob- the parcel belonging to the young lady was histened; and though raised at least three ably have won them all over to his side of despatched to her at St. Helens. t from the ground, and guiltless of steps, we vaulted into it with an agility which surprised ourselves. The rain over, we of the whole people.

city daily papers print a hundred thousand there is compensation in all things; so at three days to print. Many of the great light on a piece of ambergris entangled and more in an hour. This is the way we

The Floating Island.

descended into the cocoa-nut grove, at the dry grass is enjoyment indeed.

an excellent one for

SO REMOTE A PLACE,

HOILING AND RUSHING

Eleuthera boasts also extensive caves

Getting Even With the Bagg Family.

"The defendant-Mr. Joshua Bagg?"

"Do you know Mr. Joshua Bagg?"

mile ! You ask Josh Bagg if he knows me

A long time ago, when dense, wild forests guide supplied us, robbing our host hunting castle, an old man with his wife and rain is not so captivating as the same grove spent several weeks hunting deer and other some men have become good shots and fairy tales of childhood. To sit in the cocos | ter.

sent from Fridolin's mind, and he spent that will be helpful to beginners: This is only one of many pleasant walks many hours on the shore of the lake, vainly "The first thing for a man to learn when paralysis or death. During the last ten years which this small but pretty island affords.

Barrack Hill, with its winding walks and When not on the shore, Fridolin could must learn how to stand. This is one of the periments upon rabbits, with the electric clumps of bush, like an English common; almost always be found on the balcony of most important things connected with the spark of a huge Leyden jar, and had thrown banks, a miniature Dover; and the Tract, both the forest and the water. As he sat brace myself with my feet about twenty of lightning upon the brain, the spinal colwith goves of sappadillo, laden with fruit here one warm July day, allowing his gaze inches apart. I stand as I would if I ex- umn and the peripheric nerves is shown spent in worse places than Harbour Island tance what, at first sight, seemed to be a try and throw me to the ground. I do not of the intellect and the extended by those who can recognize in their neigh- fisher's boat; but as the object came nearer, face the target, but stand so that my bour "a man and a brother." The library, it glittered and shone as if made of gold and side is nearest to the bull's eye. When I iewels. Fridolin hastily left the tower and take aim I turn my body above the waist. ran to the shore, and having untied his boat That is all. was soon rowing with all speed toward the waves, and was constantly coming nearer. the rifle.

all our wraps as we tion, followed on landing by a two-mile shook her head sadly as if to say: "I canwatching the brilliant walk over honeycomb rock which defies not understand you; but I know that you "After you have taken aim, pull the trig stands on its tail, like a huge mark of inter sight repays the labour. The Glass Window Fridolin then led the little fairy, as he the interest in astronomy was is a large rectangular span worn by the called her, to his parents who were greatly move and put all your muscle into the movegreat; in vain the captain suggested the cab- action of the sea through a mass of honey- astonished, and took every care of the little in might be warmer. Who that has once comb rock, giving the effect of a large win- stranger. The old hunter, who was present slept in the cabin of an island schooner is dow. There is some amount of danger at said: "She is from the Floating Island, end. After a while you will find that you

> But as you look at the dark-blue waters of look of sorrow, which was seldom absent pleasure. from her fair face. He showed her where " Now as to the way to shoot. You children had climbed the dark, narrow stairs saw, flying near them, a large black stork, his gun at anything but the bull's-eye. which seemed anxious to attract their atten-On and, stretched her arms toward the bird, lose your nerve. Besides that, looking which the little girl made, it flew away week. That is enough for the ordinary > across the lake. Fridolin looked on in wonder, and was "In early practice a rifle of .22 caliber i "Now, madam," said the attorney for the of sorrow to be seen, her large blue eyes defendant to a little, wiry, black-eyed, fid- beamed with hope, and a bright smile gety woman who had been summoned as a played over her beautiful face. In the witness in a breach of peace case, "you will meantime a great storm arose, the wind please give in your testimony in as few words | blew furiously, and the waves rolled higher and higher, while the rain fell in torrents. "We must go down," said Fridolin, " or we shall be drenched, and then mother will "Jos Bygg I guess I do know him, and | scold I knowed his daddy afore him, and I don't and remained standing with her gaze fixed on the water. Suddenly through the storm "We don't want to know what you think, and rain a white cloud was seen, which I hand that manifeland, almost encircled by madam. Please say 'yes' or 'no' to my ques proved to be a silver veil carried by the stork. The bird flew swiftly toward the tower and dropped the veil on the balcony. Hastily seizing it, the little girl ran down "Don't I know im, though? Well, I should the stairs so quickly that Fridolin could scarcely follow, and running to the shore Ask him if he knows anything bout tryin sprang into her little boat, and, having to cheat a pore widder like me out of a two spread the livery gauze over the bow, sh was carried by the waves out into the lake. Fridolin locked on as one bewitched, and it "Ask him whose land he got his cord wood | was not until she waved good-by that he the last spring and why he hanled it in the thought of detaining her, and then he called night Ask his wife, Betsey Bagg, it she and begged that she would return, but knows anything about slippin into a neight vain. For a long time the boy stood on the of North and plant a square the them bor's paster lot and milking three cows on shore and watched the little boat gliding over the waves. He could see the long, golden hair floating in the wind, and the Tair, white hand waving farewell.

parents, who loved him so devotedly, sick- retreat, accused him of treachery, and would ened and died, and the charge of the castle have shot him on the spot but for the interwas given to another. The old hunter to o vention of Matthew Elliot. Col. Elliot was was taken away, and Fridolin was left al- also a friend of Commodore Barclay, whor most without friends. An uncle, living in a he tried to lissuade in the unprepared con distant city, far from the beautiful lake, dition of his fleet-from sailing to his dis took the orphan to his home; but Fridolin astrons meeting with Commodore Perry in was not happy here, for he pined for the the famous battle at Put-in-Bay. old, free life in the forest and for his home | As member for Essex, Col. Elliot was re After several years, the uncle took 1801 to 1812, and dying shortly after the Fridolin for a visit to his old home. The battle of Queenstown heights, was buried a

it is. The fact is, I've owed them Baggses a delighted boy sought again the old tower, that place. Col. Elliot found the tract which and as he looked once more over the water, he took up along the Detroit River an unr he was sure that he saw the little pearl claimed wilderness. With the slives, about boat, and in it the little girl, whom he had sixty in number, that he brought from "ole called Fairy. Running to the shore, he Virginny," he cleared the land, tilled it, an but a short time to stay. My uncle will climate which demanded other crops than soon come for me, and then I must go away that of the Virginia product. In a moment the boat had touched the many of the black people still preferred

What should you think a Chinese news silver veil, which served as a guide to my day inquiring if Mrs. Col. Elliot was still of them published in San Francisco. One where you will be happy, and all troubles ory of the old plantation still haunted him

The Lady and the Mysterious Parcel. a small brown paper parcel, which contained several yards of cretonne. The couple ghostly fleets of departing vessels, which then went to "look round" the city, and had warned of impending disaster. on reaching Lime Street in time to catch the 10.50 train to St. Helens, Mr-took the ticket, and presenting it at the cloakroom window received what he then believed to be the parcel deposited by the young three weeks ago, and at midnight left th lady earlier in the day. The parcel was city by train. On the following day he re-exterior of the parcel she became apprehensive that there was something wrong, and on taking the brown paper partially off she came upon an old Liverpool newsdirty cotton pocket handkerchief was extherein—a find of some thirty pounds value. beat Chinamen in everything, and still they further she dropped the parcel on the floor, and, rumour says, gave it a hearty kick, and sent it flying into a corner. A little

How to be a Good Shot.

A boy, if he amounts to anything, wants | Mow it is sa to do well at whatever he goes into. Mo boys want to do more than that, they want enjoy the coca-nut water with which our lived, as a steward, in an old, dilapidated for it. There is nothing that most boys are lited to his hearens a young woman, aged more anxious to do well than to handle a 20. Josepha Schlessler, who had down his machete (bush-knife) from our to whom the castle belonged had been very to be among the best shots in the country, had come to Vienna for treatment in Prof.

"After having got a good style in stand-

But no one was to be seen in the strange "Every man has his own way of holding and may remain for life or may in part disboat, and when but a few steps away Frid- the rifle when he takes aim. Some men sup- appear. In other cases there may be observ-Three Islands is the popular spot for pic- olin rose to his feet to gain a better view, port the barrel almost at arm's length. ed in the person struck a childish frame of nics, an easy distance for a hot country. he saw lying fast asleep in a boat made of Others hunch their backs up and screw mind, which may incline either to reckless to another cocoa-nut grove and shell-strewn gems, a little girl with long, golden hair and early in my practice that I could do the best perience proves that lightining produces its gold piece, a marvel of beauty in design at The Glass Window is the great sight of tears. Fridolin knew that the little stranger and faces a stiff wind he will find that he refer to cross the bar Eleuthera. One of the clergy was going to was in great trouble and he wanted much to needs more support than that. Never praction better results than the electric treatment nervine, without alcohol. breeze of the ocean. the Cove hard by, and kindly combined help her. But he discovered that his lan- tice in the gallery what you do not intend office -without milk - and duty and pleasure by taking us in tow. guage was new to her; for when he asked to follow out of doors. That is a rule that you will do well to cut out and paste in your

ger. Don't give it a jerk. Don't think that you have a twenty pound weight to ment. Make a steady, continuous pressure, no harder at the beginning than at the ever in haste to repeat the experience! Never- the place, as a sudden wave sometimes and has been carried by the waves to our can throw your rifle directly in range with out a consciouseffort and can shoot for hours Fridolin was delighted with his new com- together without getting tired. When you panion, and in every way tried to banish the have reached this point shooting becomes a the baby show.

the sweetest strawberries grew, gathered into a shooting gallery and you can tell at a for her the choicest flowers, and spent many glance who among the men who are there hours with her rowing about in his little are experienced shots. You will see a man Although Fairy, as everyone now pick his gun up carelessly and load it and In a few hours we were off Spanish Wells, a But no. This hot sun cannot belong to an called her, ceased weeping and seemed grate- cock it and point it at some other man, to ful for the kindness of her friends, yet she never spoke, except in a strange tongue, and seemed always to have a great grief. She seemed always to have a great grief. She was not contented when on the shore with An old shot is caeful. He knows that it i Fridolin, or up in thecastle tower overlook- the 'unloaded' gun that always kills some ing the water. One day, when the two one. He never points an empty rifle such a fuss about its size; just wait till the even at a man. The muzzle of his gun and were standing on the ivy-covered bal- never points at any one. He never loads of conv they heard a loud clapping sound, and until he faces the target. He never aims "At the beginning don't try to do too tion. The litt'e girl clapped her hands for joy much. You will only tire yourself out and Length to proceed, the captain had and on we glided, scarcely moving, with which flew nearer and hovered about as if the target over the sights will injure your sails full set, "a painted ship on a painted fine gold chain from her neck and held it to are able to get through with comfortably. hours later than our reckoning - the schooner | the stork, which took it in its bill, and, hav- I would not advise a man to shoot over five crossed the bar, and the stillness of early ing watched attentively the strange signs scores (fifty shots) two or more times a > delighted to see the change in his com pan heavy enough. Later on a man can take up ion's face. There was no longer any trace the .38 Ballard or Winchester. As to sights the peep and globe is the easiest for lon range, say 200 yards. With that sight th marksman has only the bull's eye and the pin head in the globe to watch. After shooting, the rifle should be care fully cleaned, first with a wet piece of canton flannel, then with a dry piece until it comes out as clean as when it went into the barrel. Then an oiled rag should be used

But Fairy paid no heed to his entreaties, both inside the barrel and around the loc Too much oil, however, should not be used Relics of Slavery In Canada. Strange as it may seem, it is neverthe ess true that the "peculiar institution, negro slavery, had a toothold in Canada as late as 1834. The little town of Amberstburg.

on the Detroit River, was one of the spotwhere it flourished longest. Still standing are to be seen the buildings known as the slave quarters of Col. Elliot. This gentleman had a stirring history. He was a native of Ireland, who settled in Vi ginia, where he owned a plantation in the early colonial days. During the revolution he joined the British forces, served hathfully and was several times wounded. On the re- fairness with which these Bible Competi cognition of American independence, he tions have been conducted. came, in 1784, to Upper Canada, took up a And now Fridolin's quiet life seemed large tract of land, bordering on the Detroit cisive. It will remain open only till the fire for hours, till it is of a light brown colormore londy than before, and he wept bit River, one mile below Amherstburg, and 15th day of December inclusive. terly at the thought of never again seeing transplanted the Virginia institution, slavery The questions are as follows :- Where the beautiful fairy. Yet he still hoped that and its accompaniments to Canadian soil. The Bible are thefollowing words first found the Pleating Island would approach their He was the first superintendent of Indian I HEM, 2 ROBE, 3 GARMEST. shore, and that Fairy would come to his affairs in the western district, retaining his To the first person sending in the correct | salt, and a little cavenne, well mixed. Have Received up to December . h. home. But the months came and went, and rank of colonel and serving in the war of answer to these questions will be given in although Fridolin spent all his leisure hours 1812. An intimate friend of Gen. Proctor, her one of these rewards—the Piano. on or near the water, he gained no sight of he saved the life of the latter at Moravian - | the next person, the $100.00 in cas the farry boat, nor of the Island. Great town by throwing up the rifle of Tecumseh, and so on till all these rewards are given driv them into town and sold em. See what trouble now came to the boy. His dear | who, exasperated at Proctor's contemplated away.

turned for three Parliaments extending from taught his small black army how to raise "Fairy, Fairy, come quickly; for I have something beside cotton in the new soil and After the emancipation proclamation, sandy shore, the little girl sprang out, and remain at the old quarters, Elliot's Point for several years. A grandson of the colonel's "When the cruel wind carried away the remembers how, in 1859, a negro came one through the years, and he drifted back to beg The old buildings at the "Point," where On Saturday afternoon a young St. Helens when the river is calm and placid, and even lady paid a visit to Liverpool, in company the twitter of the birds is still, it seems one

labored and sang the slaves, are fast falling into decay, and becoming but picturesque memories of the past; but yet, at nightfall with a maie friend, and after visiting one of can yet hear, floating over the old quarters, the drapery establishments for which the the weird strains of plantation melodies, or city is so famous, she returned to Lime Street | see the wraith of the brave, clear-heade Station and deposited in the cloak-room colonel, with erect, military bearing, look ing over his domain, or dreamily watching

A wandering Spaniard arrived in Odessa from Constantinople late one afternoon abou placed in the carriage, and duly carried to turned, hurried through the streets and squares like mad, and at midnight again d parted. He repeated this curious behavio once more, and has not been seen in Odess since. At Moscow and St. Petersburg didas he had done in Odessa, and in response paper, dated 1888. This being removed, a cities, laid before them, with proofs, the details of his recent life. He is Don Dorea Assento, a Spanish grande and millionaire who began suffering from insomnia seven year ago. After trying all other remedies, he wa advised by his physician to travel. He began and has not been able to stop. Only in rail way carriages, in omnibuses, or in steamship can he find rest. He has not been in an o six years. Every night he charters a railway in a vacht or steamship. He has been almost rival establishment across the way, but over

ACTION OF LIGHTAING.

A Vienna paper states that Prof. Nothstocks. It was almost too cold and damp to stood where we now find busy cities, there, to be first, but are not always willing to work magel, in one of his clinical lectures, exhibwith his own tools, for we had brought son, little Fridolin. The tather of the Count gun. Now, if some of our boys are anxious cently struck by lightning in Styria, and shelter. A cocoa-nut grove dripping with fond of the chase, and every autumn he there is no better way than to find out how Nothnagel's hospital. The patient suffered to from a derangement of the nervous system. on a hot sunny day, the long leaves swaying wild game; but the present Count did not follow their advice to the letter. Mr Zim- To his remarks on the case the lecturer with every breath of wind, and a soft sub- enjoy such sport, and left the castle entirely merman, one of the greatest modern riflemen, added a discourse on the effects of lightwon in two continents, was talking with a was known merely that the burns occa- Peter to pay up all? nut groves on a fallen trunk or on the soft The thought of this island was seldom ebthat the further consequences might be for passing hand to pluck. Life might be to wander over the lake, he saw in the disnomena of lameness, the latter of which have a tendency to disappear. On the other hand, there are intense nervous phenomen. which strongly resemble those produced 1 railway accidents and other concussions, an tiny craft, which rocked so gently in the ing the beginner must next learn how to hold which dominate the patient for a long time Disturbances of sight and speech often occur, recently adopted. In case of a quite recent stroke, the clothing should be unfastened, the patient laid with the headhigh, quietnessand

> No Encouragement for Twins. "Don't you give any premiums for twins fresh air should be secured, and, if consciousness does not return, the head should be ex posed to a stream of cold water.

asked the anxious looking man who edged his way through the crowd in front of the railing behind which sat the judges at "No my friend," replied one of them We thought it best not to offer premiun for twins. Here is the premium list. You looking inquirer, edging his way out of the with the famous remedy.

Husband-"Why, what in the world did Of the Lubon Medical Company is now ou get such a bit of a bonnet as that for?" Wife-"Well, now, don't go to making sulted either in person or by letter on al "Answer me, Clara," he said in a mo- are broken down from exces ment of passion; "I can bear this suspense resulting in many of the following symp in the hall, thinking of the gas and coal bills dreams, dimness of sight, palpitation of the and a Panoramic picture in colors, ten feet in "I can bear this expense no longer." The children of Israel thought it a great kidneys, headache, pimples on the face or Sold only by subscription. Exclusive territory hardship to be compelled to make bricks body, itching or peculiar sensation about the Publisher, Toronto. Ont. without straw, but no one thinks of putting scrotum, wasting of the organs, dizziness, straw in bricks nowadays. An Italian barber in Montreal having muscles, eye lids and elsewhere, bashfulness, married a Polish girl now makes her to stand deposits in the urine, loss of will power, in front of his shop all day as a sign. She is tenderness of the scalp and spine, weak and who takes with a smile the world's praise or hearing, loss of voice, desire for solitude, ex- 25 Ceuts a Box.

NO. 26.

straight on with the work he has in hand

Sarah K. Bolton.

The Old Reliable again to th fore. A splendid list of Rewards.

Competition Number Twenty Six opens low at the solicitation of thousands of the ob triends and competitors in former contests The Editor of THE LADIES' JOURNAL has nearly forty thousand testimonials as to the and the remaining half of the liver. Take This competition is to be short and de

FIRST REWARDS. First one, an Elegant Upright Piano by celebrated Canadian Firm... ext lifteen, each a superbly bound Teach er's Bible, $3 Next seven, each a Gentleman's Fine Gold Open Face Watch, good movement 569 Next cleven, each a Fine Quadruple Plate Individual Salt and Pepper Cruet Next five, each a beautiful Quadruple Silver Plated Tea Service (1 pieces) $40... Next one, Twenty Dollars in cash... Vext five, an elegant China Dinner Service of 101 pieces.....

150 takes possession of the palate. The eater Next five, each a fine French China Tea Service of 68 pieces..... ext seventeen, each a complete set of George Ediot's works, bound in cloth, Next seven, each a Ladies' Fine Gold Open Face or Hunting Case Watch, $30 MIDDLE REWARDS

To the person sending the middle correct ast will be given the fifty dollars in cash. he sender of the next correct answer following | why he has ceased to eat, and continues t the middle will be given one of the ten dollar amounts, and so on till all the middle rewards First, Fifty dollars in cash..... Next five, each $10 in cash..... Next three, each a fine Family Sewing Machine, $50 ext five, each a Ladies' Fine Gold

Watch, $50 Next ten, eich a Fine Triple Silver Plated Tea Set, (4 pieces) $50. Next twenty-one, each a set of Dickens Works, Beautifully bound in Cloth, 10 Next five an elegant China Dinner Service Stonier, Harnley, England. Next five, each a fine French China Tea Service, of 68 pieces, specially imported. $40. Next seventeen, each a complete set George Eliot's works bound in cloth. Next eighteen, each a handsome Silver Plated Sugar Bowl, $5..... Next five, each a Ladies' Fine Go Watch, $50,

Next fifty-five, each a handsome long Silver Plated Button Hook..... CONSOLATION REWARDS. above rewards the following special list offered, as far as they will go. To the sender of the last correct answer received at Ladies JOURNAL office postmarked 15th December or earlier, will be given number one of these concolation prizes, to the next to the last, number two, and so on till these rewards are all given

First one, One Hundred Dollars in cash... $100 Next fifteen, each a superbly bound Family Bible, beautifully illustraced, usually Next seven, each a Gentleman's Fine Gold Open Face Watch, good movements $60 Next nineteen, each a Set of a Dozen Ten Knives, heavily plated, $10..... Next five, each a Ladies' Fine Gold Watch Next ffteen, each a Ladies' Fine Gold Gem Ring, $7..... Next forty-one, each an Imitation-Steel F Engraving, Rosa Bonheur's Horse Fair Next twenty-nine, each a Complete Set of Dickens Works, Handsomely Bound in Cloth, 10 vols., $20.

Next twenty-one, each a Fine Quadruple Plate Individual Saltand Pepper Cruet fext five, each a beautiful Quadruple Sil ver Plated Tea Service (4 pieces) $40... Next twenty-five, a Teachers' Fine, Well Each person competing must send One Dollar with their answers, for abscription to the LADIES' JOURNAL. Th LADIES' JOURNAL has been greatly enlarged and improved and is in every way equal at this price to any of the publications issued for ladies on this continent. You, therefore, pay nothing at all for the privilege of The prizes will be distributed in time for Christmas Presents to friends, if you wish o use them in that way.

Little Things The Tall.

Their use attended with no di Wun Lung.

laundryman in Hartford, but he has probaby two lungs, like most of us. Some cryin babies seem to have a dozen. Lungs should be sound, or the voice will have a weakly sound. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes strong lungs, drives the cough away, generates good blood, tones makes "another man" of him. sweats, blood-spitting, short breath, bronchitis, asthma, and all alarming forerunners of Consumption, are positively cured by this unapproachable remedy. If taken in time, Consumption itself can be baffled. The great perpetual battle of life is the warfale waged against self.—[G. M. Valtour.

The Handsomest of all Coins. This proud distinction is generally concrew of kindly, steady, church-goers. Long Just twenty minutes' sail over the harbour mother-of-pearl and bordered with costly themselves into a double knot. I found merriment or tosadness and melancholy. Ex- ceded to the United States' twenty-dollar The sea was not altogether amiable. It shore, with the bluest of water and green- worked itself up into a sudden gale on est of islets, surrounded with depths of embroidery. As the boy gazed wonderingly keep my right arm as close to the body as and exist. Thus, a flash which entered a handsome woman, if in the bloom of health and exist. Thus, a flash which entered a little as I little as Sunday: the class had sunk to sixty degrees, mangrove. Coming back "c'est autrechose." and breathlessly at the little as I school room injured only the first and last if she is not, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescripand had not yet recovered itself; moreover, the sea and started up in a frightened manner. She the barrel with my right took two hours to tack back—the sea lookedat the box of the barrel with my right the barrel with my r way. Still we slipped along. What did it something. Then she held her hands implor- forefinger. In some galleries the beginners the treatment of lameness and other con- for it cures those countless ills which are were all factors against us. Still, at 4 p.m. signify? Life glides easily in the Bahamas, ingly to Fridolin as if begging his protections due to lightning, the bane of their sex—irregularities, dragand no one is in a hurry except some newlythe only replies he received were sighs and the only replies he received were sighs and shoe magnet being applied alternately to the shoe magnet being applied alternately to the shoe magnet being applied alternately to the shoe magnet being applied alternately to the shoe magnet being applied alternately to the shoe magnet being applied alternately to the shoe magnet being applie head, trunk and the limbs. This process led which burden their daily lives. A tonic and

One Dose of Dr. Harvey's Southern Red

Pure Cod Liver Oil and Emulsions properly made from it are uudoubtedly the remedies for pulmonary complaints. Many emulsions have been placed on the market but none seem to have met with the succe accorded to SLOCUM'S OXYGENIZED EMULSION of PURE COD LIVER OIL. Their Laboratory at 186 West Adelaide St., "I didn't know but you might have a Toronto, Ont., is kept constantly going and onsolation purse to offer," said the anxious every druggist in the country is supplied

The Head Surgeon at Toronto, Canada, and may be conchronic diseases peculiar to man. Men, young, old, or middle-aged, who find themseives nervous, weak and exhausted, who toms: Mental depression, premature old "Answer him, Clara," echoed the old man age, loss of vitality, loss of memory, bad From Manger to Throne." Over 600 quarto heart, emissions, lack of energy, pain in the length, of Jerusalem on the day of Crucifixion. specks before the eyes, twitching of the IAIAB DAWSON'S flabby muscles, desire to sleep, failure to be That man only has learned to live rightly rested by sleep, constipation, dr liness of blame, and with steady head and hand goes citability of temper, sunken eyes surrounded with LEADEN CIRCLE, oily looking skin, etc., are all symptoms of nervous debility that lead to insanity and death unless cured. The spring or vital force having lost its tension every function wanes in consequence Those who through abuse committed in ignorance may be permanently cured. Send your address for book on all dieases peculair mendation. It costs you nothing for a trial, and a radical cure ing for a trial, and a radical cure is certain. Give Express and Heart disease, thesymptoms of which arefaint | M. G. ROOT M. C., 186 West Adelaide St

St. E., Toronto, On. Books sent free sealed. Post Office. Address: spells, purple lips, numbness, palpitation, skip beats, hot flashes, rush of blood to the head, dull pain in the heart with beats strong, rapid and irregular, the second heart beat quicker than the first, pain about the breast bone, etc., can positively be cured. No cure. no pay. Send for book. Address M. V LUBON, 50 Front Street East, Toronte.

· How to Make a Haggis. Good House berping : Parboil a sheep's liver and a piece of good lean beef. Grate the half of the liver and mince the beef, the lights, receive a present. of good beef suct half the weight of the mixture and minee it with a dozen small irm onions. Toast some oatmeal before the The conditions are as followand perfectly dry. Less than two teacup I fuls will not do for this meat. Spread the mince on a board and strew the meal lightly | Rece ed up to November 15th over it, with a high seasoning of pepper, Recoved up to December 15th, a haggis bag, perfectly clean, and see that each, and seven prizes of five dollars each. there be no thin part in it, else the labor given in each section of time as indicated may be lost by its bursting. Put in the above, to the next ten largest lists in the order meat, with so much good beef gravy or strong broth as will make a thick stew. Be you will receive a present anyway of some value careful not to fill the bag too full, but allow lemon or a little vinegar; press out the air Hepburn's Blood Purifier will be forwarded and sew up the bag; prick it with a large This preparation is guaranteed to be superior 45 | needle, when it first swells in the pot, to to anything yet introduced for the relief at cure of liver and kidney troubles. Circulars with testimonials and full information sent on the meat room to swell; add the junce of a prevent it from bursting; let it boil, but not receipt of a 3-cent stamp Remarks: A blind man cannot by any | Contest closes December 28th, the list of pri effort of the imagination conceive color—nor quois the following week. can any man alive conceive a haggis, with out having it submitted to the senses. It Address C. E. HEPBURN. I forgets for the time being all other tastes. his tongue feels enlarged in his mouth. I is more fibrous, also more porous. There is a harmonious call among tongue, palate an linsides of the cheeks. The very eyes have a gust, and the ears are somewhat dull of hearing, trying to taste. The stomach receives without effort and enjoys such de light that one scarcely knows when, how o eve the haggis-bag with graceful affection. commands the waiter to behave kindly to Lit, and when removed, follows it out of the 50 room with silent benediction.

A Sooth Shave. Somelar is in the St. Louis Globe Democrat-tells of a new wrinkle in shaving. friend of mine," he says, " a few months ago 420 | told me how to shave easily and painlessly and I have never shaved in a barber's shop since. The plan is to use oil or grease in stead of some to prepare the chin and soften the beard. Vaseline is the most convenient and it should be rubbed inquite freely. Then, with a keen razor, shaving can be done quick 15 ly and without a suspicion of pain. At first I couldn't reconcile myself to doing without the orthodox lather, and used soap after the 250 vaseline had been applied. But the soap is really unnecessary, and shaving with oil or vaseline is cleaner, as well as pleasanter, and violently, for three hours.

A.P. 529 As a Flesh Producer there can be no question but that what is more to the point, there is no irritation whatever to the skin."

Of Lime and Soda is without a rival. Many have Frit. It cures a day by the use CONSUMPTION,

SCROFULA, BRONCHITIS, COUGHS AND COLDS, AND ALL FORMS OF WASTING DIS EASES. AS PALATABLE AS MILK. Genuine made by Scott & Boune. Belleville. Salmon Wrapper; at all Draggists, 50c. and $1.00. MATARRH CURED FREE for testimon'

after cure. Address THE GERMICIDE

Or totake special college or preparatory at home? If so, you should acquaint

DEAVER LINE STEAMSHD

LIVERPOOL. Saloon Tickets $40, $30

Steerage $20: Apply to fi. I. MIRRI

eral Manager Canadian Shipping Ca.

TOM HOUSE SQUARE, MONTHEAL, OF I

Agents in all Towns and Cities

Return Tickets, $80, $90 and $110, acco

steamer and accommodation. Interme

Sailing weekly between MONTREAL

WHOLESALE TOBACCONISTS

anufacturers of all kinds Domestic Ca

Celebrated Crasader and Hero Bra

One trial is guarantee for continual,

ACENTS for Dr. Talmage's New Box

WANTED! the Christ Lana, 'entitled

"FROM MANGER TO THROW

Embracing a New LIFE OF CHRIST, a

Story of Palestine and its People, close

at once for particulars to WILLIAM BRICE

PION IRON FENCE. Good percent

Toronto, Ontario. Telephone 262.

given. Write, Toronto Rolling Mill an Forgeing Co., Ltd., 68 Esplanade St. W.

TIGIA, SORE THROAT, PILES, WOUNDS,

MIMORRHAGES OF ALL KINDS.

Use Internal and Faternally, Prices 50c.$1.$1.7

PCND'S EXTRACT CO. New York & London

Trequallet, for Lichtees and Branty of Coloring.

WILL NOT WASH OUT!

There is nothing it be there for Strongth, Co.

fenretlerser neertelitti.i-h D. es.

They are the conty 101 sthat

WILL NOT FADE OUT

Ktattatt hhid

never have another like it.

trip "To, Through and Fr

MONTREAL,

JOHN H. DANIELS, Registrat.

with the correspondence methods Chautsuqua College. Address

MAGIC SCALE—For dress cutting, ta ugh by Miss Chubb, General Agent for On tar.o, 4264 Yonge street, Toronto, Ont. GENTS-OUR NEW BOOK. A GENUINE N. MOYER & CO., 60 Yonge St., Toronto.

WANTED-Ladies to manage a profitable and philanthropic work at their own homes. For particulars apply with stamp.

J. Trotter, 5 Richmond St. W., Toronto, Canada LEATHER BELTING. CO., Makers, 70 King street East., Toronto.

Send for Price Lists and Discounts. HEALTH HELPER. Send stamp for sample copy to the AGENTS WANTED For the Patent PINLESS CLOTHES LINE. A wire line with which No Pegs are required Pine will instantly stop a severefit of cough- Illustrated circulars FREE. Address : TAR-BOX BROS., 73 Adelaide St. west, Toronto. No young man cares to keep his counten-ance after his girl has sent back his photo-Are the best in the world for the throat and chest and for the voice. Unequalled. Recommended to Sufferers.

Gibbons' Toothache Gum Price 15 cents.

Chest and for the voice. Unequalities.

R. & T. W. stamped on each dro

SAUSAGE CASINGS.

JAS. PARK & SON, Toronto. S PISO'S CURE FOR THE BEST COUGH MEDICINE. SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWEERE.

J. DOAN & SON. For Circular Address. 77 Northcotc Ave., Torontc A GENTS should drop everything and sel

A TALMAGES LIFE OF CHRIST, entitled,

Dawson Medicine Co., Montreal

EPILEPSY OR FALLING SICKNESS

The above amount will actually be given free, Each terson answer ing this adve to ment will

For the largest list of English words ructed from the letter-contained in the word "BLOOD PURIFIER winners will be published in the NEWS of h References The Reeve of Iroquois. Postmaster of Iroquois.

Canada Branch . 4-1 St. Paul Send postal for Sample Card and I ... L of Instruct as PURE, UNALLOYED, UNADULTERATED

The UNIVERSAL

Here is a sample from a large factor

Marsden Smith, Brussels,

8, 1890 : "I enclose $63, second pay ment on Chopper. I certainly never aid for anything more cheerfully than

"It surpasses my expectation every way and is beyond the representations of your agents. It does seem to me it must require a wonderful stretch of cons cience for these iron plate machine

fellows to claim they have the best chopper on earth. Surely they never 1 pay for this 20 inch Mill.

VERDICT.

tu goods de de is MEAT ITSELF, deprived of nothing but fat and residuous material which is not nutritious. Highly Concentrated

TO THE EDITOR: Please inform your readers that I have above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FPEE to any or your readers who have consumption if they will send me their Express and Post Office Address. Respectfully, T. A. SLOCUE. M.C., 186 West Adelaide St., TORONTO, ONTARIO.

Several second-hand iron plate GRINDERS for sale cheap.

saw your Standard Mill running." Mr. Smith had an expensive plate mill previous to the Standard. Shingle Mills, Lath Mills.

AT WORK. Buy Our

Chopping Mills,

Proprietor—Perhaps so, but remember some have received rewards in previous competitions. Address, Editor Lapses' Journal of the proverts he who gives quickly gives petitions. Address, Editor Lapses' Journal of the provents he who gives quickly gives petitions. Address, Editor Lapses' Journal of the provents of the provents of the period of the petitions. Address, Editor Lapses' Journal of the period of the petitions. Address, Editor Lapses' Journal of the period of the petitions. Address, Editor Lapses' Journal of the petitions. Address, Canada, Transaction of the petitions. Address, Canada, Transaction of the petitions. Address, Canada, Transaction of the petitions. Address of the petitions of the petitions. Address of the petitions of the petitions. Address of the petitions. Address of the petitions of the petitions of the petitions. Address of the petitions of the petitions of the petitions of the petitions of the petitions. Address of the petitions of the petitio

Veneer Machines.

A Thrilling Sto CHAPTER XIX. MADAME WOLENSKI. indulgence.

treacherous peace that is pur When Trever had disappeared h eve of the staircase, Ethel Deni Medame Wolenski. "Which on, Madame?" On the floor above. Oh, really-then you are like "t like to be too high up." I do not like to be very high me the air is the most pure revs-I prefer to have a little not to have to climb so high for Of course there is the lift," who wanted to be polite but whose were with Trevor. "Yes, but I do not like the lift, I do not like the feeling that the pl get on fire and the lift would prob working and-and we should all h "Ah! that would be dreadfu Ethel, with a studder, "but do stand here. Come in and pay i visit, Madame.' Madame Wolenski looked hesita her morning garments. " I have -I am not dressed-I have been poor woman who is sick," she said "But I am alone -my husband out," Mrs. Dennis urged. in just for a few minutes. I will-" I cannot resist that. Is the dog a the lady asked. "Oh! a beauty—a pure bull and see him," and then Ethel turi and led the way into her own d dame Wolenski following her. "Oh! what a pretty flat, what room," she cried. than mine and the decorations are " But we took it furnished," Wes. I think we were very luc

" Ah ! its such a chance when house in that way," said Madame -" I have not been so lucky : did not know that I should like li establishment of this sort, indee vet quite sure whether I do or not me, Mrs. Dennis, where is the do " I will bring him," and she the next room returning in a mon " Oh! he is quite a beauty -a le Madame Wolenski enthusiasticall "Crummles," answered Ethel to find her favourite so highly land "K-chrummles-Why, what Madame cried. "Crum-mles," repeated Ethe "K-tchrummles," said Mada but after several most valiant att had to give up the effort, for say properly, she simply could not. is quite a beautiful person-quite Well--" to the dog, who was going to speak to me? How d Mr. K -- chrummles ?" She held out her hand to him a les went a little nearer to her an sniff at her gown in a way that wa but friendly. Madame hoping to his majesty further ventured to sm his silken satin coat, but Crummle head and raised his upper lip in snarl of such yenom, that the haste to put herself out of harm's "He does not like me, "she san "Crummles-Crummles. You fully rude," cried his majesty's n provingly. "That was because y ed to touch him before he had m mind whether you were to be "What a dreadful creature ! ways have him about. Does he any one? "No - he would if I told him to would fly at your throat this in single word from me," Ethel "but he is very good tempered a has always disliked my husband but he has never done more than to that voiceless smart on; no, re-you once get to know him and he Crammles is the dearest fellow, " And your husband does to " Not much -he puts up with ! I have always had him. By the by going to Mrs. Maravin's to-morre "Yes-I think so. "Shall we go togethet? "Oh! I should like to very I your husband, does he like going " He is not going he never ge noons; in fact, he scarcely ev with me. He always dedlates not a Society man in any way. go for a drive before we go to "I shall be delighted," said M evident pleasure. "You are in think of it. And now I must b to my own apartments, soil will She rose from her chair and C pressed the voiceless snarl which turbed the lady before. Hower not seem much frightened and st the chimney shelt. "Is that yo Mrs. Dennis?" she asked, pointi ograph in a silver frame. "Yes at is a very good port Ethel replied

" And that is Mr. Trevor" went on, looking at a large pl that young gentleman which hi frame and occupied the other " Will a nice face he has. charming. Is he a relation of y

"Oh, no, not any relation, oldest friend. Ethel replied. children together, httb-childre "And you are trands duri years how strange. Well, ye Mr. Trevor to see me one day, "I will, with pleasure," -E. "but Madame, he is not Mr. T he is Lord Rosstriator since

"So," cried the other in a "then that was why he backed this evening ! All and well h he might. Well, will you ben trever then one day? I though I'm so glad," Ethel cried of feeling as she took Madan firm outstretched hand. good night. But the little glow of pleas away when she was once le sat down in a chair before Crumules made himself a bed her gown, and then her thoug to the wonderful news which brought. Aye, and they flew than that, back to the old childhood when she and Jac been all the world to one ano dark shadow of her mother's not vet come between them first trouble of her life, wh daunt had resolutely put a s respondence with her old] wretched day-and what is wretched as the impotent sta against the powers that be ?left Jack's birthday unnotice or the feast of good S. Vale those tender festivals to while attack so much importance. And then her thoughts w latter days, when Major D crossed her path, when her me out that he was rich and that to the Frothingham title, th proposed and she had not d because he had come armed er's consent, the days later marriage was coming very no the sort of feeling that she con with a ceremony which to mockery, when she had h yielding, when-when-Oh! ly bear to think of it now weak enough out of sheer cowardice to let her mother mke purely, mould her life in ruin her happiness and be heart and spirit. What a fo and oh ! how bitter, all bitte were then. Why, if she had and obstinately and had med to marry Major Den mother have done? She ber an uncommonly bad time sebarred her from any plea even have shut her up on and have beaten her, though not in the least probable.

the very worst had h had held out firmly, it over now for she knew wald never have wished ior Dennis after old La I will write and tell