J. G. ANDERSON has something of interest to tell you. Read his ad. in another column.
It is reported that the roller mill at Walter's Falls is sold to Mr. Robt. Clark of St. Marys, as Mr. Clark owned the mill two years ago and had to sell on account of poor health (from which he greatly recovered) it gives great satisfaction to the farmers in the community as Mr. Clark is a thorough gentleman and a good miller.

Rev. Mr. CORNISH has announced two special sermons for next Sunday. In the morning on "Women's Work for Jesus," and in the evening "The Temperance War Cry." These are topics of great importance to the Christian Church, and all interested therein are invited to be present.

Last Sunday Rev. W. Ayers, of Flesherton, supplied very acceptably the pulpit of Rev. Mr. Cornish in this village, he being engaged preaching anniversary sermons on behalf of the church in Flesherton.

Mr. R. McNally and family have removed to Markdale where Mr. Mc. will carry on his business of carriage making. Mr. McNally enjoys the reputation of being a good workman and a sober and industrious man, who had many warm friends here who regret his departure from our village. We wish him every prosperity in his new home. —[Chatsworth News]

The Rev. A. J. Parker, of Pricoville, rejoices in the possession of a new parsonage. The congregation there are to be congratulated on having one of the best parsonages on the District. Conveniently situated near the church. It is a credit to the village and the Methodist people. On last Friday a tea-meeting was held there in aid of the parsonage building fund. Rev. Mr. Cornish assisted in adding interest to the occasion by giving them a telling address on "Methodism—its Chief Characteristics." The choir, under the leadership of Dr. Hickson, did great credit to themselves in their excellent selections and the way in which they were rendered. Owing to the stormy weather and bad roads the attendance was small. Nearly all the funds necessary, however, to liquidate the debt has been provided. —Com.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Our citizens were shocked by the news which spread around town yesterday afternoon of a dreadful accident which had just occurred near the mouth of the river. It appears that Mr. F. Spurgeon Brown went down there to shoot ducks in company with Mr. Smith, a commercial traveller. Mr. Smith got out of the boat and went along the shore, while Mr. Brown kept in the shallow water of the marsh presently a sleet was heard, and Mr. Smith looked over found that Mr. Brown had fallen out of the boat. He had been reaching for his gun and caught hold of it by the muzzle, when it went off, tearing away a portion of his hand, and lodging the contents in his abdomen, and caused him to fall out. Mr. Smith at once rushed to his assistance, and got him out of the water, after which he was conveyed to Dr. Cameron's office, and from thence home. Although he was quite conscious and spoke to those around him, his wounds were of such a character that there was no hope of his recovery, and he died at two o'clock Thursday morning. Mr. Brown has been for several years past employed during summer season as assistant in the Custom House, and was well known and highly popular amongst the young men of the town. His parents and family have the sympathy of our citizens generally in their very sad bereavement. —[Owen Sound Times. Deceased taught school a few years ago in this neighborhood and was very popular. Ed S.]

YOUNG PEOPLE'S CONCERT.—The concert was most unfavourable on Wednesday evening last, yet a good number turned out to the entertainment. The young folk had evidently made great preparations both in their singing and stage and getting up a difficult and elaborate programme. Many of the plays were well performed, calling forth the hearty applause and repeated laughter of the audience. Owing to the downpour of rain during the evening (together with the size of the room (the rink) made it difficult to hear as well as act. Mr. Isaac Chambers gave two songs in French which were well given and highly appreciated. He has an excellent voice.

Many of the Characters, and says will not permit. The financial result was satisfactory.
