GROWERS AND BLENDERS OF RAM LAL'S TEAS, ask you to give them a trial for the following reasons:

1st. They are absolutely pure.

2nd. They are grown and prepared on the estates by the most skilled labor and improved machinery that money can buy, whereas China Teas are picked and carried by natives long distances before being made ready for the market.

3rd. Ram Lal's is a blend of three Teas grown and prepared especially for this brand. Will always be the same flavor, to-day to ten years hence.

4th. 'Tis cheap, only Fifty cents for a pound package which will go as far as two pounds of China or Japan Teas.

In giving Ram Lal's a trial, if the first cup does not strike your palate as good one weaker than the first. After using a pound you will only use Ram Lal's Pure Indian Tea from henceforth.

OUR readers will kindly bear with the scant amount of reading matter during the pressure of holiday advertising. Besides this we are hard pressed with a rush of job work, which will, however, ease up directly. The farmers will understand what hustling there is during the heat of harvest.

MR. JOSEPH HAMILTON, photographer, has sold his business here to Mr. W. J. Boyd. The latter is now in possession and prepared to attend to the requirements of the public in that line. Mr. Hamilton and his cousin Mr. Albert Hamilton have purchased a photograph business in Brantford, and left town on Monday last for that city. They have the STANDARD's best wishes for success.

We were surprised to see Miss Martha Anderson enjoying a lover's embrace the other evening; but from inquirey we found that it was her big brother Sandy just returning from Stratford and was receiving a welcome home. Beg pardon Martha for my mistake.

Second Degree.

The second meeting of the Fortnightly Lib. of the Mechanics' Institute was held in the Council Chamber on Friday evening last. Dr. Ego, vice-president, occupied the chair and conducted the proceedings with commendable tact and ability. Mrs. Wm. Brown gave an excellent and appropriate reading after which the debate was entered upon. The subject was: Resolved that women should be admitted to the franchise and should be eligible to civic and parliamentary offices. Mr. T. L. Lyons led the affirmative, followed by Messrs. John Lyons and Wm. Brown, while the negative was led by J. B. Lucas followed by Messrs. S. Pocock and C. W. Rutledge. The subject was handled with ability and eloquence, while the audience evinced deep interest in the various arguments. The debaters occupied the full time allotted, fifteen minutes each. At the conclusion the house was divided as to the result, an overwhelming majority for the negative. What made the result seem more significant is the fact that the audience was composed of two thirds ladies.

HORRIBLE MURDER.

A horrible murder, more than one life attempted, and a thousand dollars worth of property destroyed by fire, all the result of bad blood. We want to call your attention to Burdock Blood Bitters, the popular remedy for blood diseases, which has effected more cures even in this locality than all other blood purifiers combined. Sold by druggists.

Be Content.

Be content with what you have, others have less. If you have people to work for you, others have worse. If you have no debts, you have the better of many who have. If you have what you eat, drink and wear, you have better than many who have not. If you have health, you have one of the greatest blessings of this life. If you have a kind husband or wife, you have one of the best things that can be found on earth. If you have a few friends, you have what few can have. If you have a conscience void of offence toward God and man, you have the best thing that can be possessed. If you have all these things, be content, for there are many who have not.—Selected.

A TERRIBLE CASE.

THE case of Mrs. Wm. Bloodworth, of Bloomfield, Ont., is one of the most terrible cases of blood disease on record. Her system was filled with boils, carbuncles and sores, and she was terribly afflicted with rheumatism. She was cured by Burdock Blood Bitters after all else had failed.
