MARKDALE, FEB. 19, 1891.

The Political Situation.

FROM DIFFERENT STANDPOINTS.

St. Thomas Times (Con.): The Reformers of course are bitter in their denunciation of Sir John for springing the elections before the end of the Parliament, forgetting that in December, 1886, Hon. Oliver Mowat did the same thing with the Ontario elections.

Buffalo News: The general election in Canada has been brought about almost entirely through the discussion of trade relations between the two countries. A reciprocity sentiment is abroad in Canada, but Sir John Macdonald is thought to be facing two ways. Keep both eyes on the United States, Sir John, and watch the tendency of progressive ideas.

Chicago Herald: All the friends of reciprocity in Canada should understand that their only hope lies in the defeat of the Tories and the overthrow of Macdonald. They should understand that the kind of reciprocity the Premier pretends to favor is impossible, that the people of this country will not have it, and that he himself does not want it, or reciprocity of any kind.

Syracuse (N.Y.) Standard: It is observable that the Premier says nothing about restricted reciprocity, the idea which his organs have been advancing. Evidently the Conservatives have entered the canvass with two policies, freer trade with the United States, and the idea promulgated in Sir John Macdonald's address. The former they are ready to abandon if they find that they do not heed it.

Belleville Intelligencer (Con.): For nearly four years past the country has been agitated by the leaders of the Grit party, on a proposal the inevitable result of which is annexation to the United States; and our people have been humiliated by seeing these men flock to Washington to invoke foreign interference in our national affairs. The electors of Canada will now have an opportunity of pronouncing upon that project and upon the conduct of its advocates.

St. Thomas Journal (Reform): The friends of reciprocity will not be foolish enough to bite at this bait or to expect to secure reciprocity from the men or the party who are under the thumb of the protected monopolists and who will provide the sinews of campaign for Sir John and his party. The partial reciprocity hinted at is only a bait to catch the unwary, and the election is brought on so that a snap verdict may be received and the National Policy retained in force.

Evening Telegram: Canada's interest will be best served at this time by prolonging Sir John's lease of office. The Old Man has faults and lots of them. His government has been wasteful and reckless in its expenditure. It was a truckler, and it afflicted the country with the Franchise Act and the worst gerrymander that ever disgraced Canadian politics. But—and the word is a big one here—the Government is better than the Opposition. Sir John's virtues have made for the upbuilding of Canada. A genuine patriot's faith in and hope for the country have cradled his policy. His victory is richer in promises of good to the country than the return of the Opposition can be. Canada will not suffer if Sir John comes back with a working majority and the Equal Righters return 20 members to be a check upon every Government's desire to truckle to Quebec.

Conservative Convention.

That there was a "big crowd" at the Conservative Convention in Markdale last Friday goes without saying. Every polling sub-division in the riding was represented.

Among those present were: Thos. Gilray, warden of Grey; W. Jelly, ex-M. P. P., Robert McGhee, ex M. P. P., Major Douglas, Shelburne; Drs. Barr, M. P. P., Cardwell; Major Rorke, M. P. P., East Grey; Thomas Hanbury, reeve of Dundalk; F. Smelser, reeve of Collingwood; James Bowes reeve of St. Vincent; W. Read, deputy reeve of St. Vincent; J. J. Johnston, mayor of Meaford; Thomas Andrews, reeve of Thornbury; Hugh Chisholm, Dr. MacLean, Meaford; James Patterson, Meaford Mirror; W. Thurston, Flesherton Advance; A. J. Chisholm, Owen Sound Sun, and many others from all parts of the riding.

Dr. Sproule, of Markdale, who for the past 12 years has so ably represented East Grey, was proposed by Thomas Gilray, warden of Grey, seconded by W. Jelly, ex-M. P. P., Shelburne, and was unanimously selected as the Conservative standard bearer.

Stirring and patriotic speeches were delivered by gentlemen representing every section of East Grey, all of whom cheerfully testified to the high personal esteem in which Dr. Sproule is held by the electors. One and all are determined to enter the contest with that energy and spirit so characteristic of East Grey, which indicates that an immense majority will be rolled up for their representative.

Dr. Sproule delivered a brilliant speech, touching upon the record of the Government since he entered public life, which was cheered to the echo. In ringing tones he advocated the policy of Sir John Macdonald, and urged all to stand by the old flag and Canada for the Canadians.

At the conclusion the immense assembly rose to their feet and sent up a mighty cheer, that heralds a glorious victory on March 5. Cheers were given for the Queen, Sir John Macdonald and Dr. Sproule, and the proceedings terminated.

GOOD DEEDS DONE.

The good deeds done by that unequalled family liniment, Hagyard's Yellow Oil during the thirty years it has been held in ever increasing esteem by the public, would fill volumes. We cannot here enumerate all its good qualities, but that it can be relied on as a cure for croup, coughs, colds, sore throat and all pain, goes without saying.

FIFTEEN MONTHS FREE.

"FIFTEEN months ago I had a boiling breast I tried many remedies but got no relief, I then tried Hagyard's Yellow Oil, which gave me instant ease. It is the best thing I ever used for all kinds of pains or colds." MRS. JOHN CORBETT, St. Marys, Ont.

Annual Press Gathering.

The annual meeting of the Canadian Press Association was held in the City Hall, Toronto, on Friday last and notwithstanding the fact that many editors were prevented from attending owing to the election campaign now in full swing, there was a large attendance and an excellent meeting. These gatherings are exceedingly interesting and valuable to those who attend and it is to be hoped that every publisher throughout the province will find it to their advantage to become members. The banquet held at Webb's restaurant on Friday night was largely attended and a most enjoyable evening was spent. The edibles were furnished in Webb's superior style, while there was nothing stronger than lemonade to unbalance the mental equilibrium. Among those present were Mr. A. Patullo, of the Sentinel-Review, Woodstock, president; Hon. O. Mowat; Prof. Goldwin Smith; Dr. Daniel Clark, Toronto; A. F. Pirie, Banner, Dundas; Dr. Withrow; S. J. Wilson, editor Globe, and R. L. Patterson. The speeches were witty and wise calling forth repeated applause and laughter. The Royal Grenadiers played a number of selections, several songs were sung and a most enjoyable evening's entertainment brought to a close by singing "Save the Queen."

A. O. U. W.

The Grand Lodge of the Ancient Order United Workmen met on Wednesday, the 18th, in Toronto. Grand Master Milne in his report says:—"Divine Providence has wonderfully blessed the earnest and active labors of our benevolent and sympathetic work. In every part of our jurisdiction energetic and enthusiastic efforts have been put forth by officers and members to keep up the steady march of progress. We have, with sure and firm step, climbed the ladder of membership, till at the close of the year we rank third amongst the grand lodges of America. The grateful thanks and blessings of the widows and orphans have flowed in from every corner of our fair Dominion for the comfort and assistance rendered them by our payments by our beneficiary claim and for the ready and willing efforts of the brethern to aid them in the hour of affliction.

There have been 26 lodges organized during the year 1890 of which nineteen are situated in Ontario, four in the Province of Quebec and three in the Province of Manitoba.

NEARLY A TRAGEDY.—On Sunday evening last about 8 o'clock the house of Jno Heddle of Allenford was entered by an Indian by the name of Wm. Johnston of Cape Croaker, who demanded something to eat from Mrs. Heddle, who was alone in the house at the time. The lady not getting the victuals as soon as the dusky intruder believed she might, he drew a knife and threatened her life. Her cries for help brought her husband from outside, who at once attacked the Indian and a desperate struggle ensued, in which the aborigines, being the stronger of the two, got the better of Mr. Heddle by striking him on the head with an iron poker. The son, who was but a boy, came in and also entered in the melee, and the Indian would have undoubtedly dispatched the both of them had not the cries for help brought in Messrs. Jake and Andrew Johnston, who overpowered the Indian and made him a prisoner, and ended with what might have been a double tragedy. The prisoner was brought before their Worships Messrs. Sharp and Reed, on Monday morning, who sentenced his Indianship to two months in the Walkerton jail. The Indian was not under the influence of liquor as was at first reported.—Wiarton Echo.
