What they say in England.

London, March 11.—The Post says: Sir John Macdonald's majority is reduced, but the majority is not reduced and this is the only increase England must either find strength in the Empire generally or retire from her position as a world power. The strengthening of the Canadian loyalty is a sign of vast welcome and importance. The Daily News says: Considering the treatment of Mr. Blake and the mud thrown at the opposition leaders we are only surprised that Sir John Macdonald's majority was not doubled. The Liberals have reason to be confident to the future. The Telegraph says: We cannot see it a glorious victory but it is enough and the fact that an election will not assist Sir John Macdonald's negotiations with the United States, but after a hard and, in fact, the situation that has confronted him is fraught with fundamental difficulties. The Chronicle says: It is almost conclusively that an election is required to the Canadians. Past experience warrants the belief that Sir John Macdonald will be able to maintain himself in power. The Standard thinks the success of the Liberals in Canada is as remarkable as it is satisfactory. It is the only party in the country which has the best of the popular vote, which are held by the Mackenzie-King government. The Times says: The Liberal majority in the House of Commons is a record. The Liberal majority in the House of Commons is a record. The Liberal majority in the House of Commons is a record.
