

Markdale Standard

C. W. Rutledge, Proprietor.

MARKDALE, MAY 14, 1891.

DUNDALK.

Mr. G. R. Phillips and family have gone to reside in Orillia. On Monday evening, their friends gathered to bid them farewell and presented Mr. Phillips with an easy chair, and Mrs. P. with a Silver Fish dish and a carving set. The frame of the moulding shop for our foundry is up. Mr. Geo. Nixon's store has been moved westward, and preparations are being made for building a fine block on the corner. Building operations will boom this summer. The District meeting of the Markdale District will be held here on Monday and Tuesday next.

HARKAWAY.

Mr. Edith after resting the past two months I purpose sending brief items weekly from this humdrum place.

Seeding is all done and in excellent condition.

Mr. Robert Vanez has lost a valuable cow and Mr. Joseph Halbert a pair of spring colts.

Mr. Thos. Neely has the Vane farm for this season, and we may expect soon to see well stocked with cattle "Mr. N. is on the farm again."

Our general agent, Mr. E. Steer is flooding the sheep and lambs, having taken orders for lambs at 45 and 50 in ten days.

He is a jester sure.

Mr. Davy, our school principal, with the rest of his people put Hawkyard school ground in the best shape on Arbor day.

Lauriston.

Seeding is done except the "mumpies." Some large fish have been hooked, but also some departed taking with them the line.

Mr. Jas. Bell has introduced a superior quality of tires.

Some of you men think nothing of walking several miles to church; seal for the church, you know.

Mr. E. Bell is visiting friends at Owen Sound.

The latest thing out—A sign at one post office.

What means that cage of stuff which was piled up at the door of a certain young gent at the corner recently? He must have seen from home.

We are pleased to see Mr. John Bell of Philippiopolis. We understand he intends remaining for the summer. He has purchased a light skiff. May his heart be as full as the boat he drives, and the trout take him when we're apart.

Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Dimmick are visiting friends at Collingwood this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen and daughter, Miss Agnes, are visiting friends in Prism this week.

Brunswick.

Duncan Arnott, of the 11th Ephraim, had the misfortune to lose ten acres of fall wheat burned by a ground fire last week.

Joseph Durner lost a cow last week by being mired in the swamp; Mrs. A. Elliott also lost one in the same manner.

Mrs. John McDonald is lying dangerously ill.

Mrs. Joseph Durner is improving after a prolonged illness.

Wm. Walker is lying ill for some time back but is thought to be in the mend. He had to leave his farm, not being able to attend to seeding.

Jim Irwin, down the back line, has completed a dwelling house and is turning it. What next?

The cheese factory is to commence operations next Monday.

Mrs. John Brady, an old and highly respected citizen passed away to reward her on Sunday evening last. The funeral on Thursday, whistledly attended, over 40 vehicles being in the cortège, thus showing the respect in which she departed was held.

Priceville.

Our village is rather quiet at present; the farmers are all busy seeding, and if weather continues quite a number will finish this week.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Donald McLean took place in the Presbyterian church during the last Sabbath; for Rev. Mr. McLean, who was never ill during the last few weeks.

Mr. Hugh McNeil is home at present visiting his aged parents. He has just completed his course in dentistry in Chicago and is preparing to practice in a few days.

Mr. Cairns left the Crown Hotel, last Monday for Fonthill Station, where he intends to reside. Mr. Judge has taken possession here.

Mr. John McLean is again, before the arrival, having away as in the days of yore.

IRISH LAKE.

Seeding is about completed. Farmers have been hustling from sunrise until sunset.

A heavy storm on Tuesday week left the roads bad for a few days, but they are now fairly good for traffic.

Mrs. Stephen Kelly has been very ill, but is recovering, also Mr. Daniel O'Hearn.

Mr. McGrogan left for Michigan on the 4th inst.

Mr. Mild Ryan is in the employ of Mr. Jas. Kerley.

Miss T. McLean returned home from Owen Sound on Saturday.

Mr. Mark Foley took his departure for Adlais two weeks ago.

Miss Sarah Quinlan and Miss Nellie Connor of Travasson, called on friends in this place recently.

Mr. Jas. Kerley has purchased a fine two-year-old colt from Mr. Baker of the tenth.

Mr. Jas. Bell of Glenelg, with his brother, Jas. and Jas. McLean, spent a "white" holiday at the Lake.

Mrs. Sullivan has moved from Markdale and came to reside in the old homeestead at the Lake.

Mr. F. Martin has gone to Markdale and is in the employ of Mr. Jameson blacksmith.

We may now expect seedling to wind up, the frogs to close down, a big dance to take place and a few weddings to occur. So mote it be.

Wodehouse.

Sudden Death—Death has more visited our vicinity and has taken for its victim our respected friend Mrs. W. Proctor. Deceased was in the prime of life, only twenty-two years of age. She passed peacefully away on Saturday last with Christian resignation and trust in the Saviour. Her modest demeanour cast a gloom over the whole community, she being a quiet, unassuming person and much respected by all who knew her. She was born in 1869 and lived on the same farm continuously since. The funeral took place on Monday to Mount Zion cemetery and was attended by a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends. Service was held at the house and was conducted by Rev. T. R. Fyell, who preached a very impressive sermon from Hebrews 11 and 12.

Great sympathy is felt for the bereaved family.

Dear readers, we are gone.

They living face a gentle smile,

And through the long summer hours

We oft shall think of them.

From the tomb there comes no cheer.

Since that short hour,

The evening shadow lingers longer still.

Two more shall meet upon the shore.

And when the Lord by his good will

May we meet with friends that gone

Meet hand in hand in heaven.

R. D. C.

Maxwell.

Good roads, good weather, good fall wheat, good winds and fair good growth are now the order of the day, and this is good enough for anyone.

Messrs. Schenman, Kerton and Linley are the wise men that nothing of

Mr. E. Bell is visiting friends at Owen Sound.

CHANGED HANDS.

I have purchased the Markdale Sash, Door and Planing Factory, also stock, from Mr. Thos. McLean and I am now prepared to fill all orders I may be favored with at once. I intend keeping a full stock of Doors, Sash, Frames, &c., ready made, on hand so that orders can be taken on short notice; also a full stock of Lumber, Lath, Shingles, and all other wood material required for building purposes. I am determined to have prices right so that they will compare favorably with Owen Sound.

Then spring arrives, flowers more, birds sing, the bees sweet humming. That time of year has now arrived. And all are well.

For through the winter I survived.

And should not now be happy.

The earth's white mantle has been.

For one of different hue. The green with which the fields are.

Look very pretty too.

Wedding Bells.

On Wednesday evening the 29th ult. nearly sixty couples assembled at the residence of Mr. James Boyd, 7th line Ephraim, to witness the marriage of Miss Jessie, daughter of Jas. and Anna Boyd, of Glenelg, near Markdale, to Mr. C. W. Borrell of Arbutus, near Markdale. Rev. J. F. McLean, B. D. tied the nuptial knot. The young gentleman is engaged unto an expert at the business. The contracting parties were gallantly supported through the trying ordeal by Mr. W. H. Lyon and Miss Boyd sister of the bride. The large lab's a great deal under the excellent and exhaustless spread which had been provided, while the presents were numerous, attractive and valuable. A most pleasant and happy evening was spent, and such gatherings will surely grow on this evenings intercouse. Among those present were, Warden Gilroy and wife, W. H. and the Misses Dickson; Mr. A. and Miss Mary McLaughlin; Mr. Richard Rockingham, St. Vincent; Mr. J. E. Moore and Miss Emily McLaughlin; Mr. David and Miss Foster; Mr. Thos. and Miss Eskin; Mr. Jas. McLean; Mr. Jas. McLean and Jas. McLean.
