A New Danger.

"Don't want no looks, no soap, no pictures," said the hard-faced woman to the strange young man at the front door. "I am not an agent, madam," said the young man, who was in his entirety a different nature. He remembered a very kitchen door about six weeks ago. "She didn't remember." "Let me refresh your memory. You were dressed in an old morning wrap, tied at the neck with a string; your front hair was in its natural state, and you were wearing your usual shoes."

A New Danger.

"Nothing of the sort was intended, madam. I merely wished to make you know that I was that supposed tramp. The bundle I carried on that occasion contained a camera. She had already been offered $1 for the 'do' she took you in, and had refused it for $5.00 it is yours."

The Old, Old Story.

He was one of those boys who was a little bit of a scamp, but who was also a little bit of a hero. He was born in a little town in the north, and he grew up to be a man of letters. He was a great scholar, and he was a great writer. He was a great teacher, and he was a great friend. He was a great man, and he was a great story.
