CROP PROSPECTS. -There are, of course, many risks yet to run before crops are mature, but from what we see and can learn at present the prospects are about as follows in this district: Hay slightly below an average, fall wheat average, spring wheat, oats, barley and pease cation plums average. Root crops are now doing well and everything is looking healthy and prosperous.

Stock raising is fast coming to the front in this county and we cannot give this branch of agriculture too much prominence or encouragement. Mr. James Boll, of Bell's Lake, has one of the finest high bred herds in Grey, and is doing much to improve the stock of his neighborhood. He recently sold a press, a scatly printed, newsy and well calf under 8 months old and a 2-yearold for $100, also a pair of 4-year-old steers for $147.50. This is the kind of stock which lines the farmers' pockets satisfactorily.

Di. Sproule has given notice of a bill to regulate private detective, financial and commercial agencies. It will place all these directly under Government supervision. It is intended to compel commercial agencies to submit their books for inspection so that the public or those interested may be able to judge upon what facts and figures they base their ratings of business firms. The bill provides that detective agencies shall register with the Government and pay a registration fee or make a deposit which shall constitute an asset of the agency amendable to process of law in co se of judgements in court upon prosecutions for false arrest or defamation.

THE MAINED. - A number of accidents occurred recently in this vicinity, of which mention was made in the columns of the STANDARD and doubtless) many are auxious to learn how the patients are progressing. As a result of careful enquiry we have gleaned as follows Mrs. John Moore, who was injured by a runaway, is able to be about and recovering nicely. Mrs. E. W. Moore, who had her shoulder dislocated and badly bruised by tripping on a defective sidewalk, is suffering much the able to be about. She will not likely ever have the use of the injured arm same as pefore. Mrs. Stephens, who had her hip broken while milking, is still prostrate, and has suffered intensely, but is now much easier the' in a helpless condition. Ed. Wright, who got a pitchfork through his thigh, is about all Wright again. Bill. Dodds, who cut his foot badly with an axe, is still laid off work, but can get about without a cane.
