

LATE FOREIGN NEWS

Distressing Tragedy.

KILLED BY A WATERPOUT.

A certain Russian case.

The explosion of a dynamite cartridge to blow up an old ship near Mobile sent to the surface a fish that weighed more than 200 pounds.

Another trial will be made with the kola nut as an article of food, the second experiment last year was highly satisfactory.

The Paris gourmets have taken to the orange juice and the restaurant owners' restaurants are now manured by a fierce-looking band resembling draggues more than waiters.

A telegram from Belgium states that a good number of men at Mount Athos and that the wealthy Greek Monastery of Simon Petros has been completely destroyed. The damage is estimated at $1,000,000.

The Minister of Finance has sent orders to all consuls to prohibit the export of any persons suspected of smuggling or having any connections with the clandestine trade to be transported into the interior, at a distance of no less than five versts, from the frontier.

Berlin University this summer 322 instructors are delivering lectures. The name of Prof. Koch still appears in the calendar as professor and principal of the Hygienic Institute.

The university at Tomsk is the banner "deadhead" educational institution. Of its 222 students, 197 are educated at the expense of the state, 25 are穷困的, and 12 are "poorly" young men. Last year the Government spent $12,000 on them.

One per cent. of all German children in city schools scatter. In Dresden the percentage (2) is highest. In a military school there are 2400 students, and in several civilian schools the percentage has been found to be as large. Many German physicians are advocating the removal of the stammering schools from the army, and the Stammering Institute, the St. Petersburg, is a department of the Ministry of War.

An ornithological commission is formed at the Academy of Science in St. Petersburg for the systematic management of the Imperial Property. Its mission besides the pursuit of scientific studies, will be to devise means for the preservation and protection of the useful species of the bird kingdom.

A love of antiquities in Odessa has acquired some archeologic treasures which were dug from the soil of ancient Olivia, now the capital of Partiotin, in the course of a recent construction of a network of gold, silver, and copper of exquisite workmanship. They seem to belong to the time when their skill in sculpture and engraving were in their bloom in Greece. These valuable treasures should be kept in a private house instead of the public museum, where the student and the artist could freely mine them.

Negotiations on the Volga have begun this season and there are already reports of several serious accidents caused by the technical troops which they now use to be stored away. The new rules of the technical troops will be much shorter, simpler, and ordinary. The pioneers, who have been engaged to produce new machine tools, are still at work.

The technical troops of the Austrian army will be armed with rifles and cartridges, and the Werndl rifles which they now use to be stored away. The new rules of the technical troops will be much shorter, simpler, and ordinary. The pioneers, who have been engaged to produce new machine tools, are still at work.

The Grand Duchess Stephanie, widow of the Crown Prince of Austria, has left off her mourning, and is driving through Italy at present.

India has also been suffering from an omnibus strike, but in this case it was not the drivers, but the owners who struck because the authorities would not grant them permission to do so.

A French passenger steamer lost a trial with the armament fall in Germany, which went from six to eight miles an hour at an expense of two cents per horse power per hour. The engine needs only one man to tend it, and he can also steer.

The Turkish army is reported to be in excellent condition. New regiments of supporting forces are in the hands of the draftees. The artillery is furnished mainly by Krupp, and forty-nine regiments of cavalry, mostly raised in Asia, have recently been recruited.

Some years ago a Government official named Nielsen died in Schleswig leaving 20,000 crowns to his man servant and the sum of 1500 crowns to his maid. It is either married that person's portion according to the law, and their employers will have to pay on their behalf two cents a day, to go to a special pension fund. French workmen are mainly imported from Lorraine, and largely recruited from Lorraine.

A Chicago man has applied for a license to sell Indian pipes and smoking-skins, which he will drive around to a place where outdoor laborers are employed.

A Fort Worth, Tex., man says that he has the best manufactory in the world, and that he is the best, and is taking his business to the top of the world. He says, "I am the best." He has a shop on the corner of Main and Second Street.

Switzerland purposes to make several reforms in the organization of its army. The Federal army, with a militia of the first and last call, numbers 272,124 men, have been increased by 20,000, and these eight divisions four corps will be formed shortly, and therewith will become necessary a complete revision of the still incomplete railroad network.

A RAILROAD ACROSS AUSTRALIA. The transcontinental line is making good progress.

The transcontinental line of railroads is making good progress and before a great while points will be connected from south to north through the regions for so many years were unexplored. The transcontinental line which connects the west coast of Australia with the east, will be completed by the end of the year.

Sixty-four auxiliary cavalry regiments of Kursk will be formed shortly in the manner practiced by Russia the local authorities will be responsible for the funding of these and will be named and cared for at the State's expense.

A Chinese man has applied for a license to sell Indian pipes and smoking-skins, which he will drive around to a place where outdoor laborers are employed.

The formation of labor unions in Finland reached the point of resolving to hold a general meeting in Helsinki for this session a ukase from the czar stopped it entirely.

Exporting leprosy in India has given the bacillus. The succeeded in giving a rabbit leprosy, the first time the disease has ever been known outside of the human body.

Constantinople has 50 newspapers; 19 of them are daily, 5 semi-weekly, 17 weekly, 3 semi-monthly, 6 monthly. In nationality 5 are Turkish, 7 Armenian, 4 Greek, French, 2 English, 2 English, 1 Italian, 1 German, 2 Bulgarian, 1 Arabian, 1 Persian, 1 German.

Japan's Emperor has demanded that every man who provokes a duel accepts a challenge shall pay a heavy fine and serve from time to time until the challenge is settled.

Five months to three years.

The taunting of a man for his refusal to fight when challenged will henceforth be classed as a felony.

and will be so treated by courts.

A certain Russian case.

Of all European countries Sweden has the most extensive telephone system. For the further perfection of the service the General Telephone Company, in Stockholm, now offers put pictures in telephone booths.

The price is 4 francs per month. The tariff for each call will be 2 francs extra.

The license of competition between the Government Telephonist, telephone system and the General Telephone.

The Paris garcon has a cigarette. The cigarette for his pipe and the cigarette for his pipe.

Restaurants are now manured by a fierce-looking band resembling draggues more than waiters.

A telegram from Belgium states that a good number of men at Mount Athos and that the wealthy Greek Monastery of Simon Petros has been completely destroyed.

The damage is estimated at $1,000,000.

The Minister of Finance has sent orders to all consuls to prohibit the export of any persons suspected of smuggling or having any connections with the clandestine trade to be transported into the interior, at a distance of no less than five versts, from the frontier.

Berlin University this summer 322 instructors are delivering lectures. The name of Prof. Koch still appears in the calendar as professor and principal of the Hygienic Institute.

The university at Tomsk is the banner

"deadhead" educational institution.

Of its 222 students, 197 are educated at the expense of the state, 25 are poor, and 12 are "poorly" young men. Last year the Government spent $12,000 on them.

One per cent. of all German children in city schools scatter. In Dresden the percentage (2) is highest. In a military school there are 2400 students, and in several civilian schools the percentage has been found to be as large. Many German physicians are advocating the removal of the stammering schools from the army, and the Stammering Institute, the St. Petersburg, is a department of the Ministry of War.

An ornithological commission is formed at the Academy of Science in St. Petersburg for the systematic management of the Imperial Property. Its mission besides the pursuit of scientific studies, will be to devise means for the preservation and protection of the useful species of the bird kingdom.

A love of antiquities in Odessa has acquired some archeologic treasures which were dug from the soil of ancient Olivia, now the capital of Partotin, in the course of a recent construction of a network of gold, silver, and copper of exquisite workmanship. They seem to belong to the time when their skill in sculpture and engraving were in their bloom in Greece. These valuable treasures should be kept in a private house instead of the public museum, where the student and the artist could freely mine them.

Negotiations on the Volga have begun this season and there are already reports of several serious accidents caused by the technical troops which they now use to be stored away. The new rules of the technical troops will be much shorter, simpler, and ordinary. The pioneers, who have been engaged to produce new machine tools, are still at work.

The Grand Duchess Stephanie, widow of the Crown Prince of Austria, has left off her mourning, and is driving through Italy at present.

India has also been suffering from an omnibus strike, but in this case it was not the drivers, but the owners who struck because the authorities would not grant them permission to do so.

A French passenger steamer lost a trial with the armament fall in Germany, which went from six to eight miles an hour at an expense of two cents per horse power per hour. The engine needs only one man to tend it, and he can also steer.

The Turkish army is reported to be in excellent condition. New regiments of supporting forces are in the hands of the draftees. The artillery is furnished mainly by Krupp, and forty-nine regiments of cavalry, mostly raised in Asia, have recently been recruited.

Some years ago a Government official named Nielsen died in Schleswig leaving 20,000 crowns to his man servant and the sum of 1500 crowns to his maid. It is either married that person's portion according to the law, and their employers will have to pay on their behalf two cents a day, to go to a special pension fund. French workmen are mainly imported from Lorraine, and largely recruited from Lorraine.

A Chicago man has applied for a license to sell Indian pipes and smoking-skins, which he will drive around to a place where outdoor laborers are employed.

The formation of labor unions in Finland reached the point of resolving to hold a general meeting in Helsinki for this session a ukase from the czar stopped it entirely.

Exporting leprosy in India has given the bacillus.

The succeeded in giving a rabbit leprosy, the first time the disease has ever been known outside of the human body.

Constantinople has 50 newspapers; 19 of them are daily, 5 semi-weekly, 17 weekly, 3 semi-monthly, 6 monthly. In nationality 5 are Turkish, 7 Armenian, 4 Greek, French, 2 English, 2 English, 1 Italian, 1 German.

The Japanese Emperor has demanded that every man who provokes a duel accepts a challenge shall pay a heavy fine and serve from time to time until the challenge is settled.

The taunting of a man for his refusal to fight when challenged will henceforth be classed as a felony.

and will be so treated by courts.

A certain Russian case.

Of all European countries Sweden has the most extensive telephone system. For the further perfection of the service the General Telephone Company, in Stockholm, now offers put pictures in telephone booths.

The price is 4 francs per month. The tariff for each call will be 2 francs extra.

The license of competition between the Government Telephonist, telephone system and the General Telephone.

The Paris garcon has a cigarette. The cigarette for his pipe and the cigarette for his pipe.

Restaurants are now manured by a fierce-looking band resembling draggues more than waiters.

A telegram from Belgium states that a good number of men at Mount Athos and that the wealthy Greek Monastery of Simon Petros has been completely destroyed.

The damage is estimated at $1,000,000.

The Minister of Finance has sent orders to all consuls to prohibit the export of any persons suspected of smuggling or having any connections with the clandestine trade to be transported into the interior, at a distance of no less than five versts, from the frontier.

Berlin University this summer 322 instructors are delivering lectures. The name of Prof. Koch still appears in the calendar as professor and principal of the Hygienic Institute.

The university at Tomsk is the banner

"deadhead" educational institution.

Of its 222 students, 197 are educated at the expense of the state, 25 are poor, and 12 are "poorly" young men. Last year the Government spent $12,000 on them.

One per cent. of all German children in city schools scatter. In Dresden the percentage (2) is highest. In a military school there are 2400 students, and in several civilian schools the percentage has been found to be as large. Many German physicians are advocating the removal of the stammering schools from the army, and the Stammering Institute, the St. Petersburg, is a department of the Ministry of War.

An ornithological commission is formed at the Academy of Science in St. Petersburg for the systematic management of the Imperial Property. Its mission besides the pursuit of scientific studies, will be to devise means for the preservation and protection of the useful species of the bird kingdom.

A love of antiquities in Odessa has acquired some archeologic treasures which were dug from the soil of ancient Olivia, now the capital of Partotin, in the course of a recent construction of a network of gold, silver, and copper of exquisite workmanship. They seem to belong to the time when their skill in sculpture and engraving were in their bloom in Greece. These valuable treasures should be kept in a private house instead of the public museum, where the student and the artist could freely mine them.

Negotiations on the Volga have begun this season and there are already reports of several serious accidents caused by the technical troops which they now use to be stored away. The new rules of the technical troops will be much shorter, simpler, and ordinary. The pioneers, who have been engaged to produce new machine tools, are still at work.

The Grand Duchess Stephanie, widow of the Crown Prince of Austria, has left off her mourning, and is driving through Italy at present.

India has also been suffering from an omnibus strike, but in this case it was not the drivers, but the owners who struck because the authorities would not grant them permission to do so.

A French passenger steamer lost a trial with the armament fall in Germany, which went from six to eight miles an hour at an expense of two cents per horse power per hour. The engine needs only one man to tend it, and he can also steer.

The Turkish army is reported to be in excellent condition. New regiments of supporting forces are in the hands of the draftees. The artillery is furnished mainly by Krupp, and forty-nine regiments of cavalry, mostly raised in Asia, have recently been recruited.

Some years ago a Government official named Nielsen died in Schleswig leaving 20,000 crowns to his man servant and the sum of 1500 crowns to his maid. It is either married that person's portion according to the law, and their employers will have to pay on their behalf two cents a day, to go to a special pension fund. French workmen are mainly imported from Lorraine, and largely recruited from Lorraine.

A Chicago man has applied for a license to sell Indian pipes and smoking-skins, which he will drive around to a place where outdoor laborers are employed.

The formation of labor unions in Finland reached the point of resolving to hold a general meeting in Helsinki for this session a ukase from the czar stopped it entirely.

Exporting leprosy in India has given the bacillus.

The succeeded in giving a rabbit leprosy, the first time the disease has ever been known outside of the human body.

Constantinople has 50 newspapers; 19 of them are daily, 5 semi-weekly, 17 weekly, 3 semi-monthly, 6 monthly. In nationality 5 are Turkish, 7 Armenian, 4 Greek, French, 2 English, 2 English, 1 Italian, 1 German.

The Japanese Emperor has demanded that every man who provokes a duel accepts a challenge shall pay a heavy fine and serve from time to time until the challenge is settled.

The taunting of a man for his refusal to fight when challenged will henceforth be classed as a felony.

and will be so treated by courts.

A certain Russian case.

Of all European countries Sweden has the most extensive telephone system. For the further perfection of the service the General Telephone Company, in Stockholm, now offers put pictures in telephone booths.

The price is 4 francs per month. The tariff for each call will be 2 francs extra.

The license of competition between the Government Telephonist, telephone system and the General Telephone.

The Paris garcon has a cigarette. The cigarette for his pipe and the cigarette for his pipe.

Restaurants are now manured by a fierce-looking band resembling draggues more than waiters.

A telegram from Belgium states that a good number of men at Mount Athos and that the wealthy Greek Monastery of Simon Petros has been completely destroyed.

The damage is estimated at $1,000,000.

The Minister of Finance has sent orders to all consuls to prohibit the export of any persons suspected of smuggling or having any connections with the clandestine trade to be transported into the interior, at a distance of no less than five versts, from the frontier.

Berlin University this summer 322 instructors are delivering lectures. The name of Prof. Koch still appears in the calendar as professor and principal of the Hygienic Institute.

The university at Tomsk is the banner

"deadhead" educational institution.

Of its 222 students, 197 are educated at the expense of the state, 25 are poor, and 12 are "poorly" young men. Last year the Government spent $12,000 on them.