J. E. Trelford THE HARDWARE - MAN

IS still screwing down the prices in all kinks of hardware.

I would like to say a word in regard to stoves. It is now about the season for them to be brought into constant use, and to those who have to replace old ones I would just say, call on me before buying as I am confident I can give you the best stove at a lower price than any in the trade.

Call and see them before buying as I have something entirely new in stoves this year.

Jonathan Buschart, Lutwak, says—"After a brilliant social party gotten up by our esteemed young friend, Willy McFarland, assembled in Mr. Marsh's skating rink." Music melodious, and hearts buoyant and gay, rendered the entertainment quite unforgettable. Divinity ruled!—We had a Bishop, from Owen Sound, who entered heartily into the conviviality, the medical profession was well represented by Dr. Ego, and the dispensary could not have been more appropriately filled than it was by Messrs. Turner and McKeonie, of Markdale and Durhams, while the dress-goods and fineries had an ample representation in our genial friend, Willy McFarland, ably assisted by Messrs. Stinson and Dundas, while the useful groceries in every well-regulated household were on hand in the person of the invincible Benson.—Com-
