Local and Other Items.

Focus served from 8:30 to 8:30. Come out. Come two.

Mr. D. S. Smith, the barber, has moved two doors south into the premises formerly occupied by Broadhead & Carson, jewellers. This is a much more commodious shop and the tenorial business should receive increased patronage as a result of the change.

Our village council is in a bad way. They held a special meeting and voted some money to the telephone, and now the citizens are petitioning against it. By special request, a prayer for the council was offered at the revival meeting now going on here—Greenboro Star.

Mr. Andrew Beattie left on Wednesday for New Westminster, B. C., with a load of horses. This shipment is allowed by competent horse men to be the finest lot of horses which has ever been shipped from this point. We hope Mr. B. will meet with the success which his luck and enterprise deserve.

Every young man and his best girl are going to the egg season, and those of more mature years will also be there to see how they investigate. The intellectual part promises to be both interesting and profitable. Admission only 10 cents. Who did you say? In the basement of the Methodist church. When? On Friday evening, 14th.

Mr. J. C. Caven, Toronto, Travelling Passenger Agent, O. P. & N. says: "And-And-And is a perfect wonder. It drives off its action is unrelaxing—in my own case a few applications not only thoroughly relieved excessive dandruff accumulation, but stopped falling of the hair, made it soft and pliable and promoted a visible growth."

Mr. David Maloney, father of Rev. H. Maloney of this place, died on Thursday last after a short illness, aged 67 years. The remains were conveyed by 4:30 p. m. train on Friday to Corbett Station and were interred in the Mt. Pleasant cemetery on Saturday. A large number showed their respect for the departed by their attendance at the funeral.

Business will be suspended on Good Friday. Dr. Sinclair's next visit to Markdale will be on the 6th May. Glad to see F. M. Stafford out again after being indisposed a week with diphtheria.

A meeting to organize a junior football club will be held at the Markdale House to-night, (Thursday). All interested are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. W. McLoum, who had the misfortune of getting his leg broken by the kick of a horse some two months ago, is now able to be about with the aid of a crutch and a cane, and will commence assessing the township shortly.

PRETTY PINK PAPER—The grand Easter edition of the Albany Telegram for the issue of Saturday, April 16, will be printed on pretty pink paper with beautiful blue ink. It will be a paper worth preserving as a souvenir. There will be Easter poetry, stories, historical articles and beautiful illustrations. Think of it, 16 large pages of reading for 5 cents. Ask your newsboy or newsdealer for a copy.

Mr. H. D. Lewis, of Artemesia, aged 17 years, 6 young calves and 2 yearlings at his sale on Friday last. The sale only lasted about two hours and the cows brought an average of $81 each. Mr. Lewis has decided to go out of the dairy business for a time in order to make improvements on his farm which he could not make while his attention was devoted to that line.

MADAM WILSON, the well-known fortune teller, who has lived and plied her vocation here for many years died this morning. She was regarded by a not very small class of the community as a fortune teller, and her fame extended to the adjoining counties. Litigants at the district and Assize Courts were often known to her clients. Farmers here have been known to come twenty miles to consult her about the whereabouts of a stolen animal, or stray flock of sheep, and the number of fighting lovers she has consulted with bright forecasts for the future must be nearly as the sands on the sea shore.—O. S. Advertiser.

We have received from the publishers, a copy of The Canadian Methodist and Holy Bible, an eight page religious publication issued every fortnight at Brockville, Ont. The paper is creditably gotten up and reflects great credit upon the printer and publisher. It contains no advertisements and is full of the best of religious reading. The editors seem to aim at providing every line of the paper with welcome and thoughtful material that the reader will not have to traverse columns and even pages to obtain a few thoughts. The paper is cheap, 50 cents a year. The publishers desire all who wish to see a sample copy to send them a postal note to that effect.

We have received from the publishers the 1st No. of Vol. 8, of The Canadian Bee Journal, edited by D. A. Jones, its usual semi-monthly at Brockville, Ont. The journal is creditably gotten up, and is illustrated with a splendid frontispiece with engravings of Allan Pringle Selby, Rev. W. F. Clark, Guelph; J. McKnight, Owen Sound; S. Conroy, Lindsay. The reading matter is of vital interest to all bee-keepers, and especially to the farmer "whose bees don't pay." In those desirous of obtaining practical information regarding bees, no better investment can be made, we think, than a dollar spent in a subscription to the Canadian Bee Journal. Single addresses for sample copy to Bee Journal, Brockville, Ont.

A CASE OF VERY FREQUENT OCCURRENCE.—The people of Port Hope were much surprised on Sunday last when it became known that Rev. Mr. Washburn, formerly of this town, but now Baptist minister of that village, had resigned his charge stating to his congregation that he was no longer in accord with the doctrines of the church, in several points and particularly regarding his attitude towards children. He will likely publish his views in the press as he has taken. It is his intention, we understand, to connect himself with the Methodist denomination and enter the ministry of that church as soon as he may have work for him to do.—Warton Echo.

It is made of a perfect steel and is made in the spring tooth cultivator and every time. Just the thing for running a summer fallow after first plowing.
