ADDRESS. DEAR BROTHER.-It is with mingled DEAR BROTHER.—It is with mingled feelings of joy and sorrow we are assembled here this evening to bid you farewell before taking your departure to enter the noblest calling a man can be engaged in, "Harvesting souls for the Master." We feel that your place will be hard to fill and we regret to part with one who has labored with such maticipal. Mr. C. M. C. Hubble of Barrhead mills has gone to Toronto for a month, having completed the season's sawing.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Mathews droye to ice to know you are only leaving us to loice to know you are only leaving us to cuter more fully on your field of labor. May God's blessing go with you and our prayers shall ever follow you, and it may cheer you to remember that daily your name shall be wafted on wings of prayer to our Heavenly Father for your goidance and support and that he, may grant you great respectively. guidance and support and that he, may grant you great prosperity and happiness. As a reward of your labor kindly accept this gift as a small token of our esteem and regard for you. Value it not for its intrinsic yorth but as an expression of the good-will of your old friends who have your future welfare so much at heart. May you long be spared to peruse its pages and glean therefrom knowledge that may be useful to you in your sacred calling.
