THE Newspaper Law. 1. Any person who takes a paper regularly from the post office, whether in his name or another's, whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for payment.

2. If a person orders his paper discontinued he must pay up all arrears or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and then collect the whole amount whether the paper be taken from the post office or not.

3. In suits for subscriptions the publisher may be instituted in the place where the paper is published, although the subscriber may reside hundreds of miles away.

The courts have decided that refusing newspapers or periodicals from the post office, or continuing to receive them after notice, while unpaid in full, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

STAY ANIMALS should be promptly advertised thereby saving the owner unnecessary trouble and time searching for them.
