Europe Getting Colder.

That Europe is, passing through a cold period has been pointed out by M. Flammarion, the French astronomer. During the past six years the mean temperature of Paris has been about two degrees below the normal, and Great Britain, Belgium, Spain, Italy, Austria and Germany have also been far southward since the 13th century; and a similar cooling has been observed as far away as Rio Janeiro, where the annual temperature has been going down for some
