Hon. G. W. Ross, Minister of Education, has sent out a circular to inspectors and teachers which reads: "I beg to call your attention to the propriety of having suitable exercises in our schools on October 12th, to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the discovery of America. For this purpose teachers are recommended to make whatever modifications they may find convenient for bringing to the notice of their pupils such an important event. It would suggest that on the occasion of that day, so far as possible, they might be suitable for short addresses, and the progress of civilization and discovery of this continent, for which could be made a lesson on the youth of our country."
