And so in the beautiful face of nature He wrote the beautons of His keve and tenderness and care. On the brow of the morning on every cloud of brightness or of shade that flits along the wide pasture of the firmament, amid the splendors of the silent glittering stars—of all these things Killin speaks: "Hast thou commanded the day starsincethy days." and on the same day of the work of the seasing stands good for all the sweet of the saying stands good for all the save of origin." And then he says to Job, and consider the wonderous works of God! We are all much to apt to waste time in discussions concerning mysterious occult problems, while God's great lessons of wisdom and love and ceaseless care are all plain before our faces, written afcesh on the page of overy new-born day. The week that has just passed has taught us a very solemal shows this, that if the sun were to lose its way and wander a little nearer to our earth we should all be burned to a handful of dug. If God should let alip the bands that way and wander a little nearer to our carth we should all be burned to a handful of dug. If God should let alip the bands that had the sun's unfattering way, what them? "It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not all const med." Elliu's question, "Who demanded his mone." Golden Thoughts for Every Day. Monday-No trait of character is mor

Valuable in a woman than the possession of a sweet temper. Home can never be made happy without it. It is like the flowers that spring up in our pathway, reviving and cheering us. Let a man go home at night, wearied by the toils of the day, and how soothing is a word dictated by a good disposition! It is sunshine falling on his heart. He is happy, and life's cares are forgotten. A sweet temper has a soothing influence over the minds of a whole family. Where it is found in the wife and mother, you observe kindness and love predominat-Smites, kind words and tooks characterize the children, and peace and love have their dwelling there. A sweet temper is more valuable than gold; it captivates more than beauty and to the close of life it retains all its freshness and power.—L. La Robertson.
